

Play Safe!

Winter is not far off. Colder weather is coming. That is one of the surest things we know.

Better play safe and phone us your order for your coal or coke now while delivery conditions are good and you can be sure of prompt service. Our fuel is fully guaranteed—it must satisfy or we remove it and refund your money.

Buy Your Coal on Approval!

S-16

Consumers Company
COAL - COKE - FUEL OIL
PHONE HIGHLAND PARK 2500
DELIVERY YARDS ALL OVER THE NORTH SHORE

Local and Personal

A quiet home wedding occurred last Sunday, September 30, at the M. E. Parsonage when Mr. Paul E. Downing and Miss Eleanor Doble were united in marriage by the bride's father, Rev. W. B. Doble, in the presence of the immediate families only. The groom, formerly of Bellefontaine, Ohio, has been a resident of this community for several years, and is known in business circles, as an expert floor layer and surfacer. The bride also is well known in this community, having taken an active interest in musical and social activities. The time chosen for this wedding will be especially memorable to the families as it represents Rev. Doble's last ceremony as an active pastor in Highland Park. After a wedding dinner and usual felicitations, the young couple left for their honeymoon, and upon returning later in the week, they will reside at 824 Waukegan avenue Highland Park.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Jackson, daughter of Mrs. Fred Jackson of Lake Forest and Mr. Arnold Werhane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Werhane of this city will take place Saturday afternoon at four o'clock at the first Presbyterian church of Lake Forest, the Rev. Geo. Roberts officiating. Miss Jackson will be attended by her sister Verne as maid of honor. Mr. Robert George Robinson will serve Mr. Werhane as best man. A reception will follow the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Gladys Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Larson will be married to Mr. Chester Bierwirth of Chicago next Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. W. F. Suhr officiating. The attendants will be Mrs. T. J. Zable who will serve as matron of honor, and Miss Lois Larson who will be the maid of honor. The Misses Thelma Larson, Vernyle McDuff, Dorothy May, Peggy Griffiths, Ivy Levett and Mrs. Russell Barth (Thelma Bench) will act as ribbon bearers. Dorothy Kutzer and Mary Elizabeth Larson will be flower girls and Donald Lilja will be the ring bearer. Mr. Harry Fuller of Chicago will serve the groom as best man. Miss Darlene Jones will play the wedding march. A reception will follow the ceremony after which the young couple will leave on a wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside in Chicago.

Mrs. Rolland Hastings is entertaining at dinner Friday evening for Mrs. Charles Dicky who is visiting her daughter Mrs. Irving Randall.

Miss Mayme Rosenberg entertained several of her young friends at dinner Friday evening.

Miss Mary Noerenberg was hostess to the Young People Missionary society on Monday evening.

On Tuesday evening the Merry-go-round club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Florence Casebeer.

Miss Peggy Griffith and Mrs. Russell Baertz are entertaining for Miss Gladys Larson this evening (Thursday).

Mrs. Quardt of S. Greenbay road is entertaining the Ladies Aid society of the Redeemer Lutheran church, this afternoon.

Mrs. J. B. Card and daughter Miss Ruth have returned from abroad where they spent the summer. Miss Mary Card will remain in New York for the winter.

Rev. and Mrs. C. G. Unangst returned from quite an extended trip through Pennsylvania on last Saturday evening. Part of the time they accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hintz. At the same time Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maechtle made a trip to Pennsylvania and New York. All had a most enjoyable time visiting among friends and traveling through the "Switzerland of America."

Mrs. N. A. Wink is leaving today for Joliet to attend the Realtors Convention being held there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gieser of Ames, Iowa, are visiting their parents Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gieser.

The Misses Ruth Robbins and Genevieve Cooke motored to Naperville, Ill., over the week-end and were the guests of Miss Mary Guyot.

Mrs. W. Blanchard (Mary Fay) will leave Friday for her home in Vancouver, B. C., having spent the summer here with her mother.

The Junior Star club are holding a hostess card party at the home of Mrs. E. Strenger of Oakwood avenue next Wednesday evening.

Mrs. William Guyot is entertaining the Worth While circle this evening (Thursday).

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Brand and Miss Charlotte have moved from the old homestead on S. Second street, which was purchased some time ago by the Udell Printing Co., to their new home on Deerfield avenue, in Deerfield. Mr. and Mrs. Saathoff and family are now living in the Second street residence.

An important missionary conference is being held at the Kimball avenue United Evangelical church in Chicago this week. Bishop E. S. Woodring and Dr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor, of China, are among the speakers. Miss Bertha Paine, of Highland Park, missionary in India for more than twenty years will speak on "Prayer and Missions." The First United Evangelical church of this city is well represented at the conference.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Wicks and daughter are leaving their home in Ravinia this week and will spend the winter in Chicago at the 20 E. Delaware apartments.

The opening meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Presbyterian church will be held in the home of Mrs. George M. Bard, 295 Maple avenue, on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. An interesting program has been prepared and all the ladies of the church are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Jerrems, Jr., of S. St. Johns avenue are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Mary Lenore, on Saturday, September 29 at the Highland Park hospital. Mrs. Jerrems was formerly Lenore Smith.

Mrs. Trigg Waller of Forest avenue has returned to Highland Park for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon H. Gleason and family of County Line road have moved into their new home located at 257 Cedar avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. John Notz of Deerfield, Illinois announce the birth of a son on Tuesday, September 25 at the Highland Park hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Cuscaden of S. Sheridan road left Friday for Philadelphia where they are attending the American Bankers association convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bates of Deerfield, are the proud parents of a son born on Saturday, September 29 at the Highland Park hospital.

Miss Marie Bletsch has returned from a four months trip in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Forrest, Jr., announce the birth of a daughter, Marian Townsley on September 26 at the Michael Reese hospital, Chicago.

Miss Jane Martin of Hazel avenue left Sunday for Rose Mary Hall, Connecticut where she will attend school.

Bishop E. S. Woodring, of Allentown, Penn., a preacher with burning message, will preach at the First United Evangelical church on Sunday evening at 7:45 o'clock.

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. William J. Glaser of the marriage of their daughter, Frances Leona to James B. McCraren on Thursday, October 4 at 10 o'clock at St. James church, Highwood, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. James Viti announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Rose, to Mr. Giacomo Cantagallo on Saturday morning, October 6, at 9:30 o'clock at St. James church, Highwood, Illinois. After a reception in the parish house the young couple will take a two weeks motor trip through the east visiting New York.

The Womens Missionary society of the First United Evangelical church will meet on Thursday afternoon, October 11, with Mrs. R. G. Evans of South First street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bailey of Ridge-wood drive are the proud parents of a daughter born on Friday, September 28 at the Highland Park hospital.

Mrs. Paul W. Blanchard of Walker avenue had as her guest over the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCormick and their daughter, Emma of Aurora, Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hornberger of Deerfield announce the birth of a daughter on Wednesday, September 26, at the Highland Park hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Emerson of S. Linden avenue are enjoying a trip through the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clavey of First street, Northbrook, Illinois are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter on Monday, October 1 at the Highland Park hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Walters were pleasantly surprised on Saturday evening at their home on Glenview avenue when twenty of their friends came to help them celebrate their fourteenth wedding anniversary. Five hundred passed the evening hours pleasantly, the successful prize winners having been Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Berube, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Schmidley, Mrs. J. Walters and Mrs. Mary Ohlwein.

Little Joyce Bridges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Bridges of W. Park avenue entertained twelve of her little girl friends at a delightful birthday party yesterday afternoon (Wednesday). It was Joyce's sixth birthday and all the little guests report "just the best time ever."

Mrs. Arthur Swanson was hostess on Thursday afternoon at two tables of bridge at her home on Orchard lane.

Mrs. E. L. Blume of 1040 S. Sheridan road entertained twelve ladies at luncheon on Monday. The occasion was in celebration of a birthday anniversary. The guests included friends from Chicago and Highland Park.

The annual card party of the American Legion auxiliary will be held Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock at the Moraine hotel. The receipts will be for service among disabled veterans of the world war.

Mrs. Helen C. Golden has returned from a ten days stay in Burlington, Iowa, where she has been the guest of Mrs. Fred Berry, Mrs. Harry Schwartz and Mrs. Walter Stang.

Mrs. Fred Fisher, Sr., was the guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller of Antioch, Ill.

The regular business and social meeting of the Girls' choir of St. John's Evangelical church was held at the parsonage on N. Green Bay road on Monday evening at eight o'clock. Vernetta Werhane, president of the group presided at the business meeting. Election of officers resulted in Catherine Zimmer being elected president, and Florence Zimmer, secretary; Sophia Zinglar, treasurer, and Alice Flint, birthday secretary. Several items of business were transacted. Following the business meeting Mrs. K. A. Roth led a discussion on Friendship. Several games were enjoyed in which Vernetta Werhane and Florence Zimmer were successful and were presented with a gift. The hostess served refreshments.

On Tuesday evening, Oct. 2, the members of St. John's Evangelical church enjoyed a delicious supper in the social room of the church. The dinner was planned by the social and service committees of the Women's society, with Mrs. C. B. Hansen and Mrs. Geo. Bock as chairmen. The room was made attractive with paper streamers in orange and yellow and with autumn leaves. A committee of the Girls' choir took charge of the decorations. Following the dinner a business meeting of the congregation was held. In the absence of Mr. G. A. Holste, president of the church council, Rev. K. A. Roth presided. Reports of the officers for the fiscal year were given and plans for the coming year were discussed. A fine spirit of fellowship and friendliness prevailed.

Mrs. John M. Wanless, 851 North Sheridan road, Highland Park, will be hostess at a tea on Wednesday, Oct. 10 from three to five o'clock, for the benefit of the Church Home for Aged Persons.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Tillman are entertaining twenty guests at a family dinner tomorrow evening; the occasion is in celebration of their 12th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kopp of 458 Lincoln avenue had as their guests for the past two weeks their son, Theodore L. Kopp and wife and small son, Buddy of Santa Rosa, Calif., also J. Kopp of Detroit, Mich., besides their sons and daughters from Chicago and their son, Martin E. Kopp and family of this city. During their stay here a family reunion was held.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore L. Kopp left for California on Thursday evening, Sept. 28.

Mrs. Arch Abercromby entertained at two tables of bridge at her home on Lincoln avenue last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rudolph of County Line road left yesterday for a trip to northern Wisconsin.

Mrs. Bruno Boehm of River Forest entertained at a one o'clock luncheon on Tuesday for Mrs. E. Heim of Fisk, Wis., the guest of Mrs. E. M. Conrad.

Mrs. Alex Smith of Glencoe, formerly Miss Elsie Witten of this city is all in the Highland Park hospital and is reported to be getting along nicely.

Mr. Soren K. Ostergaard is visiting Mrs. Ostergaard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stipe of South Green Bay road. Mr. Ostergaard has been connected with the New York Life Insurance Co., in Silverton, Ore., for the past five years and has been transferred from the Oregon branch to Chicago. Mrs. Ostergaard and children will arrive in the near future.

Robert Denzel and Thomas Peters are enjoying a fishing trip at Rice Lake, Wis., this week.

Miss Anne Kelly of Winnetka and Mr. Edward Greenwald of this city have chosen Wednesday, Oct. 17, at their wedding day.

Mrs. Howard Moran, who has been quite ill for the past two weeks is able to be around again.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Tillman and family and Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Gross of Chicago spent Sunday in Elgin.

Mrs. Edward Helm of Fisk, Wis., spent a few days of this week with her sister, Mrs. Edward M. Conrad of Laurel avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. John Abbott of N. Second street announce the birth of a son Wednesday in Grant hospital, Chicago. Mrs. Abbott was formerly Miss Irene Fisher of Glencoe.

A very pretty little home wedding took place on Wednesday at seven o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rudolph of County Line road when their daughter, Helen Rose, was married to George Martin Daily, son of Mrs. Tolbert Daily of Oakwood avenue. The Rev. William Suhr performed the ceremony with only the two intimate families present. The bride wore a pretty frock of pink chiffon and carried a bouquet of Ceciel Brunner roses, while her bridesmaid, Miss Bernice Rudolph of Glencoe, a cousin wore yellow georgette and carried a bouquet of yellow roses. The groom was attended by Mr. Raymond Rudolph, a brother of the bride as best man. After the ceremony a very delicious dinner was served the twenty guests present after which Mr. and Mrs. Daily departed for a two weeks honeymoon trip to Waukegan, Wis. After October 15 Mr. and Mrs. Daily will be at home to the many friends at 543 Oakwood avenue, Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Leif Norman moved from the house at 1641 S. Green Bay road into their own home on Pleasant street last week.

There will be a dance at the Elks club on Saturday night for Elks and their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Grant McPherson are at the Moraine hotel for a few months prior to leaving for California where they will spend the winter. They have rented their home to Mr. and Mrs. Sweetzer of Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Conrad and family and Frederick Golden, Jr., were the guests on Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stape of Wilmette.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Holland who have been on a tour through the east for the past ten days will return to their home on E. Park avenue this week.

Miss Vertna Conway of Evanston entertained a number of friends of Miss Anne Witten on Saturday afternoon in the form of a lingerie shower. Miss Witten's marriage to Harold Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Martin will take place next month.

COME HERE!

When you want things for the health and comfort of your baby, this is the place.

We have all the essentials, such as:

Baby Foods
Talcums
Water Bottles
Absorbent Cotton
Laxatives
Nipples

Thermometers
Soaps
Rubber Pants
Gauze
Cod Liver Oil
Nursing Bottles

Particular care is given in selecting these products as we want to offer you only the best. You may be sure of "quality first" when patronizing our baby department.

LET US DELIVER YOU
SICK NEEDS

EARL W. GSELL & CO.
PHARMACISTS

388 Central Avenue
Phone 2600

389 Roger Williams Avenue
Phone 2300

Hart
Schaffner
& Marx
Top Coats
Meet
the severest wear and weather
tests

$22.50
$27.50 $35.00

They have to. When Four Winds fabrics come out of the Hart Schaffner & Marx testing laboratories they're right. Get them in Raglans or single breasted straight line coats—in Chesterfields, University models, double breasted. You'll get style — and you'll get longer wear than you ever experienced before.

S. Fell

Highland Park and Winnetka

Phone Highland Park and Winnetka 307

The Battery with Balanced POWER...

Exide
Batteries
Becker Auto Service

Tires and Tubes

May We Change the Oil and Lubricate Your Car

15 North St. Johns Ave. Highland Park

Phone 31

Distributors of Quaker State Oil