REPRESENTATIVES OF FIVE NATIONS SPEAK

Interesting Program at High School Assembly Friday; Features

Five nations — the United States, England, France, Canada, and Mexico — were represented in last Friday's assembly at Deerfield-Shields high school, when natives of those countries spoke to the students of Deerfield-Shields. Germany was also to have been represented but the student was unable to come.

The first speaker was Efrain Brito Grosado, a Mexican. Following his talk, a Frenchman, Rene Ponteur, said a few words. Ponteur is an honor student in Paris and is planning to become a lawyer. William Fox from London, Ontario, Canada, spoke on "The Future of Canada." "The English Governmental System" was the subject of Dudley Rein Barker, representing England. The last speaker, James More, from Summerset, Kentucky, told "The Story of the American Constitution."

The oldest speaker was nineteen and the youngest seventeen. They were chosen from their entire countries by a series of contests. On October 13, they will take part in the International Oratorical contest in Washington.

FIRE INSPECTION IS COMPLETED IN CITY

Chief Hoskin Says Conditions General Found Good; Annual Observance

NEW EQUIPMENT FOR H. S. TYPING DEPT.

Twenty-seven new secretarial desks and twenty-seven new typewriters are to be added to the commercial department of the high school. The desks have three drawers on each side and there is a disappearing typewriter so that the desk can be used for typing, then pushed under and used as a regular desk. The desks are to be of oak.

Classes in typing are crowded, even though there are over thirty-four typewriters. The twenty-seven new typewriters will provide every one with a machine.
