Christian Science

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Highland Park, Ill., 381 Hazel Avenue, a branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., holds services every Sunday morning at 10:45 and on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, when testimonies of Christian Science healing are given. Sunday School meets at 9:30 a.m., and is open to pupils under the age of twenty.

Presbyterian Church

Laurel and Linden avenues
Rev. Frank Pitt, pastor
Friday: 4:00 Campfire meeting in the parish house.
8:00 The Young People's society party in the parish house. All of the young people in the church are cordially invited to attend.
Sunday: 9:30 Rehearsal for the Girls' choir.
9:45 Church school. Classes for all ages. The Adult class led by Mr. Lenington is studying comparative religions.
11:00 Morning worship. The pastor will preach on "Finding God in Life."
7:00 Young People's society. Subject: The Social Principles of Jesus. Leader: Tevis Gibson.
Tuesday, 2:30 The Presbyterian guild will meet in the home of Mrs. John Russell, 415 South Sheridan road on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Herbert Small and Mrs. Charles F. Baker will assist the hostess. The ladies of the church are cordially invited.
Wednesday, 7:45 Church Night program. The second lecture on "The Pilgrim's Progress." Subject: The Immortal Allegory. This will be illustrated. To Bunyan the vision of the new Jerusalem was in the sky and in the future. This world was a city of destruction from which to flee in dread, and yonder was the celestial city in which to find safety and joy. Between the two the pilgrim makes his way. The long journey is beset by many perils but rewarded by alluring joys.

Grace M. E. Church

North avenue at Laoretta place
Frank Davidson Hopkins, minister
A splendid congregation greeted the new pastor last Sunday morning on his first appearance in the pulpit and listened with interest to his discourse on "The Two Talent Man." Dr. Hopkins is no stranger to Highland Park, having lived here for over a year while temporarily vacationing from active work. He has filled the pulpit of this and other churches in the community and adjoining towns during that time and has held important pastorates in Oak Park, Chicago and Lake Forest. He expressed deep gratification at being appointed to this church and looks forward to his work here with keen anticipation.

Next Sunday morning the pastor will take for his theme, "The Next to the Greatest Thing in the World," and hopes to be greeted with an equally large audience. Those without a church home will find a most cordial welcome here and Methodists coming to Highland Park from other communities will find a delightful Methodist church home with this people.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Jefferson, with whom the pastor has made his home for many years and who constitute "the pastor's family," will move into the parsonage with the pastor as soon as some needed renovations are completed and will take an active part in the work of the church and Sunday school.

For some weeks, even before it was known that Dr. Hopkins would be sent to this church, he has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Fritsch, 433 Oakwood avenue, old friends of his and former members of Willard Memorial M. E. church in Oak Park when Dr. Hopkins was pastor there. Any desiring to reach him for any service should feel free to call there and can also reach him through phone H. P. 1499. He hopes to be in the parsonage very soon and meantime is getting acquainted with his new parishioners.

Bethany Evangelical

C. F. Schriver, minister
The services of last Sunday were very helpful and well attended. Not many who were present for the Dedication services nearly 30 years ago were privileged to attend. Rev. Geo. Schwartz' messages were very helpful. He with the pastor called upon some of the shut-ins in the afternoon. The pastor wishes to thank the members of the Band orchestra for their part in the evening services.

This is moving week, next Sunday we meet in the new building at the corner of Laurel avenue and McGovern street. Sunday school at 9:45. Dr. E. D. Fritsch is our superintendent. We will be looking for many new faces as a good number have promised to be there when we get to this new location. Bring your family and remain for the morning service.
Worship at eleven and seven forty-five. Messages by the pastor. Music by the choir in the morning and by the E. L. C. E. in the evening. The pastor's evening theme is, "The Christian's Grace of Courtesy." The special offering today is for the Construction Mission Church Building fund.
Christian Endeavor meeting Thursday evening at Miss May Hansen's. Refreshments and social hour. All young folks are invited.
Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening at seven o'clock.
We invite the public to worship with us. Come and see our religious educational department where we will worship until the church proper is completed.

United Evangelical

Rev. C. G. Unangst, pastor
Rev. Joseph Taylor will preach on Sunday morning at 10:45, and Rev. Elmer Gieser will occupy the pulpit at 7:45 p. m. Come and hear these brethren.
The Sunday school is doing well. The attendance on rally day surpassed our expectations and on last Sunday it was nearly as large as on rally day. "Christian Stewardship" is the subject of the Bible lesson for Sunday. 2 Cor. 8:1-9; 9:6-7, 15. Come! Come early! Come and bring a friend.
Christian Endeavor meeting at 7:00 p. m. Topic, "How Does Law Increase Freedom?" Matt. 25:14-30. Elmer Gieser leader.
Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock.
"Your loyalty or disloyalty to God may bless or blast many lives."
"Pope self is your worst enemy."
"It is a sin for any human being to surrender his will for a single instant to the control of any being except his Creator. We are to surrender to Christ, and that is one evi-
