BRIEF NEWS ITEMS FROM LAKE COUNTY

NEIGHBORHOOD JOTTINGS

Interesting Happenings About This Part of North Shore and Vicinity; County Seat Doings

The first convention ever held in the city of North Chicago will take place Oct. 31 when the Royal Neighbors of La. county will hold their annual convention in that city.

Working at about 7:30 in the morning apparently with a key to the office door and the combination of the safe, a sneak thief got away with $200 in cash and checks from the Therrien Insurance agency on the mezzanine floor of the Karcher hotel, Waukegan.

Mrs. Mary Dady, wife of Eugene Dady, a former resident of Waukegan, died at her home at 1342 Fifty-Sixth street, Kenosha, last week following an extended illness.

Residents of Gurnee have started a campaign to bring about more frequent bus service between that community and Waukegan. A petition now being circulated in the village is to be presented to the North Shore railroad within the near future.

Michael Lux, a life long and one of the best known residents of Waukegan, passed away at his home last week, after an extended illness. He was 70 years of age.

After clinging to the thread of life for three months, Charles Kareusler, aged 25 years, and who resided near the state line between Antioch and Salem, lost his battle with death in the Victory Memorial hospital, Tuesday afternoon. Kareusler suffered severe burns when a gasoline stove exploded in his home on the evening of July 25.

After the testimony of two of the surviving members of the airplane party which met with disaster when their plane crashed into a Public Service company transmission line near the city a week ago Sunday night killing a woman passenger, a coroner's jury returned a verdict in the inquest held last week.

All Lake county cattle will have to be tested for bovine tuberculosis, it was stated by Dr. T. P. Gallahue, county veterinarian, who has completed a census of all herds in the county. He found that there are 1,035 herds in the county according to the assessor's reports for 1928. His list shows that 1,028 are being tested, or about 80 per cent.

PATENTS ISSUED TO INVENTORS IN COUNTY

Waukegan, Highland Park, Lake Forest and N. Chicago Men Mentioned

Patents have been issued at the patent office in Washington, D. C., to several Lake county residents, according to word received here.

Frank J. Eisenhardt of Waukegan has been granted a patent on a new type of brake lining. He has assigned it to the Johns-Manville company.

Edgar H. Engle of Lake Forest and F. W. Lincoln of Chicago, have been granted a patent on a voltage regulator. They have assigned it to the Fansteel Products company of North Chicago. Mr. Engle and H. L. Olson, the latter of Highland Park, have been granted a patent on a filament voltage regulator. This also has been assigned to the Fansteel company.

Gilston E. Stryker of North Chicago has been granted a patent on a device for regulating alternating current. He has assigned this to the Fansteel company.

ATTEND MEETING OF WOMEN VOTERS LEAGUE

Mmes. Blasier, Gooder and Reichelt attended the luncheon given by the Highland Park Branch of the Illinois League of Women Voters on Wednesday, where Mrs. Lundee of Chicago was the speaker and Mrs. Maurice Lieber, of Winnetka, acted as parliamentarian.

Mrs. Wallace Carr was elected president in place of Mrs. L. L. Winters who resigned. Mrs. G. B. Chapman is vice president; Mrs. Benson, secretary and Mrs. Kline treasurer.

On the board of directors are Mmes. Wood, Walker, Wolff, Hopkins and Murray.

This branch of the league started with 28 members last April, 28 joined on Wednesday, and the total membership is now 124. The league is absolutely non-partisan and is inspired with the desire to get an intelligent vote at every election, instead of one "through inheritance and inertia," and every voter to the polls.

BUILDING & LOAN MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

At a recent special meeting the directors of the Deerfield Building and Loan association volunteered to act as captains of teams of members to present the advantages of owning shares in the association, and reports already received indicate that the team captains are working hard to bring their teams through at the top of the list when the campaign closes. Reports to date are as follows:

Team No.—Captain	No. Shares
1—C. C. Kapschull	20
4—H. E. Wing	50
12—Dan Hunt	15
13—C. W. Getty	50
14—F. J. Geismann	20
15—J. P. McCloskey	30

It is understood the other team captains who have not yet reported are signing up new members and some surprising results are expected at the special directors meeting Thursday evening of this week, of which further details will be given in this column next week. The annual report for the last fiscal year has just been completed, and it is stated the earnings were exceptionally satisfactory.

COURT OF HONOR HELD IN DEERFIELD

Scouts of Glenview, Northbrook and Deerfield met at the Deerfield Presbyterian church last Friday evening for a demonstration in scouting and for the first district-wide Court of Honor. The first part of the meeting was in charge of assistant scout executive McManus and demonstrations of scout craft were put on by the Northbrook and Deerfield troops. The last part of the program consisted of the Court of Honor in which six candidate scouts joined the scout organization and received their tenderfoot pins. Second class and first class awards were then presented and finally merit badges to those who had earned them during the summer. Of the local scouts, Duncan Reeds and Robert Van Treuren received their second class awards and Edward Cazal his first class award. Scouts Harold Huhn, James Getty, Edward Cazal and Scoutmaster Andrews and assistant scoutmaster Huhn were awarded merit badge. Next month the Court of Honor will take place in Northbrook on Friday evening, Nov. 16th.

STATE AID GIVEN TO DISTRICT SCHOOLS

A law became effective in Illinois on July 1, 1928 which provides that the State aid for each district shall be nine dollars for each pupil in average daily attendance for the year in the elementary grades. This law also provides for special aid for districts by providing that if a district levies the maximum tax rate that the school board can levy without a referendum and still cannot obtain as much as $850 per teacher or $25 per pupil in average daily attendance in the elementary grades, the state will make up the difference.

The assessed valuations of districts with one teacher ranged from $2,410, 555 in District No. 50 in Lake county only $10,400 in District No. 56 in Saline county. This is a ratio of 231 to 1 in ability to support schools.

CONTRACTOR STARTS WORK ON ROUTE 173

Contractors last week started work on grading Route 173, Zion to Rockford, at the Zion end of the road. Hope has been expressed to complete a mile of paving before winter. The contract has been awarded by the state highway department from Sheridan road to a point north of Millburn. At present efforts are being made to clear away the last objections to granting right-of-ways for the road.

JOHN A. REICHEL, JR. DIES SUDDENLY FRIDAY

FUNERAL HELD TUESDAY

Was Prominent Deerfield Resident; Served on School Board for Nine Years

John Augustus Reichelt, Jr. died suddenly Friday evening, October 19, of cerebral hemorrhage.

He was born December 14, 1871, the son of John Augustus and Louise Cowlin Reichelt, in Chicago. He attended Denison university, Granville, Ohio and for 35 years was a commercial traveler for Selz Schwab and Co., a wholesale shoe firm, but resigned two years ago on account of ill health due to injuries received in a fall some time previous, from which he never entirely recovered.

On October 18, 1893, he was married to Miss Marie Louise Ward, daughter of John Clark and Rose Wallace Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. Reichelt, Jr. had six children, Ruth (Mrs. R. E. Pettis), Elizabeth (Mrs. C. T. Anderson), Dorothy (Mrs. C. C. Gates), Ward, Helen and Wallace, and two grandchildren, Jean Roberta Pettis and Dorothy Jean Anderson.

Mr. Reichelt was a member of the Deerfield school board for nine years, and his name is on the corner stone of the school, which was erected during his term of office. He was a village trustee for four years.

In his youth he became a member of the Fourth Baptist church, Chicago, and never severed his connection with that denomination.

His interests were largely in his home and his garden and his grandchildren, of whom he was very proud.

He was a devoted father, a good citizen, a man of sterling honesty, a staunch Republican and loyal American.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at the home and burial was in the Deerfield cemetery, beside his son Ward, who passed away in 1916. Rev. Mark J. Andrews, minister of the First Presbyterian church conducted the services.

DISCUSS "BIRD LIFE" AT MEETING OCT. 17

The regular meeting of the garden club was held at the home of Mrs. Julian Seiveth with Mrs. G. A. Willen as assistant hostess, on Wednesday afternoon, October 17.

During the business meeting, the club voted to contribute toward the migration in Southern Illinois. An appropriation was also made to the library.

The speaker of the afternoon was Mr. Leech of the Elm Place school in Highland Park. The subject was "Bird Life." Mr. Leech first discussed the migration of the birds. He also talked about bird banding and later classified them according to their feeding habits. The whole talk was interspersed with most interesting personal experiences. Mr. Leech highly recommends a feeding table as a source of great pleasure to old and young members of a family as well as to the birds themselves. It does not need to be an elaborate affair to be attractive to the birds. Mr. Leech very graciously answered questions at the close of his talk and very generously passed around bird calendars. The subject in the able hands of the speaker proved to be a most pleasing variation to the usual subjects in gardening.

The meeting adjourned for a social hour and refreshments.

Deerfield A. C. football team won their third consecutive game when they defeated Lake Forest with a score of 20-6 Sunday afternoon on the Jewett field.

It was an easy victory for Deerfield who out played their opponents all during the game.

The game attracted an unusually large crowd and the team is grateful for the enthusiastic support they are receiving from Deerfield and neighboring towns. Next Sunday they will play at Crystal Lake.

CLAIM EX-CHIEF'S SON STARTED HOUSE FIRES

Merle Frame, son of former Police Chief J. C. Frame, is said to have confessed to Paul E. Bertram, deputy state fire marshal, that he started the fires at the Frame home "for excitement," according to the Waukegan Sun.

The town of Highwood was up in arms because Frame's house was fired twice after he had resigned as police chief. It was thought that the fires were a part of the threats made by enemies of the former chief to "get him."

Bertram was called in to work on the case and catch the "fire bug."

After investigating all angles, Bertram called in the young Frame boy for questioning. He readily admitted, police say, that he started the fires because things were dull around town and he craved excitement. He got it.
