Following the service, which was read by the Rev. Harold Case, there will be a small reception.

Parties which have been given for Miss Anthony include a linen shower given by Miss Zinnie Irwin and Mrs. W. P. Dahl, a miscellaneous shower on September 17, at which her sisters, Miss Rebecca Anthony and Mrs. G. M. Lamphear, were hostesses and a kitchen shower which was given by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert H. Anthony, at her home in Glencoe on October 16. Mr. and Mrs. Anthony, the bride's parents, gave the bridal dinner at their home last Thursday evening.

After a wedding trip through the East the young couple will reside in Hubbard Woods.

At the lovely wedding of Miss Elizabeth Webster and Sturtevant Hinman which took place last Saturday afternoon at Christ church, autumn shades were the predominant note. The decorations in the church and at the reception which followed at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Strong, in Hubbard Woods, were autumn leaves and chrysanthemums and the fall shades of orange and brown were carried out in the gowns of the bride's attendants. The bridal gown was a Paris model of ivory satin made with a court train and trimmed with lace. The veil was of lace and the bridal bouquet was of lilies-of-the-valley, sweet peas, and gardenias.

Mrs. Perry E. Buchanan, matron of honor, and Miss Helen G. Oakley of Montclair, N. J., maid of honor, were gowned respectively in dark shades of brown and orange chiffon and velvet. The bridesmaids, Miss Constance E. Green, Miss Jane P. Bertschy, Miss Fanny K. Young, Miss Dorothy A. Barrett, and Miss Jeanette Keller, were in frocks of the lighter shades of orange brown. All the attendants wore hats of various shades of brown felt and carried arm bouquets of chrysanthemums.

Anne Strong and Emily Webster, flower girls, were dressed in chiffon of a pale apricot shade and carried baskets of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums.

Norman Himan of Barrington served Mr. Hinman as best man and the ushers included Henry Kitchell Webster, Jr., Towner K. Webster, III, John R. Witman, John Smalley, Perry B. Buchanan, Roger Sherman, Douglas Flood, George W. Dawson, Jr. and George Giles.

Miss Mary-Louise Fenton of Winnetka became the bride of Gerald Horton, son of Mrs. E. B. Horton of Wilmette, at one of the most beautiful of the fall weddings, last Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock. Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard read the services at the candlelit altar in Christ church which was decorated with a profusion of white chrysanthemums. At the small reception which followed at the home of the bride's father, Howard Fenton, yellow flowers of the same variety were used in the decoration. The bride's gown was made in Elizabethan style of ivory velvet with tight bodice and long full skirt with a train. There was a yoke and bits of d'Alencon lace at the wrists which matched the veil of the same kind of lace. The veil hung from a Juliette cap of pearls.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Stanley Morrill, wore a gown of brown tulle over gold cloth, cut extremely long on the left side. Her slippers were gold and she carried Gaiety roses. The maid of honor, Miss Monore White, wore a wistaria colored gown which had a large yellow velvet bow in front matching her gold slippers and carried a shower bouquet of yellow roses.

The four bridesmaids, Miss Louise Sherman, Miss Pauline Wolff, Mrs. John A. Thompson of Chicago, and Miss Vesper Getman of Evanston, all wore gowns fashioned of chrysanthemum yellow chiffon made with bouffant skirts short in front and very long in back. The green artificial flowers on shoulders of the dresses were matched by the green satin slippers which they wore and the coloring of their dresses was found in the bouquets of yellow roses and lavender sweet peas which they carried.

Kenneth Horton served his brother as best man and the ushers were William W. Miller, John A. Thompson, C. Winslow Tarbet, Charles Milton McCrae, Craig C. Velie, and Howard M. Sharp.

Yellow chrysanthemums and autumn leaves were arranged about the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex N. McCallum, 888 Sheridan road, Glencoe, last Saturday evening, for the marriage of their daughter, Jean, to Wallace Wesley Mellwain of Highland Park. About ninety guests assembled for the wedding ceremony, which was read at 8:30 o'clock by the Rev. Douglas H. Cornell of Glencoe, and for the reception following.

She wore a close fitting, flesh color cap to which a long tulle veil was attached, and carried a bouquet of flesh color sweet peas and lilies-of-the-valley.

LIBERTYVILLE BOOSTS BOY SCOUT PROJECT

A movement which has been under consideration for some time past, to promote a larger and more diversified Boy Scout program among the youth of Libertyville was brought to a head at a recent meeting held in the Libertyville village hall and which was attended by a number of prominent citizens who are willing to give their time and effort to further the movement.

Walter McPeck, of Highland Park, head scout executive of the North Shore Area council which included Libertyville, was present and gave an interesting talk on the purposes and aim of the Boy Scouts. Mr. McPeck outlined the program to be followed in the enlargement of the local scout activities.

An organization was effected, the purpose of which is to sponsor the forming of these additional troops and to act as an advisory board after they have been formed. The following officers were elected: J. S. Hyatt general chairman, L. J. Wertler vice-chairman, W. E. Hardin, secretary, James H. Swan, chairman of the Court of Honor and Paul G. Ray, organization chairman.

Pretty soon in order to get elected to anything, a candidate will have to promise to abolish all taxes, and have the government declare a dividend to every voter.
