didates have been nominated on the 41,765.00 Republican ticket - Lee McDonough and Richard J. Lyons. In all fairness Boone county feels that it is entitled to one place on the legislative roll. Lake county, in addition to the two candidates for the lower house, will $ 4.476.00 continue to have the state senator in Hon. Ray Paddock.

Mr. Jackson, who has served three terms in the legislature, has been endorsed by the Legislative Voters' League and other organizations. He is 10,269.45 being warmly supported by farmers in Boone and McHenry counties for 180,503,61 his excellent record in behalf of the farmers. He is credited with having iteen a factor in getting work started on Route 173. He is not asking Lake county voters to neglect the Lake 1,45×.32 county candidates. On the other hand he expects the Republican voters in 587.28 Lake county to be loyal to both Mc-Donough and Lyons. He does expect, 22,924.65 however, his just share of the Lake county Republican vote and will appreciate help from Lake county in giving Boone county a square deal by keeping one of the four general assembly representatives in Boone coun-

MODERN SEA FARING STORY IS THRILLING

A group of well-known producers, Joseph P. Bickerton, Jr., Alex. A. Aarons and Vinton Freedley, have joined forces to produce an up-to-the-$513,222.37 $413,212.90 $101,607.43 $9,827.95 $148,830.61 $14,522.01 $567,220.02 minute drama entitled "Davy Jones' Locker," by Richard Barry, which begins an indefinite engagement at the Erlanger Theatre, Chicago, on $272,780.68 Sunday night, October 28, with matinees Wednesday and Saturday. As the title indicates, the story deals with drama on the high seas, and one recalls stories of sunken treasure, pirates and mutineers. Correct. Then to add the more modern element of courageous adventure, the author has introduced trans-Atlantic aviators whose wrecked plane falls into the ocean besides a steamer salvaging sunken treasure off the Irish coast. The wrecked flyers in "Davy Jones' Locker" are a daring aviatrix and her pilot on a non-stop flight to Europe, who escaping from their sinking plane, find themselves in an even more perilous situation on board the steamer, whose crew have mutineered over a division of the recovered treasure. Scenes of bitter hatred and murder, suspense and mystery greet the aviators, who are immediately involved in the gripping maelstorm of this marine conflict. The aviatrix, who is silently loved by her pilot, becomes
