

A regular feature prepared each week by members of the Boy Scout Press Club.

Twenty-four patrol leaders and other junior officers of Northshore Scout troops will spend the Friday and Saturday following Thanksgiving in a Junior League encampment and training conference which will be held at the Cabin in the Woods. The program will be largely carried on by the boys themselves, but local scoutmasters are serving as an advisory board and will help on various parts of the two days program. Carl McManus, assistant scout executive, together with several of the scoutmasters will be present throughout the session.

Look Forward to Nov. 23
About three times a year, all of the scout troops of the Northshore, pass in review before the assembled parents and friends of Northshore scouting. This big get-together of scouts and parents and friends, is held in connection with the award of high rank badges.

The next area wide gathering will be held on November 23, at the Elm Place school in Highland Park. Each scout troop in the territory will take its place on the stage and be inspected and members of its troop who have earned life, star, or eagle badges will be awarded these honors. Ten troops have volunteered to put on a short three-minute demonstration each. These exhibitions will include music from one troop, drum and bugle corps, a signaling demonstration, knot-tying, etc.

Troop 22 Buying Camp Acre
Many friends of scouting have already had a part in making possible the new boy scout camp, but one group of scouts themselves are saving their nickels and dimes in helping make this dream come true.

Troop 32 of the Deerfield-Shields high school of Highland Park, has subscribed for one acre of the new Northshore camp, and has a part of the fund already raised.

Troop 23 of St. Elizabeth's church in Glencoe is also raising a fund through the efforts of the scouts themselves, which will be turned over to the campsite development fund.

Wolf Patrol of 32
The Wolf patrol of troop 32 is getting along fine. It has many new members and many of our scouts are going to the board of review for second class tests. The scouts of troop 32 had their last meeting on the beach which was on Halloween night. The patrol had an interesting party in which one boy by the name of Kenneth Goring took his first step in scouting.—Bob Smith, troop 32, Highland Park.

Troop 37 of Highwood
Troop 37 of Highwood, had its annual meeting last Thursday at 8 o'clock. Mr. Roth, the chairman of our troop committee got the names of fourteen boys whom he thought would like to become scouts and we took them in as brother scouts. This however doesn't mean that other boys are not wanted, we want all we can get.

Flying Eagle Patrol
We just organized our patrol last Thursday and named it the Flying Eagle. We have not elected our patrol leader or patrol scribe as yet.—Scout Milton Roberts.

More Contributors
Although the committee for the establishment of the camp site and development fund for the new Northshore northwoods scout camp, is just swinging into action, many contributions have already been received.

The contributors list up to October 31, included: Howard Bowen, D. Chapman, R. Crawford, Henry Fowler, F. H. Gathers, L. F. Gates, G. E. Humphreys, M. A. Johnson, H. J. Leach, Rotary Club of Wilmette, A. M. Rossman, C. E. Rennecker, Albert Snite, H. P. Pope, R. Arthur Wood, General R. E. Wood, F. A. Wilson.

Contributions to the camp site fund have also been voted by the Highland Park Chamber of Commerce, Highland Park Rotary club and the Optimist club of Wilmette.

First Aid Training Course
Scoutmasters, troop committeemen and fathers of scouts are invited to enroll in the first-aid training course which is being provided by the Northshore Area council in co-operation with the Chicago chapter of the American Red Cross.

The course will be under the personal supervision of Dr. H. W. Gentiles and will be held at the Winnetka Community house. The first session will be held on Monday evening, November 19.

A dinner will be held in connection with the kick-off session of the course to which all scout men are invited.

Enthusiastic Meeting
We had a good meeting last week in charge of Assistant Scoutmaster Radlof. We had three patrol leaders present and two assistant patrol leaders, and a total of eighteen boys. We discussed our preparation for the meeting at Highland Park and talked about an overnight hike. We have taken Edward Brixen into our troop.—Herman Nelson.

BOARD OF REVIEW WINDS UP BUSINESS

Hearing on Complaints Ended Saturday; Few Details to Have Attention

Hearing on complaints was ended by the board of review last Saturday, and the books were closed except for the signing of them which will be completed Wednesday, it was learned today from Supervisor Thomas Murphy, chairman.

There were 251 complaints heard this year, according to Mrs. Eva Milliren, chief clerk, as compared to seven in 1927.

Twenty weeks of work have been necessary to complete the task. The period of time taken this year runs about the same as usual.

The complaints had been scattered through the county members of the board declared and they found some justified and some not. It was necessary for trips to be made to the property in almost every instance.

Besides Mr. Murphy other members of the board included Supervisor Bert C. Thompson of Zion and Mrs. Nellie Crooks, Waukegan. Mr. Thompson and Mrs. Crooks were the republican members and Mr. Murphy the democratic representative.
