

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS

TELEPHONE H. P. 657-668

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS FROM LAKE COUNTY

NEIGHBORHOOD JOTTINGS

Interesting Happenings About
This Part of North Shore and Vicinity; County Seat Doings

Waukegan's first fire bell, which called volunteer firemen to fight fires back in the fifties, has been given a permanent place of honor on a shaft in Washington park where the relic may be viewed by future generations.

Installation of automatic gates at some of the more important crossings in Waukegan and North Chicago are being considered by the North Shore Line. In fact it is said that steps are being taken to make the installation in the near future.

The old Y.W.C.A. property on South Gummee street, Waukegan one of the largest available business tracts in that part of the city, has been purchased by J. W. and Murray Conzelman, Studebaker dealers, from the War Recreation Board, according to an announcement made Thursday by a real estate firm.

George Miller, a well known resident of North Chicago, passed away at his home at 1619 South Lincoln street Saturday afternoon after a long illness. He was 50 years of age.

Members of the Real Estate Board of Waukegan and North Chicago in meeting last week, voted to increase the membership fee of that organization from $25 to $100, effective January 1, 1929.

Burglars were successful in their second attempt to rob the home of W. S. Steiner at 1328 North avenue last week and when Steiner returned to his home at 9:40, he found that 60 pint bottles of wine had been taken from his basement, according to Waukegan papers.

Gift of $12,500 toward the installation of a massive pipe organ in the new Immaculate Conception church, now being erected at Grand avenue and West street Waukegan, made by Mrs. Nicholas Reardon, was announced from the pulpit of the present church by Rev. Father Francis J. Shea, Sunday morning.

HOLD LEGION BANQUET AT GREEN TREE INN

Install Newly Elected Officers;
Alvin Meyer is New Commander

At the Green Tree Inn on Friday evening November 9 Deerfield Legionnaires and auxiliary members were delightfully entertained at a banquet and Armistice celebrate program.

Mr. Chas. Kapschull acted as toast master and the main address of the evening was given by eighth district commander W. H. Woodard.

Past Commander Conrad Uchtman was presented with a ring and Commanders badge.

Bruce Blaine was also presented with a past commander's badge and Clarence Huhn past adjutants badge.

The following newly elected officers were formally installed: Alvin Meyer, commander, adjutant Wm. Tennerman, Sr. vice commander, Clarence Huhn, Jr. vice commander, Harry Olendorf, sergeant-at-arms, Sam Burt; chaplain C. E. Piper, finance officer, A. C. Stadler, and historian, George Briggs.

Singing of war time favorites with Miss Elizabeth Schilstra at the piano concluded a very entertaining evening and the fifty who attended are looking forward to another joint meeting of the Legion and Auxiliary.

DORCAS SOCIETY TO HOLD ANNUAL BAZAAR

At Presbyterian Church, Dec.
6; Committees in Charge

The annual bazaar of the Dorcas society of the Presbyterian church will be held on Thursday, December 6. Following is a list of committees in charge: Fancy work Mesdames Browning, Varner and Freeman; aprons, Mesdames Hutchison and Fred Meyer; supper, Mesdames, Koebelin, Brand, Selig, Colby and Fred Haggie; bakery, Mesdames, Todd, Dobbins, Elder; candy, Mesdames, Jack Myers, Ross Sherman, E. Fredricks; grab-bag, Mesdames, Koebelin, Hicks and Sherman; marking committee, circle chairman and Mrs. Olson.

An added feature of the bazaar this season is the supper and watch for the menu next week. Remember the date Thursday, December 6, and plan to do your Christmas shopping where you will be sure to find a large variety of beautiful hand-made articles.

DEERFIELD HISTORY HAS BEEN COMPLETED

Contains Material of Interest in This Vicinity; Legion
Sells Books

If you are particularly interested in a person you send flowers to them when they are ill, or for their funeral if they are dead. Frequently the members of an organization needs money more than flowers. If the money invested means a permanent possession to the donor how much more interesting is that investment.

The Deerfield Post of the American Legion has published a 200-page history of Deerfield, which contains much information of Lake county and of Highland Park, Northbrook, Everett and Prairie View. A surprising number of names of persons, organizations and families are incorporated in the family volume. This will be of interest to the people of this generation and of many generations in the future.

This book makes an excellent gift for any occasion, and particularly as the holiday season approaches will it be bought.

Old residents will be interested in reviewing memories, and newcomers in becoming acquainted with old history and traditions. The name of every child in the school is mentioned. The books are on sale in several of the stores in Deerfield and may also be obtained from Alvin Meyer and Bruce Blaine.

Help the American Legion by buying your books now that they meet their great financial obligations, for the cost of the production of the book was very heavy.

One long chapter is devoted to the Deerfield-Shields high school, and particularly beautiful illustrations of the school are in the book.

SCOUT CAMPAIGN
BEING CONDUCTED

Mr. Chas. Kapschull Heads
Teams to Canvass Deerfield; Urge Support

Our community is now in the midst of a "Declaration of Intention" and this is none other than a declaration of our interest and appreciation of scouting as one of the greatest factors in the moulding of young manhood and of future citizenship, or, on the other hand, a declaration of indifference and of lack of interest in growing boyhood.

Under the leadership of Mr. Chas. Kapschull, teams are now canvassing the community to gather and share of the funds needed to maintain the organization of the North Shore Area council. Headquarters of this council are situated in Highland Park. Two executives, Mr. Walter McPeck and Mr. Carl McManus, men of splendid ability, are devoting their entire time to the boyhood of our area. At the office, at the troop meetings, at the scout cabin, these men are living their lives for boys. Our Deerfield boys have greatly benefitted by contact with them and more troops and more boys of Deerfield should have this privilege. Let Deerfield get under this thing and put it over. The dividends will in part begin to come immediately, they are even now coming in. On this Friday evening twelve merit badges will be awarded to Deerfield scouts at Northbrook. Come to this meeting or to Elm Place school on November 23 at 7:30 p. m., and see with your own eyes what is being done now. But the largest dividends will become apparent when the scouts of today will be the men of tomorrow and take upon themselves the responsibilities of citizenship. The scouts of today are the hope of tomorrow.

Let Deerfield make her declaration of intention in a manner that will evidence her growing appreciation of this splendid movement for the highest type of boyhood.

Very sincerely yours,
Mark J. Andrews,
Scoutmaster Troop 52.

RED CROSS DRIVE IS OPENED IN DEERFIELD

A committee of 25 women in Deerfield with Mrs. A. J. Johnson as chairman, started on Armistice Day the twelfth annual roll call campaign for membership in the American Red Cross.

It is needless to impress upon you at this time the great work of the Red Cross and the pressing demand for funds. When you recall that during the past year, there have been 65 disasters in the United States in which the Red Cross served and also considerable relief work in foreign fields, which does not include the care given ex-service men and their families you will not hesitate to generously respond to the call of this humanitarian organization.

Mayor Jimmy Walker of New York City is to follow Hoover in New Jersey, and make a reply for Smith. Maybe Jimmy is the Tammany candidate for president in 1936.

MISS WRIGHT GIVES INTERESTING TALK

BEFORE DEERFIELD P. T. A.

Hygiene Committee Reports at Meeting Held November
2; First Aid
Work

The Public Library is the barometer of a community, for "if the library is weak the intellectual life of the community is also weak, was gleaned from a most interesting talk of Miss Ida F. Wright, children's librarian of the Evanston Public Library in celebration of National Book Week at the November meeting of the Deerfield school Parent-Teacher association, last Friday afternoon.

In a survey made by Dr. Bailey, a teacher of sociology in Northwestern university, 12 important things that count most in community civics were enumerated, and the schools are four times more important than any other institutions and welfare organizations.

The function of a library changes with the years. The project method of teaching requires as many different books as there are pupils, whereas at one time an entire school was taught from one book. The universities are now copying what the grade schools are doing, exposing pupils to educational ideas.

Traveling Library
The traveling library, the book shop on wheels, the cafeteria tray of books that is moved from room to room in a school, are all factors in bringing to reader's the best of the world's literature. Librarians are most eager to do things to encourage the circulation of books and have a worm's eye view, instead of a bird's eye view, by keeping upon the ground to see that things are functioning.

So important does a negro janitor consider reading that he said that boys are not bothering their neighbors, nor tearing clothes or wearing out shoes when they are interested in books.

Evanston represents a movement that is going on in progressive communities. The school board and the library board pay the salary of a well trained specialist who is interested in books. One of the cardinal points for which the public school should stand is training for the right use of leisure. The National Education association stresses the fact that the country will be worse if the longer hours of leisure are not properly employed. Art, music and literature are means of helping people to make use of leisure time. The joy of the librarian is to get people to read, to teach children how to use books, to know how to judge a book from its table of contents. Ten times the number of books are read today than formerly. Because children are taught to use the card catalog system and understand an index the work of college students becomes a joy.

The pleasure of the aged in renewing friendship with old favorite books is an asset that nothing but blindness can wipe out. The library tax is but nine tenths of a mill (.0009) on assessed valuation, some thinking person should object to paying it. Singularly enough books popular in 1900 are not the best sellers nor best.

(Continued on page 7)

CELEBRATE ARMISTICE DAY WITH PROGRAM

Legion Auxiliary Has Impressive Program Monday; Discuss Christmas Party

To commemorate the tenth anniversary of the signing of the Armistice, which ended the great conflict on November 11, 1918, the Deerfield American Legion auxiliary at their regular meeting held at the home of Mrs. Bruce Blaine, Monday evening, presented an impressive program. At the business session, ten dollars was appropriated for rehabilitation work at Great Lakes hospital. Also as part of rehabilitation program, jelly, cigarettes and candy are to be solicited among members to be sent at Thanksgiving to patients at the Veterans hospital at North Chicago. Those who are not members of the auxiliary and who would like to send any of these things may within the next week leave them at the home of Mrs. Harry Mau, president, who will forward them to the hospital. Plans for a Christmas party with the Legion was discussed and Mrs. Julia Peterson, Mrs. Chas. Frey, Mrs. Frank Jacobs, Jr. and Mrs. George Jacobs were appointed on arrangement committee.

In order that the auxiliary and Legion would have election of officers simultaneously and possibly a joint installation it was decided to retain present staff of officers until August when the election of both Legion and Auxiliary will be held. The assisting hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Clarence Huhn and Mrs. William Tennerman.

WILMOT P. T. A. WILL MEET NOVEMBER 16

The Wilmot School Parent-Teacher association will hold its regular monthly meeting at the school Friday evening, Nov. 16, at 8 o'clock.

There will be the usual business session, and the social hour with refreshments.

The program will be of real interest to all parents and friends. Miss Lotspech, former art teacher in our school, will have some children present and demonstrate how she teaches a class in art.

All residents of the district and friends are cordially invited to attend.

GARDEN CLUB WILL HOLD ANNUAL MEET

On Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 21 at the home of Mrs. W. W. Geary, Briehill road, the Deerfield Garden club, will hold its annual meeting with Mrs. William Rafferty as assisting hostess.

The three prize stories written by members of Junior Garden club, on "My Garden" will be read by the authors and cash prize will be awarded to them by Mrs. E. B. Jordan.

ROSEMARY SHOP TO OPEN NOVEMBER 19

Mrs. Ardele Agard announces the opening of the Rosemary Shop, situated at Waukegan and Deerfield roads, next to the Deerfield Pharmacy, on Monday, Nov. 19.

An attractive line of frocks, lingerie, hose and novelties will be displayed.

Eveready
PRESTONE
The Perfect Anti-Freeze

DOES NOT
BOIL OFF

ALCOHOL

WHIZ

ANTI-FREEZE — GLYCERINE AND ALCOHOL BASE

A Complete Line of VEEDOL Winter Oils and Greases
Motor Oils—Greases

ELM PLACE SERVICE STATION
Frank Siljestrom
First St. and Elm Place Phone Highland Park 3545

Mobiloil and Hyvis Motor Oils — Standard Gasoline and Oils

Electric High Pressure Greasing — Holmes Electric Lift

First ANNIVERSARY

Dear Friends:

I have just finished my first year in Ravinia and if, as they say, the first year is the hardest, I am looking forward to many pleasant years of serving this community.

I sincerely appreciate the friendly co-operation and patronage you have given me and while I celebrate the past, I am planning for the future—to give you the newest and best merchandise available, reasonably priced, and with a continuation of my present high standard of service.

But it's deeds—not words—that count and to show my appreciation in a substantial way, I am reducing prices on many items for the week beginning November 21st to 28th.

There will also be a Lacquer demonstration on Wednesday, Nov. 21st, with an expert in charge. You are invited to bring in any small article you would like to have lacquered, without charge. A paint brush will be given away with each purchase of Lacquer. Paint samples will also be given free.

Don't forget the date—WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 21st.

Come and help us celebrate and take advantage of some wonderful values.

Cordially yours,
O. L. ENGLAND,
RAVINIA HARDWARE STORE
1534 Judson Avenue Phone Highland Park 2749