

MUSICAL NOV. 27 IS BRILLIANT PRODUCTION

Artists Delight Large Audience at Highland Park Woman's Club

On Tuesday evening, Nov. 27, a large audience was charmed by the excellent program given under the patronage of the music committee of the Highland Park Woman's club. The affair was to help defray the balance on the Mason Hamlin piano which was purchased early this season.

Michael Press, Russian violinist, was a great attraction and many of his former pupils were in the audience. He played two groups most ably, accompanied very brilliantly by Agnes Bothold Conover.

Our gifted and delightful local soprano, Mrs. Arthur Byfield, sang in her usual charming manner, accompanied by Jessie Wood Sincere of New York. Her songs included a group by Schubert, and a cycle called "Paris."

One of the features which brought forth great applause was the two piano numbers played by Mrs. Annette Jones, who for many years has represented the best in music in Highland Park, and Mrs. Thomas Sheridan, chairman of the music committee. Mrs. Jones had sent her own Mason Hamlin piano over for the occasion and the two were perfectly attuned. It was a joy to hear the two piano selections played with such brilliancy. The affair was pronounced a great triumph for Highland Park.

GETTING SUNSET PARK
