Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Margery Gerould of Cambridge, Mass., and Joseph May Greeley, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Larned Greeley of Winnetka.

The ceremony will take place at the church of the late Rev. Samuel Crothers on Saturday, December 15, at 3:30 o'clock, and will be followed immediately by a reception at the the home of Miss Gerould's aunt, Mrs. Benjamin F. W. Russell, 100 Goddard avenue, Brookline, Mass.

Miss Gerould's maid of honor is her sister. Betsy, and her other attendants are Miss Katherine Johnson, Mrs. Richard Gerould and her daughter, Joanne, who will be the flower

Mr. Greeley's best man is Benjamin Wood of Waltham. The ushers are James Murphy of Swampscott, Stephen Heard of Brookline, and Russell Gerould, brother of the bride.

After the wedding which will be attended by all of the eastern branch of the Greeley family, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney F. Greeley, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stiles, and Miss Louisa May Greeley, who is wintering in New York, there will be a general family reunion and Mr. and Mrs. Morris L. Greeley will remain in the east for the Christmas celebration with their two grandchildren, children of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Greeley.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen A. Withers, 788 Lincoln avenue, Winnetka are entertaining on December 8, in honor of Miss Louise Badgerow who will make her debut on New Year's day at a reception given by her parents at Indian Hill club. Mr. and Mrs. Withers have issued cards for a dinner to be given at the Casino and a theater party to follow.

This afternoon brings the debut of Miss Charlotte Picher who will be presented at a tea given by her mother, Mrs. Oliver S. Picher at their home at 226 Sheridan road, Glencoe.

Miss Picher and Miss Elizabeth Knode, who made her debut early in the fall and who will come home from Wellesley college for the Christmas holidays, are giving a dinner dance on the evening of December 27, at the Blackstone.

Miss Eugenia Jones, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Hilton Ira Jones of Wilmette, and Clyde Peaster of Glencoe were married Saturday evening. November 24, at the Wilmette Methodist Episcopal church, before an altar graced with white chrysanthemums. The marriage service was read by Dr. Horace G. Smith, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Harold G. Case of Glen-

The bride wore a white taffeta gown having a tight bodice, full skirt, and a taffeta collar cut in points. Her veil was of tulle and she carried white roses.

Miss Mabel Propper, maid of honor, Miss Mildred Marshall, Miss Marian Keeney, Miss Barbara Laing, the bridesmaids, wore pink taffeta dresses fashioned with tight bodices, bouffant skirts, and white Spanish lace collars. They carried bouquets of pink roses. Robert Luebke served as best man and Philip Borncamp, Norman Loomis, and John R. Pretzel were his ushers.

After the ceremony an informal reception was held for the guests at the church. The wedding party and s immediate family were later entertained at the bride's home. Mr. and Mrs. Peaster are motoring to Tulsa, Okla., where friends are planning a round of entertainment in their honor. On their return they will be at home at 853 Vernon avenue, Glencoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis H. Hardy, 1039 Private road, Winnetka, returned Tuesday from a trip to New York. The Hardys spent Thanksgiving day with Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Hardy who gave a dinner party at their farm in Barrington. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pope were also among the guests.

Richard Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Johnston, 321 Melrose avenue, Kenilworth, who is a student at Dartmouth, came home last Friday and brought several Dartmouth students with him to spend the week-end. Saturday afternoon they attended the Northwestern-Dartmouth game.

Mrs. William Stapp of Ward, Colo. has been the house guest of Mrs. Merie B. Waltz of 544 Longwood avenue, Glencoe for the past few weeks, is being entertained at many affairs. Mrs. Paul L. Battey of 543 Skokie road entertained last Wednesday afternoon at luncheon and bridge. Mrs. Waltz entertained last Monday night at dinner at the Woman's University club and Miss Emelyn and Miss Janes Bell Waltz will entertain on Monday night at a bridge party.

A double baptism service took place on Thanksgiving day at 12:30 at Christ church. The important infants were Marianne Fulton BeBout, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence ReBout of Lowdenville, Ohio, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fulton of 884 Hill road, and little Sarah Anne Snyder; daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Earl Snyder of Evanston and grand-niece of the Fultons. The Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard officiated at the ceremony. Russell Bill of New York, who was est man at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. BeBout, came on to act as Marianne's godfather; her aunt, Miss Helen Fulton is one godmother and Miss Jane Hawley, a bridesmaid in the BeBouts' wedding party, the other. Sarah Anne has Mrs. Charles McNie and Mrs. BeBout as her godmothers and Edmund Gardner Fulton as godfather. A Thanksgiving dinner party for members of both of the immediate families was given by Mr. and Mrs.

Fulton at their home. Mr. and Mrs. BeBout's visit here this week with the Fultons has been filled with activity. Last Monday evening, Mrs. Fulton entertained a number of her daughter's former classmates at Northwestern at dinner and bridge. Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Andrews of Evanston gave a dinner dance at the Stevens hotel. The following night Miss Louise Shriver and Miss Elizabeth Swartz of Evanston were hostesses at a dinner given at Miss Swartz' home, following which the guests at the Drake.

Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Fulton held open house for those who were members of the Fulton-Be-Bout wedding party. Last night Miss Eleanor Calkins of Evanston entertained in their honor at a dinner and theatre party and tonight before their departure on the midnight train, the BeBouts will be the guests of honor at a dinner and bridge party to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Oglesby (Gwyn Thomas.)

The wedding of Miss Virginia Wallace and Walter Sanger Hinchman on Thanksgiving day was the climax of several socially prominent ones this fall. The bride is the daughter of the Walter F. Wallaces of 815 Mount Pleasant road, Winnetka, and Mr. Hinchman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Hinchman of Kansas City, Indian Hill club, profusely decorated with flowers of autumn hues made a particularly lovely setting for both the ceremony and the reception which followed. The fireplace, before which the service was read at 4:30 o'clock, by the Rev. George Roberts, was banked with ferns.

The bride's gown was a delightful combination of the old and new in style. I twas fashioned of deep ivory tinted satin with a long full overskirt forming a train in back, divided in front and edged with wide d'Alencon lace extending up to the waistline The long, cream colored, tulle veil fell from a close fitting cap made of the late and trimmed with orange blossoms. The bride carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids.

The bridesmaids were Miss Betty Pain. Miss Margot Atkin, Miss Helen Shimmin, and Miss Betty Mc-Nair. The first one in the bridal procession wore a gown of copper colored tulle made with a long skirt of three tiers of small pleats and a long tight bodice with a little gold embroidered net. The other gowns were the same but each a little lighter in shade.

The maid of honor, Miss Ashton Wilson of Fayetteville, S. C., was gowned in similar fashion in a delicate shade of peach. The slippers of each attendant matched her gown and the bouquets were of small button chrysanthemums, their flowers blending in color with the lovely graduated shades of the gowns.

The bride's small sister, Josephine Mary, attended as flower girl and wore a frock of peach colored crepe de chine made with an ivory lace bertha. Walter Franklin Wallace, Jr., as a page, wore a black velvet suit with white silk blouse.

Donald Leitch of Kansas City was best man for Mr. Hinchman and Theodore Robinson, Jr., Sanger Robinson.

Alexander Raymond Carman, and John Franklin Wallace served as ush-

FINE RESTAURANT MAN FOR HAVING WILD GAME

Found in possession of more than the legal limit of wild ducks, Nick Marinos, owner of the Libertyville cafe in that village, was taken into custody last week by Deputy Game Warden Henry Kerns of Waukegan and taken before Justice Lyle Morris where he was assessed a fine of $65 and costs and forced to relinquish his claim to the fowl.

The ducks, 63 in number, were found stored in a shed in the rear of the restaurant. Marinos told the deputy game warden that half of the ducks belonged to him while the other half were the property of a friend, but the count showed that even if his claim was true that he had more than the legal limit of ten.
