FINE BOUTS STAGED AT MAJESTIC A. C.

Behrens Whips Palmeri in Wind-up Bout Tuesday. Will Feature Dec. 21

The bout between Geno Palmeri of the Majestic A. C. and Fritz Behrens of the Lake Forest A. C. was clearly the best of Tuesday evenings events staged by the Majestic A. C. They weighed in at 155 pounds. The fight was fast and furious from the start, with Palmeri trying his utmost to land a "kayo" punch, Behrens meanwhile punishing him severely about the face with a hard straight left. The bout went three rounds, the decision going to Behrens. Palmeri challenged Behrens to meet him again at the next show which will take place on the 21st. The proceeds from this show will go for a basket fund.

The supporting bouts were excellent and nearly all were of wind-up caliber. Johnny Hughes, the brother of Frankie Hughes of Kenosha, outfought Midget O'Dowd of the Majestic A. C. in three fast rounds at 118 pounds.

Jimmy Simmons of Lake Forest was disqualified in his bout with Anderson of Kenosha when one of his seconds stepped into the ring thinking he had been fouled. Up to this time the bout was fairly even. They fought at 150 pounds.

Bobby Juhrend of Deerfield was unable to avoid the punches of Calvelletti of the Majestic A. C. so lost the decision at the end of the three rounds.

Jimmy Biscarde of Kenosha knocked out Charlie Zahle of Highland Park in the second round. Biscarde is a terrific hitter and a hard right cross put Charlie away. The boys met at 126 pounds.

Johnny Taylor of Waukegan outboxed J. Concentivea of Kenosha. These 135 pounders went three fast rounds, the decision going to Taylor.

GUILD ORGANIZES DRAMA READING GROUP

Is Outgrowth of Work Done Each Year by Presbyterian Guild

A drama reading group under the auspices of the Presbyterian Guild of the Presbyterian church was organized on Monday evening. This is an outgrowth of the work done each year by the Presbyterian Guild through the presentation of a play or group of plays, and it promises a most interesting and enjoyable time for those who care to come into the group.

The first meeting was held in the home of Mrs. E. R. T. Murfey, 645 South St. Johns avenue. Two plays were read; one by Fred Eastman entitled "Bread" which is a very interesting study of the farmer, his working conditions and his inability to provide his family with the necessary luxuries of life for real living. The other play was "Dust of the Road" by Goodman, a modern drama with the Christmas theme.

Mrs. E. T. R. Murfey was elected president; Miss Enid Pearce, treasurer; Miss Greenlaw, secretary, and a committee to select plays composed of Mr. Wm. Pearce, Miss Leaming. Mrs. Murfey with others which the president may choose was appointed. There will be a membership fee of one dollar.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. D. M. Blasier, Ridge road on December 20 at seven forty-five. Any who are interested may join the group. For further information call Mrs. Murfey, H. P. 2754.

MICHAEL REDMOND DIES IN HIGHWOOD

Collapses on Early Morning Walk; Funeral Services Held in Everett

Michael Devon Redmond, 66 years old, was found dead on Walker avenue, Highwood, near his home early Friday morning. Death was due to heart trouble, from which he had suffered for about two years. He had gone out for an early morning walk and had collapsed before aid could reach him.

Funeral services were held at the home of his mother, Mrs. Ann Redmond in Everett on Sunday. Burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery, Everett. Besides his mother and the widow, Mrs. Julia Redmond, there is one daughter, Mrs. Annie Fortunato. Three brothers, Lawrence, Nicholas, and James, and a sister, Mrs. Annie Niles, are living.

Michael Redmond was the son of James and Ann Devon Redmond. His mother is the oldest person living in West Deerfield township. She was born on her father's farm in Lancasterville, successively called Everett and West Lake Forest, June 9, 1838. Michael, born in St. Joseph, Mich., was the eldest child.

MRS. HARRIETT HALL DIES IN NEW JERSEY

Mrs. Harriet Denison Hall for many years a resident of Highland Park passed away at the home of a friend in Swedesboro, New Jersey on Friday morning. Though in ill health for some time the end came very suddenly and the news was a profound shock to her many devoted friends in the community. The funeral service took place in Swedesboro on Saturday. Mrs. Hall was the last surviving member of one of the first families to settle in Highland Park. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ephriam H. Denison made their home here in 1870 and during their residence here were foremost in all the activities of the town and the Presbyterian church of which they were charter members.

HIGHWOOD VISITOR BY COUNTY POLICE

Suddenly swooping into Highwood last Wednesday Constable George Stried, of the sponge squad, and Deputy Sheriff Charles Krueger confiscated punch boards in two places and made investigations in several others. As soon as the raiders started the word spread about the town, it is reported, making it possible for a number of men to hide their boards. States Attorney A. V. Smith ordered the raiders into Highwood, it is said, and also gave instructions to clean up the entire county. No arrests were made. The boards were simply destroyed and the proprietors of the places warned. Occasional complaints have reached the states attorney on the minor form of gambling.
