IDLEHOUR

Improvements now in

A secluded "stub end" street off Ridgeway near Green Bay and adjoining the Mosely property. High ground, a scattering of large trees, native shrubs. An irregularity of layout and topography which will permit beautiful 8 lot development.

We will assist in harmonious arrangement of location, attached garages, etc., which will add value to the entire group. The subdivision across the street from Idlehour was sold out "over night." Three homes now completed, others building.

May we explain further regarding Idlehour and the bargain prices available for single lots or group development.

THREE STATES ONLY WITHOUT GAS TAX

ILLINOIS, MASS. AND N. Y.

Several Increase Amount of Tax During 1927; List of Those Which Have Altered It in Past Year

Keeping step with the insistent popular demand for better streets and highways, 24 states during 1927 increased gasoline taxes according to an analysis made by the American Motorists' association in co-operation with The Automobile club of Illinois. On January 1, 1927, the average gasoline tax in the 44 states and the District of Columbia, then operating under a gasoline tax system, was 2.56 cents per gallon. By December 31, 1927, increases put into effect in 24 states had brought the average gasoline tax in the United States up to 3.19 cents per gallon, an average increase of .63 cents per gallon.

Huge Sum Raised
More than $258,800,000 was raised by gasoline taxes for good roads during 1927. Of this fund $182,000,000 was spent on state highways; $55,400,000 went to local roads; $10,000,000 was apportioned to state and county road bond pavements and the remainder went for collection costs of the taxes, and for miscellaneous projects allied to road building.

During the year, the states of Alabama, Maryland, New Mexico and Texas increased their gasoline taxes two cents a gallon, while one cent increases were put into effect by Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Idaho, Iowa, Minnesota, Michigan, New Hampshire, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota and Vermont. Georgia, West Virginia and Wyoming increased their gasoline taxes one-half cent per gallon. The state of Illinois put into effect a two cent gasoline tax on August 1, 1927, but this was declared unconstitutional and the tax was discontinued February 25, 1928. New Jersey established a two cent tax July 1, 1927, computed above as a two cent increase.

In New Hampshire
In New Hampshire the tax was two cents per gallon on January 1, 1927, being raised to three cents per gallon in May, 1927, and on January 1, 1928, four cents a gallon tax went into effect in that state.

Only the states of New York and Massachusetts had no gasoline tax at the close of 1927, and these states with Illinois, to date, are the only ones where funds for the improvement and maintenance of existing roads and construction of new roads are not raised under this system.

It's Time to Plant Evergreens
When the ground is hard is the time to plant evergreen trees of all species. We furnish them with the roots encased in frozen balls of earth for cold weather setting. When placed in the ground in this condition, surrounded by the original soil, continuous and sturdy growth is assured.
This method offers a way of transplanting by which there is literally no replanting insofar as removal to new ground is concerned.
If you wish, drive out and make your own selections.
