Four Winnetka girls will make their debuts during the holiday season, and others who have already come out will give balls and dinners. Miss Louise Lackner, daughter of the Francis I. Lackners, will be presented at a large luncheon to be given by her mother at Indian Hill club on December 23. Her list of assistants is not quite complete. She and her sister, Antoinette, will return from Vassar on December 22.

Miss Louise Festress' debut is to take place Christmas day at a tea at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Festress. December 27 is marked by two affairs, one given by Miss Charlotte Picher and Miss Elizabeth Knede, a dinner dance, at the Blackstone, and later that evening Mr. and Mrs. Bruce MacLeish will give a ball for their daughter, Jean, in the Red Laquer room of the Palmer House.

New Year's day Miss Harriet Leonard and Miss Louise Badgerow are to have their respective debut parties. Miss Badgerow is to be presented to society at a tea dance to be given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harve Badgerow of 576 Arbor Vitae road, on New Year's day at the Indian Hill club.

She has chosen the following debutantes to assist her at the affair, Miss Jean MacLeish, Miss Charlotte Picher, Miss Elizabeth Knede, Miss Elizabeth Warren, Miss Barbara King, Miss Dorothy Ranney, Miss Betty Borden, Miss Mary Elizabeth Johnson, Miss Jean Purcell, Miss Kathleen Whitcomb, Miss Jean Stevens and Miss Letitia Channon.

Miss Leonard will be presented by her father, John R. Leonard, at his annual New Year's reception to be held at their home, Wilsacre. Miss Leonard was graduated from Radcliffe college last June and one of her classmates from Boston, Miss Claribel Smith, is coming directly after Christmas to assist at Miss Leonard's tea. She will spend several months here as Miss Leonard's house-guest. A partial list of the other debutantes who will serve with her on New Year's day includes Miss Letitia Channon, Miss Laura Jacoby, Miss Eleanor McEwen, Miss Jean MacLeish, Miss Charlotte Picher, Miss Theresa Rew, Miss Ada Rew, Miss Peggy Waidner and Miss Cynthia Wilson.

Indian Hill club and Skokie Country club also have entertainments down on the social calendar for both adults and children. Indian Hill will have its annual Christmas carol "sing" with an outdoor party and a tea to follow on Saturday afternoon, December 22, and on New Year's eve, December 31, there is to be a gala supper dance. Skokie has announced a Christmas and Winter Sports dinner dance for December 22, and a children's party for the afternoon of December 21.

Parties for the sub debts include a dance to be given on December 24, at which Miss Virginia Lamson, Miss Lucy Jacobs and Miss Weithyan Harrison will be co-hostesses, at Indian Hill. Miss Chloe Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Watson of 700 Ardsley road, will give a tea dance on the afternoon of December 18, and that evening Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stanton will entertain for their son and daughter, Henry and Louise, at a dance at Indian Hill. The following evening, December 29, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Cushman and Mr. and Mrs. Rosewell B. Mason will entertain at dancing party to be given at Indian Hill for their daughters, Mary Cushman and Annie Mason.

Mrs. Hermon Butler will issue invitations for a small skating party and luncheon which she will give in honor of her two grandsons, Hermon and Claude Beck, for Thursday, December 27. The boys and their parents will spend the holidays with Mrs. Butler.

Miss Charlotte Picher made her debut last Saturday afternoon at an unusually lovely tea given by her mother, Mrs. Oliver S. Picher, 226 Sheridan road. Miss Picher wore a gown of silver lace and white tulle, made with a long bodice and bouffant skirt of the tulle. She carried a colonial bouquet of roses, violets and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Picher's gown was of ashes of roses lace and chiffon and she wore a shoulder bouquet of orchids.

The name of Miss Jean MacLeish, who is home from Wellesley for a few weeks, was added to the list of assisting debutantes.

Mrs. Robert Bensinger returned to her home in Glencoe last week from Woodmere, Long Island, where she went to attend the wedding festivities and also as matron of honor for Miss Linda Elkus Glaston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence G. Glaston of Woodmere, whose marriage to B. Edward Bensinger, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Bensinger of Sheridan road, Glencoe took place Wednesday, Nov. 28, at the Galston home.

Mr. Bensinger and his bride are to spend their honeymoon in Europe and upon their return will reside in Glencoe. Mrs. Bensinger is a niece of Abram I. Elkins, former ambassador.

Mrs. Charles Requa and her daughter, Mrs. Stewart Johnson, of 678 Sheridan road, Glencoe, have returned after spending six weeks in England. They stopped for several days in New York and Mrs. Johnson also visited in Washington, D. C., before returning to Winnetka the day before Thanksgiving. Mrs. Johnson is planning to leave shortly after the holidays with her small daughter, Tita, to spend the winter in Egypt.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jost, 174 Glencoe road, Glencoe, had as guests this week, Mr. and Mrs. Hervey Selk, of Westfield, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hertzberg of Columbus, Wis., and Mrs. Henry Teubert and son Julius, of Janesville, Wis. They all came to Chicago to attend the International Live Stock show and to visit at the Jost home.

Mrs. George D. Jones of Oxford road, Kenilworth, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Albert Boroff and family for the Thanksgiving holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Boroff spent just the day in Kenilworth but their son, John, and their twin daughters remained for the week-end. On Friday evening the twins, Betsy and Kitsey, enjoyed a "slumber party" which included Sue Carpenter and Marion Hedrick and Jean Jones.

Mrs. William A. Fox, 585 Longwood avenue, Glencoe, will entertain the S. C. E. girls of the North Shore Methodist church at dinner this evening in honor of Mrs. John Magill (Jayne Johnson).

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas White, 310 Richmond road, Kenilworth, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Clyde P. Ross and family, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Carpenter and family, and Mr. and Mrs. E. John Hicks and family for dinner Thanksgiving day after the New Trier-Evanston football game.

Mrs. Harold L. Ickes of Hubbard Woods, was the guest of honor yesterday afternoon at a large reception given for her at the Woman's City club. Mrs. George Packard, Mrs. Harvey Tylor, Miss Grace Temple, and Mrs. Alfred C. Tyler, the hostesses, issued cards to four-hundred of Mrs. Ickes friends and political associates, and there was also a general invitation extended to the members of the Woman's City club to attend.

Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Jensen returned last Wednesday from a hunting trip in northern Wisconsin. Dr. Jensen was successful in getting a one hundred seventy-five pound buck on the first day of the season just north of Wausaukee. The Jensens will give a venison dinner party for ten of their friends tomorrow evening at their home at 1063 Meadow lane, Winnetka.

Miss Letitia Channon, sister of Mrs. Roy A. Bard, 1174 Spruce street, is to make her debut at a tea dance given by her mother, Mrs. James H. Channon of the Ambassador hotel and her sister, Mrs. Vincent Bendix, at the latter's apartment, 209 Lake Shore drive, on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 22, from 4 until 7 o'clock.

SCIENTIFIC SEARCH INVOLVES HARDSHIPS

DIFFICULT TO UNCOVER

Expert Says Just as Hard to Find New Science Data as to Discover Gold in Mountains

Prospecting for scientific facts is just as risky, from the point of view of finding anything as is prospecting for gold or other precious minerals or jewels, according to Prof. H. F. Moore, research professor of engineering materials, of the College of Engineering of the University of Illinois.

"It is just about as hard to discover new scientific facts as it is to find gold in the mountains of the west," he said. "If real facts are discovered in one out of every four research investigations that are carried on, the research scientists feel that they have spent their time well, and that the money that the investigation cost was well spent."

Not Hit-or-Miss Plan
"Scientific investigation is by no means a hit-or-miss proposition. Conditions of every kind are controlled and every change of every kind that is observable is carefully taken into account and recorded. Yet, having everything just right, we cannot hope to hit the mark more than one-fourth of the time."

"This may look like a waste of time and money but while there may be three failures, it is probable that the single real discovery will more than pay for the losses incurred in the work that failed in the other three causes."

"With this in mind, industry is beginning to realize that there is a certain margin of uncertainty that must be taken into account in figuring their research budgets. Those organizations that are supporting research work at the University of Illinois Engineering Experiment station realize this and make their endowments large enough to cover all contingencies of the kind mentioned."

Side Issues
"Again, we often find out things that are of scientific importance from the pure science angle that are of no use, at the time at least, to the industry that instigated the research."

"The scientist takes all this into consideration before he ever starts an investigation and if he fails many times he does not become discouraged. He keeps right on looking for the desired facts, even in the face of almost certain failure, for it is often just at that time that he makes an important discovery. This fact accounts for at least part of the success of the experiment station in solving the large number of problems presented."

About Farmers
It isn't lack of cash, lack of possession, at base, that makes a farmer a peasant, says a student of farm life in Farm and Fireside, "it's the peasant point of view."
