

Tree Books
Deerfield Library

ers and nature lovers following information men's and trees at the library:

"Encyclopedia" in "Practical Gardening" "Use Plants" by Barnes "Flower Garden" by Dur "All Considered Garden" "How to Know Wild Flow- ers" "A Garden Blue als and Perennials" by "of Annuals" by Hottes; "Perennials" by Hottes; "Wild Flowers" by "Guide," by Rogers; "The Nature" Bailey; "Our Na- ture" Keler; "The Pruning" "Our Vanishing Pack; "Principles of" Bailey.

ted to Mr. and Mrs. the donation of forty- tion, and also to Mrs. or four good books of

Old Personals

Williams of Nashville, her daughter, Mrs. Mrs. Williams was account of the illness

Antes has purchased residence on Waushagen has sold his vine court, and will ton Heights.

Dobbins is ill with home on South Grand le will entertain at South Grand avenue Dorcas Circle num- chain luncheon at one nt Social club met at ey's on Second street,

A. J. Johnson had as est Mrs. A. M. John- on, Indiana.

ehr family have pur- t Hagi home on Os-

Anderson is very ill Grand avenue.

entertained several hday party at her gan road Saturday ebrated her fifteenth Albert Roggo and visited Mrs. Richege ay. Enroute they Oak Ridge cemetery ggo's father was gym class held a- ller, the gym teach- ilds in the English Monday evening.

ng were features of ss Keller was pre- lid silver bowl for Lovely refresh- d. Committee, Mil- therine Gonnerman

Ralph Peterson had l guests, Mr. and dy of Chicago.

Until further notice please send news items for Press and Register to Mildred Gunckel. Tel. 240-J.

Kress Willman is confined to his home on Waukegan road with Scarlet fever.

Mrs. Smith who has been ill for the past two weeks is improving.

Chas. Kapschull Jr., went under observation at the Highland Park hospital Saturday.

Sam Lane of Highland Park was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Devine, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kress of Winnetka were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peterson, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Martha Love, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Devine and son, Norbit, Verene Betty and June Gunckel and Sam Lane were guests of Mrs. Julia Seyl, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wolf had as their dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Wilson and daughter, Charlotte, Miss Gertrude Roberts and Wilson Olendorf of Libertyville.

A miscellaneous shower was given in honor of Elizabeth Dunn of Lake Forest at the home of Mrs. Frank O'Connor on west Deerfield avenue Tuesday evening. Twenty guests were present and bunco was played. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Julia Seyl, Mrs. Raymond and Elizabeth Dunn of Lake Forest.

The junior choir of the Evangelical church enjoyed a roller skating party after choir practice Thursday afternoon. The group enjoyed refreshments at Miller's confectionery.

A barn was destroyed by fire on the farm recently occupied by Fred Beckman, west of Deerfield, Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Pettis and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haggi of Osterman avenue entertained at five tables of bridge Saturday evening at the Fred Haggi residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Mitchell formerly Marie Gloden visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lorence Gloden on Hazel avenue, Sunday.

Verda Warner entertained the Wonder Home club at her home on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Leslie Brand entertained at luncheon last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Benzley of Chicago were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Selig of Waukegan road.

Mrs. G. A. Willens and Mrs. C. A. Stadler entertained in compliment to Mrs. Hauts sister at the Willens home on Springfield avenue last Thursday evening.

Lyravine Vottow, who is head of the department of the Bush Conservatory of Music in Chicago visited the Deerfield school accompanied by a group of cadet teachers last week.

A music festival will be held some- time next month at the new Morton Grove school under direction of Lyravine Vottow. Participants will be pupils of the Deerfield, Northbrook and Glenview schools.

Mrs. J. W. Strong entertained the sewing club at her home on Orchard street, Tuesday evening. Mrs. Roy Miller will be the next hostess.

Virgil Varner, formerly of Deerfield, left Monday for New London, Connecticut, to join the government coast guards.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hutchinson had as their guests Sunday, Mr. M. W. Hutchison, Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Townsend of Waukegan.

The Geo. Engstrom family were called to Marion, Iowa on Monday on account of serious illness of Mr. Engstrom's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorence Gloden's daughters Dolly, Florence, Agnes and son Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Mitchell visited Joe Leikam and family of Libertyville Sunday.

Mrs. Whitcomb, Mrs. Long, and Mrs. Harry Juhrend attended a Royal Neighbor-meeting at North Chicago Monday evening.

Mr. C. G. Pettis has started to build their new home on West Central avenue.

Mrs. Robert Henthorn and daughter, Carolyn, were luncheon guests of Mrs. Arnold Lauridsen of Highland on Monday.

Mrs. Robert Henthorn had as her guests Sunday, Miss Violet Kearney of Chicago and Miss Charlott Brody of Milwaukee.

A few members of the Eastern Star attended a dance at the Wilmette chapter Saturday evening.

Irving Plagge, scout director of De Kalb county, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Plagge on South Grand avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rockenbach visited Mr. William Rosnaw of Chicago Sunday. Mr. Rosnaw, Mrs. Rockenbach's father, is ill.

THE HUB

Henry C. Lytton & Sons

STATE and JACKSON—Chicago ORRINGTON and CHURCH—Evanston

You Want STYLE

This Spring!

You'll get it
here
whether you pay
$35 or $100

MORE VALUE
for Your Money, too!
IN OUR EVANSTON SHOP

"Chicagoan" Spring Suits In a Field by Themselves at These Moderate Prices— With One and Two Trousers $35 and $40	Stylish Staunchleys Tailored by Society Brand— of Fine, Sturdy, Distinctive Fabrics $50	"Lytton Custom Tailored" Suits The Finest Clothes Made Ready to Wear—of Exclu- sive Imported Woolens $60 to $100
--	---	---

Clothes Purchased Up to 9 p. m. Saturday Will Be Altered and Ready for Easter