

WHO ARE PARENTS OF ILLINOIS STUDENTS

Business Men Lead in Number With Laborers, Skilled and Otherwise

Parents of one hundred and eighty students at the University of Illinois, including both Urbana-Champaign and Chicago departments, are retired, 2061 are listed as skilled and unskilled laborers, 1766 as farmers, 5180 in some form of business, 1719 in the professions, 417 in railroading and 293 in government service according to a survey of registration statistics for the semester just closed, made by the registrar, it was disclosed here today.

While 1,206 students enrolled at the University of Illinois come from farms, 10,944 are from cities, figures compiled by the registrar of the university and just made public disclosed.

Where They Come From

Approximately half of those from cities of the state come from communities of over 25,000. Chicago leads the list with a total of 3,060 registered. Other cities represented in this list with the number of students for each follows: Aurora, 61; Bloomington 37; Champaign, 555; Cicero, 47; Danville, 129; Decatur, 94; East Saint Louis, 54; Elgin, 54; Evanston, 107; Joliet, 85; Moline 41; Oak Park, 229;

Peoria, 130; Quincy, 55; Rock Island, 45; Rockford, 101; Springfield, 96; and Urbana, 693.

The balance of the 10,944 city men and women come from towns and villages smaller than 25,000. Of the grand total registered from cities, 4,164 are men and 1511 are women. The proportion of men to women coming to the university from rural communities is slightly lower than for cities there being 913 men and 293 women.
