Boxing

Boxing at Deerfield last Monday night was disappointing and yet at the same time interesting. As the matchmaker, Ed. Jacobson, had planned on boys from Great Lakes, but on a last minute's notice found that he was unable to have any of the boys present. In making up a card in a hurry he was forced to stage a couple of amateurs, one boy in the ring for the first time. While he was matched against a heavy hitter and fast man, it seemed evident that his opponent didn't take advantage of all the openings and perhaps saved him from actually kissing the canvas.

The Behrens and Campbell fight was a slugging match from beginning to end. While Behrens won the decision, Campbell sure gave him a run for his money. Charles Zahnle surprised everybody by winning over his man, who seemed to put all of his efforts for haymakers and should he have been able to put over a single one Zahnle no doubt would have gone down for the count. But Zahnle's blocking of haymakers was not only perfect but actually out-pointed his man by fast and hard infighting. Zahnle seems to be coming to the top at a rapid pace, as he seems to be developing good infighting and not depending so much on his heavy blows to win his decisions.

Stickens met Simmons of Lake Forest, but it appeared that Simmons took a little too much mercy on Stickens not forcing the fight and as Stickens seemed to be the aggressor the judges called it at the end of the third round, a draw, but Stickens complained of a bad thumb or hand and conceded the fight to Simmons.
