

The Highland Park Press

VOLUME XVIII

HIGHLAND PARK, ILLINOIS APRIL 11, 1929

NUMBER 6

FRANK W. SHEAHEN FUNERAL TOMORROW

10 a.m. at St. James Church,
Highwood; Well Known
Resident Dies Tuesday

All Highland Park was shocked and deeply grieved at the news of the death of Frank W. Sheahen, which occurred about midnight Tuesday night in the Highland Park hospital. Mr. Sheahen was one of Highland Park's oldest native residents, and a man widely known and highly esteemed.

Frank Sheahen

He had been in ill health for several months, but was able to be about, and on Tuesday afternoon accompanied fellow members of the Highland Park Chamber of Commerce to Libertyville to attend the funeral of the late secretary of that organization, Raymond D. Gould. On the way homeward he was riding with Joseph W. Simons. Near Rondout Mr. Sheahen suddenly crumpled in his seat and Mr. Simons signalled other cars. Friends from these gathered about; Dr. J. L. Taylor of Libertyville was called and was able to revive the stricken man, so that he was conscious when the party started for home again. They took him at once to the Highland Park hospital where the end came several hours later. Death was attributed to cerebral hemorrhage due to high blood pressure.

Mr. Sheahen was born in Highland Park, January 14, 1869, on the farm of his father, Patrick Sheahen, a pioneer settler in this region, and Frank Sheahen has lived all his life within a block or two of the place where he was born. For 30 years he resided on Central avenue and during the last year in the fine new home on Yale lane.

(Continued on 2nd following page)

Covenant Chorus To Sing At Oak Terrace School On April 20

The Covenant chorus of Chicago will sing at the Oak Terrace school in Highwood on Saturday, April 20, at 8:00 p. m.

This group of singers, under the able direction of A. L. Hvassman, recently made a successful tour through the Scandinavian countries, singing before such notables as the king and queen of Sweden. It has been their custom to hold one large concert at Orchestra hall annually in addition to the many other concerts given outside of Chicago each year.

The people of Highwood consider themselves fortunate to have secured such a famous chorus. The soloists include Oscar Green, a baritone who sang in Highwood two years ago, Mrs. R. Ohlson, and Mrs. M. Svedberg. Miss Alpha Turnquist is the pianist. The chorus will sing in three languages, Swedish, Norwegian, and English.

Securing of this chorus was made possible through the influence of Mr. and Mrs. David Olson, who are members, both of the chorus and of the church, for whose building fund the concert is given. Tickets may be had for adults and children at the door or through the members or the committee. Everyone interested in good music is urged to avail himself of this unusual opportunity.

H. P. Woman's Club to Hold Annual Meeting; Mr. Smith Speaker

The annual meeting of the Highland Park Woman's club will be held next Tuesday, opening with the annual luncheon at 12:30 o'clock. At one o'clock Mr. Jesse L. Smith will give a short talk on "The Ridgeway Memorial."

This will be followed by the reports of officers and department chairmen and the election of officers.

The following officers will be voted upon: Mrs. Erastus R. Phelps, president; Mrs. Bryon C. Howes, second vice-president; Mrs. George T. Coonley, financial secretary; Mrs. Norman G. Lenington, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Tom Moore, chairman finance committee; Mrs. James R. Loeb, chairman fine arts department; Mrs. Joseph D. Zook, chairman hospitality committee; Mrs. Warrar. E. Danley, chairman house and grounds committee.

No Action So Far on New C. of C. Secretary

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce met Monday afternoon for the purpose of appointing a new secretary which position is open by the death of Raymond Gould. They adjourned without appointing one, which will be done at a later date.

Informal Dance at Ravinia Woman's Club

An informal spring dance will be given by the social committee of the Ravinia Woman's club, Saturday evening, April 27th at the Village House, Ravinia. This is the last dance of the season and the committee has planned to make it an outstanding social event.

The dance will be informal and everybody is welcome.

To add to the enjoyment of the occasion and to assure everyone a good time, "Dutch dinners" are being planned preceding the dance, for all who wish to attend.

These dinners will be held throughout different neighborhoods and will include congenial groups of people who will be asked to contribute a share of the dinner. It is the hope of the committee to include every one who wishes to attend a dinner and the dance.

Anyone desiring to have a "Dutch Dinner" in their home or those desiring to attend such a dinner will confer a favor upon the committee by calling, Mrs. Edwin C. Jones, Tel. H. P. 1113, or Mrs. Walter Reitz, H. P. 1797, before Wednesday, April 17, so that dinners may be planned for all.

Annual Music Festival at Lincoln School

The upper grades at the Lincoln school will give their annual program of music at the Lincoln school auditorium on Friday night, April 19th at eight o'clock. The special feature of the program will be "Johnny Appleseed" a cantata by Harvey B. Gaul which will be sung in two parts by the entire chorus of the five upper grades. The Boy's Glee club, the Girl's Glee club, the orchestra and the band will also contribute to the program.

A small admission charge will be made and the proceeds used to complete the payment on the piano which was recently purchased for the music room.

House and Garden Show at Y. W. C. A. May 2-4

A House and Garden Show will be held at the Highland Park Y.W.C.A., 374 Laurel avenue, on May 2, 3, and 4. The committee, now preparing for the show is composed of Mrs. E. T. R. Murfey, chairman; Mrs. W. A. Alexander, Mrs. R. Arthur Wood, Mrs. H. Funch Rasmussen, Mrs. W. Ross Marvin, Mrs. Phillip A. Danielson, Mrs. E. B. Jordon, Mrs. W. H. Alger, Jr., Miss Helen T. McQuillen, and Mrs. Bruce C. Chandler.

In addition to the flower and garden exhibits, similar to those entered in the show last spring, there are to be interesting displays on home decoration.

DEDICATE BETHANY EVANGELICAL CHURCH

Special Services for Purpose to Be Held Sunday, April 14;
Brief History

Sunday, April 14, there will be a red letter day in the history of the Evangelical church in this community, when the new church edifice will be dedicated. Since before 1880 some work was carried on here by ministers and laymen of the denomination. The first evangelical church was called Bethany Evangelical church and was situated on Central avenue, near the present Tillman service station.

Rev. C. F. Schriver, Pastor

The present church is its successor and the name was accordingly chosen. Thus since 1883 a church building or buildings have housed the spiritual sons and daughters of the pioneers in this spiritual work. The members are happy in the consummation of their building program, and they heartily invite all to visit the church Sunday for worship and fellowship. Opportunity will be given between the service hours for inspection of the various parts of the building.

Early Pastors

It may be of interest to many to name a few of the early pastors as well as some of the later ones. Rev. John Kutz seems to have ministered here previous to 1880. Mother Vetter, who passed away last fall, often told of her husband's many trips to North Northfield to bring the ministers to visit and pray with the sick. Rev. Valentin Forkel took up the work in Highland Park about 1880 and led the forces in an old building called the Brand Brothers paint shop. Their quarters became too small and in 1883 the first church was built. The building committee were: Chas. Streiber, Silas Brand, G. L. Brand P. Hintz, W. Tillman, John Booth, Frederic Landwer.

The Rev. A. H. Heilman and the Rev. J. Stengel succeeded as pastors (Continued on 2nd following page).