

Grace School, April 20, 1929

L. Winters entertained a group of town friends at luncheon (Wednesday) for Mrs. Kimberly of Barrington, Ill., sister, Mrs. Edward Kimberaha, Neb. A community dance given by the social committee of the Raman's club will be held Saturday evening, April 27. T. R. Hastings and three other people left Monday from New York, from where they are sailing this evening, Thursday, for a several months

Mrs. Charles G. Mason of Peoria returned Monday from Peoria where they were attending the funeral of the late Mr. Mason's funeral was held, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Carleton Vail of Lincoln expect to spend the week at Waukegan, Wis. They are going to superintend the building of a new home.

Mrs. Carl Wright have returned from Biloxi, Miss., where they spent several weeks.

Mrs. Ed Seoney of Chicago the week end guests of Mrs. Forrest D. Rose of six friends of Mrs. C. W. of Highwood tendered her a pleasant surprise on Saturday when they came to celebrate her birthday anniversary. Buncos were played and a buffet was served. She was presented with a beautiful gift, from which Mr. Ray Roth made a presentation speech.

Margaret Sheahan of Oak Ridge is the guest this week of Mrs. Sheahan.

Mrs. Hesler entertained her friends at her home on S. Green last Friday.

Chapter No. 712 O. E. S. will have the next regular meeting Wednesday evening in Masonic Frank Swanson and son of Peoria, are visiting friends here this week.

The Star club will meet tonight at the home of Miss Fridge in Lake Forest.

R. Phelps of Prospect avenue arrived at luncheon today, at the D. R. R. meeting. Tomorrow at the D. A. R.

ROSES

BRIARCLIFF - PREMIER - BUTTERFLY

During April and May, roses bloom naturally. They are not forced — so they keep well, have better color, stronger stems, and are more fragrant.

Lovely Blossoms -- Medium Stems -- dozen $1

- Darwin Tulips - lavender, pink and red, dozen $1
- Sweet Peas - all colors, long stems, bunch 50c
- Yellow Daisies - short, bunch 50c, long 75c
- Gardenias - large home-grown, each 75c
- English Ivy - bushy or long plants 50c
- Boston Ferns - full, bushy plants . . . $1.25 to $2.50

Not Open Sundays

55 South St. Johns Avenue

Erwin F. Dreiske
FLORIST

Phones Highland Park
 600-601-602