

Deerfield Locals

The Just So club met at the home of Mrs. William Clark Tuesday afternoon, April 9.

Miss Frances Loy was the weekend guest of her brother in Leland, Illinois.

Mrs. E. J. Williams returned to her home in Nashville, Ind., Monday evening.

Jean Baum entertained at a birthday party Tuesday afternoon, April 8th.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Knigge and children of Libertyville were guests of Mr. Herman Knigge Sunday.

Miss Lulla Knagge and Mr. Ed. Taylor were guests of Mr. Claude Knigge's of Libertyville Friday.

Mrs. Andrew Savage of Wilmet road entertained at bridge Friday evening.

Mrs. Warren Pettis and Miss Dorothy Hatch visited Mrs. Chas. Trier of Prairie View on Friday.

Mildred Sticken entertained at a birthday party Thursday, April 11, today.

The Dorcas society met Thursday at the Presbyterian church and 14 members were present. A business meeting was held. Mrs. Mark Andrews and Mrs. S. P. Hutchinson were hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lane and son, Byron, of Bloomington, Ill., Miss Agnes Sullivan and Sam Lane were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Berry Devine Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Plagge and daughter have returned to Deerfield. At present they are living with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Plagge on South Grand avenue.

The Junior Garden club held their first meeting on Tuesday p. m. at the Deerfield Grammar school.

The music recital held at the Presbyterian church given by Mrs. C. G. Pettis Monday evening was well presented by all the pupils. The church was very prettily decorated with ferns and flowers.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter B. Metcalf were guests of the annual banquet of Northbrook Civic association Thursday evening. Dr. Metcalf spoke on "How Deerfield Public Library was formed."

Miss Margret Ludlow of Chicago visited several days the past week at the home of Mrs. Martha Love on Grand avenue.

Miss Emilie Knaak entertained Dorcas circle number three on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. S. P. Hutchison was elected chairman of the circle for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Carr are on a pleasure trip. They will visit Washington, New York, Boston, and Montreal. They will be gone about two weeks.

Milton Merner is quarantined at his home on second street with Scarlet Fever.

The bakery sale held at McGarvies store for the benefit of the Parent and Teachers association cleared about twenty dollars and thirty-five cents.

Freddie Clavey son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Clavey has been ill the past week.

The pageant "changed crosses" that was presented Easter Sunday at the Evangelical Bungalow church was well attended in spite of the rainy weather, and was enjoyed by all. The same pageant was again given Sunday evening, April 7th.

Exmoor Gun club members were to have been the guests of the Deerfield Gun club in a competition shoot on Sunday, March 31st, but owing to the severe weather it was postponed.

On Monday evening, Miss Alice E. Rehm attended the April Cabinet meeting of the Chicago Evangelical league of Christian Endeavor union, held at the Eastside Evangelical church, where she had served as pastor's assistant several years ago, Miss Rehm has been appointed general chairman of the Social Service department of this Chicago E.L.C.E. union.

A public installation of officers of Emmanuel Shrine, No. 50, will be held at Lake Forest in the Masonic temple, Friday, April 12th. The following officers from Deerfield will be installed: Mrs. Ruth Frase, worthy high priestess; Mrs. Marion Clavey as flower girl; Mrs. Clara Easton, as page, and Mrs. Anna Willman, as queen's attendant.

The April meeting of the Ladies Aid of the St. Paul's church were entertained at the home of Mrs. Geo. Soefker on the County Line road Thursday afternoon. Mrs. John Ott lead the discussion on the monthly topics.

Don't forget the E.L.C.E. business and social hour at the Bungalow church, Thursday evening; at eight o'clock.

On Friday evening the orchestra of the Bungalow church rendered a very splendid concert. Stunts of various sorts were presented by the members. Those who attended will help advertise for the big concert in the near future.

Mrs. Ray Miller will entertain the bridge club at her home, Monday afternoon, April 8th.

On Thursday afternoon, April 18th, Mrs. F. J. LaBahn of Central avenue, will entertain the Sewing circle of the St. Paul's church.

Mrs. G. F. Danforth is visiting with her son, Mr. Geo. F. Danforth, on Springfield avenue.

Albert Meyer is driving the Swedish bakery truck of Highwood.

Mrs. Martha Love, Mr. and Mrs. Berry Devine and son, Norbit and Mrs. Floyd Gunckel visited Mrs. Mrs. Julia Carroll of Lake Forest, Sunday, who has been ill for the past two weeks.

The American Legion Auxiliary members enjoyed a chop suey supper Wednesday evening. After a short business meeting outside speakers spoke and dancing and games were enjoyed. The Legion were hosts to the auxiliary.

The La Amitee Society club met at the home of Mrs. Mildred Henthorn, Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Kendt and daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Megrochen and daughter, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Winter, at their home on Grand avenue, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoskins and Mrs. Ella Smith of Chicago, cousins of Mrs. Hicks were dinner guests Sunday. In the evening they visited Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Montavon of the Green Tree Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cooksy and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Juhrend, visited Mr. John Cooksy of Northbrook, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Hara of Milwaukee, were guests at the Winter residence on Grand avenue, a few days the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Pirie Sonn of Chicago will be week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Myers at their home on Grand avenue.

Mrs. Henry Juhrend, Mrs. Long, Mrs. Toll, Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. George Harder and son Buddy, were guests of Mrs. Witcomb, Friday evening.

Mrs. Robert Pettis will entertain the sewing club at her home on Grand avenue Tuesday evening. Mrs. Carl Anderson will be the next hostess.

Mrs. Hicks, Mrs. Ada Juhrend, Mrs. A. J. Johnson, Mrs. Martha Love and Mrs. Mildred Gunckel, attended the card and bunco party at Northbrook, Monday afternoon. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Martha Love and Mrs. Hicks.

Mrs. C. A. Wolf visited Libertyville relatives on Wednesday.

Dorcas circle No. 2, will serve the dinner Wednesday evening when Deerfield Post, American Legion are hosts to the auxiliary.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rockenbach and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Strause of Rogers Park visited Milwaukee relatives on Thursday.

Spring Institute of W. C. T. U. in Deerfield

The Woman's Christian Temperance union of Lake Forest, Highland Park and Deerfield will hold a joint Spring Institute this year in Deerfield on Thursday, April 25th. It will be an all day meeting with session beginning at 10:00 a. m., 1:30 p. m. and 8:00 p. m., a box lunch with hot coffee will be served at noon.

It will be held in the Evangelical Bungalow church and everybody is invited to attend. The evening session will be of special interest to children and young people.

There will be national, state and county workers as speakers, also special music and other interesting features. Everybody reserve this date and attend every session possible.

Purchases Tract in Lake Forest Vicinity

Twenty acres on Town Line road (Deerpath) one half mile west of Lake Forest and opposite Melody Farm, have been bought by Frank Wawak, Jr., secretary-treasurer of Wawak Company, Inc., Woolens, 325 West Jackson boulevard, from the Chicago Title & Trust co., trustee.

The buyer is having plans drawn by Architect, James Roy Allen for a brick residence of the English country-house type to be ready for fall occupancy. The grounds will be landscaped to conform with other country estates in this section.

Prussing & Company represented the buyer and E. C. Schweitzer, Jr., of Hill & Stone's Highland Park office was broker for the seller.

"JINGLE BELLS"

A red hot serial story starting next week. Don't miss it.

"Save with Safety at the Rexall Store"

75c
Dextri
Maltose
48c

30c
Bromo
Seltzer
17c

FREE

A Gem Razor and 2 Blades

with each

Tube of Mennen's Mentholized Shaving Cream at . . . . . 39c

$1.50 Shaving Brush 99c

Knaak's Pharmacy

The Rexall Store

Deerfield, Illinois

Phone Deerfield 1