"Kite Day" Is Held at Ridge School

"Kite Day" was held at Ridge school, Tuesday, April 16. Fair skies and a steady breeze added much to the success of the occasion. Kites of every shape and hue were entered by boys from the various grades and the judging of them brought forth close competition. It was interesting to note that the most attractive in appearance were not in every case the most successful as "high flyers" but the combination of all made a most delightful picture as they floated gaily over the wide open playground.

Talking Pictures at Deerpath on April 24

New York engineers have been engaged for the past two weeks in installing the Vitaphone and Movietone equipment for these sound pictures, and Manager Emma plans to have a fine talking feature for the first night next Wednesday.

Morton J. Traub

Morton J. Traub
Chairman of the Highland Park Boy Scout Committee

Morton J. Traub of 507 North Linden avenue, chairman of the Highland Park Boy Scout committee has been an ardent Boy Scout enthusiast for many years. His son, Morton, Jr., has been in the movement, attaining the highest rank, that of Eagle Scout.

Mr. Traub announces that $2,610.50 of the Highland Park quota of $3,750.00 for the 1929 budget of the North Shore Area council has been raised so far. The finance committee is pushing the campaign to completion and will appreciate a prompt response on the part of those who have not yet pledged.

Members of this committee are Brooke Anderson, Jerome P. Bowes, R. E. Herman, Nathan Klee, Carl Odell, Harry Paul, John H. Rumbaugh, Albert P. Snite, Alfred W. Stern, Allan I. Wolff, Gen. Robert E. Wood and R. Arthur Wood.

Mr. Traub further says "We are anxious not only for the financial support of the citizens of Highland Park, but we are even more desirous that they understand the full significance of what scouting can do in the lives of their boys. From my own observation of what it has meant to my own boy, I am sure that if more parents were to study the scout program and were to realize its benefits that they would give the scoutmasters and other scout leaders even greater co-operation. Scouting like schooling holds the most for those who advance the furthest.

"Are you following and encouraging your boy in his progress in his troop?"
