

Have We Your Financial Statement?

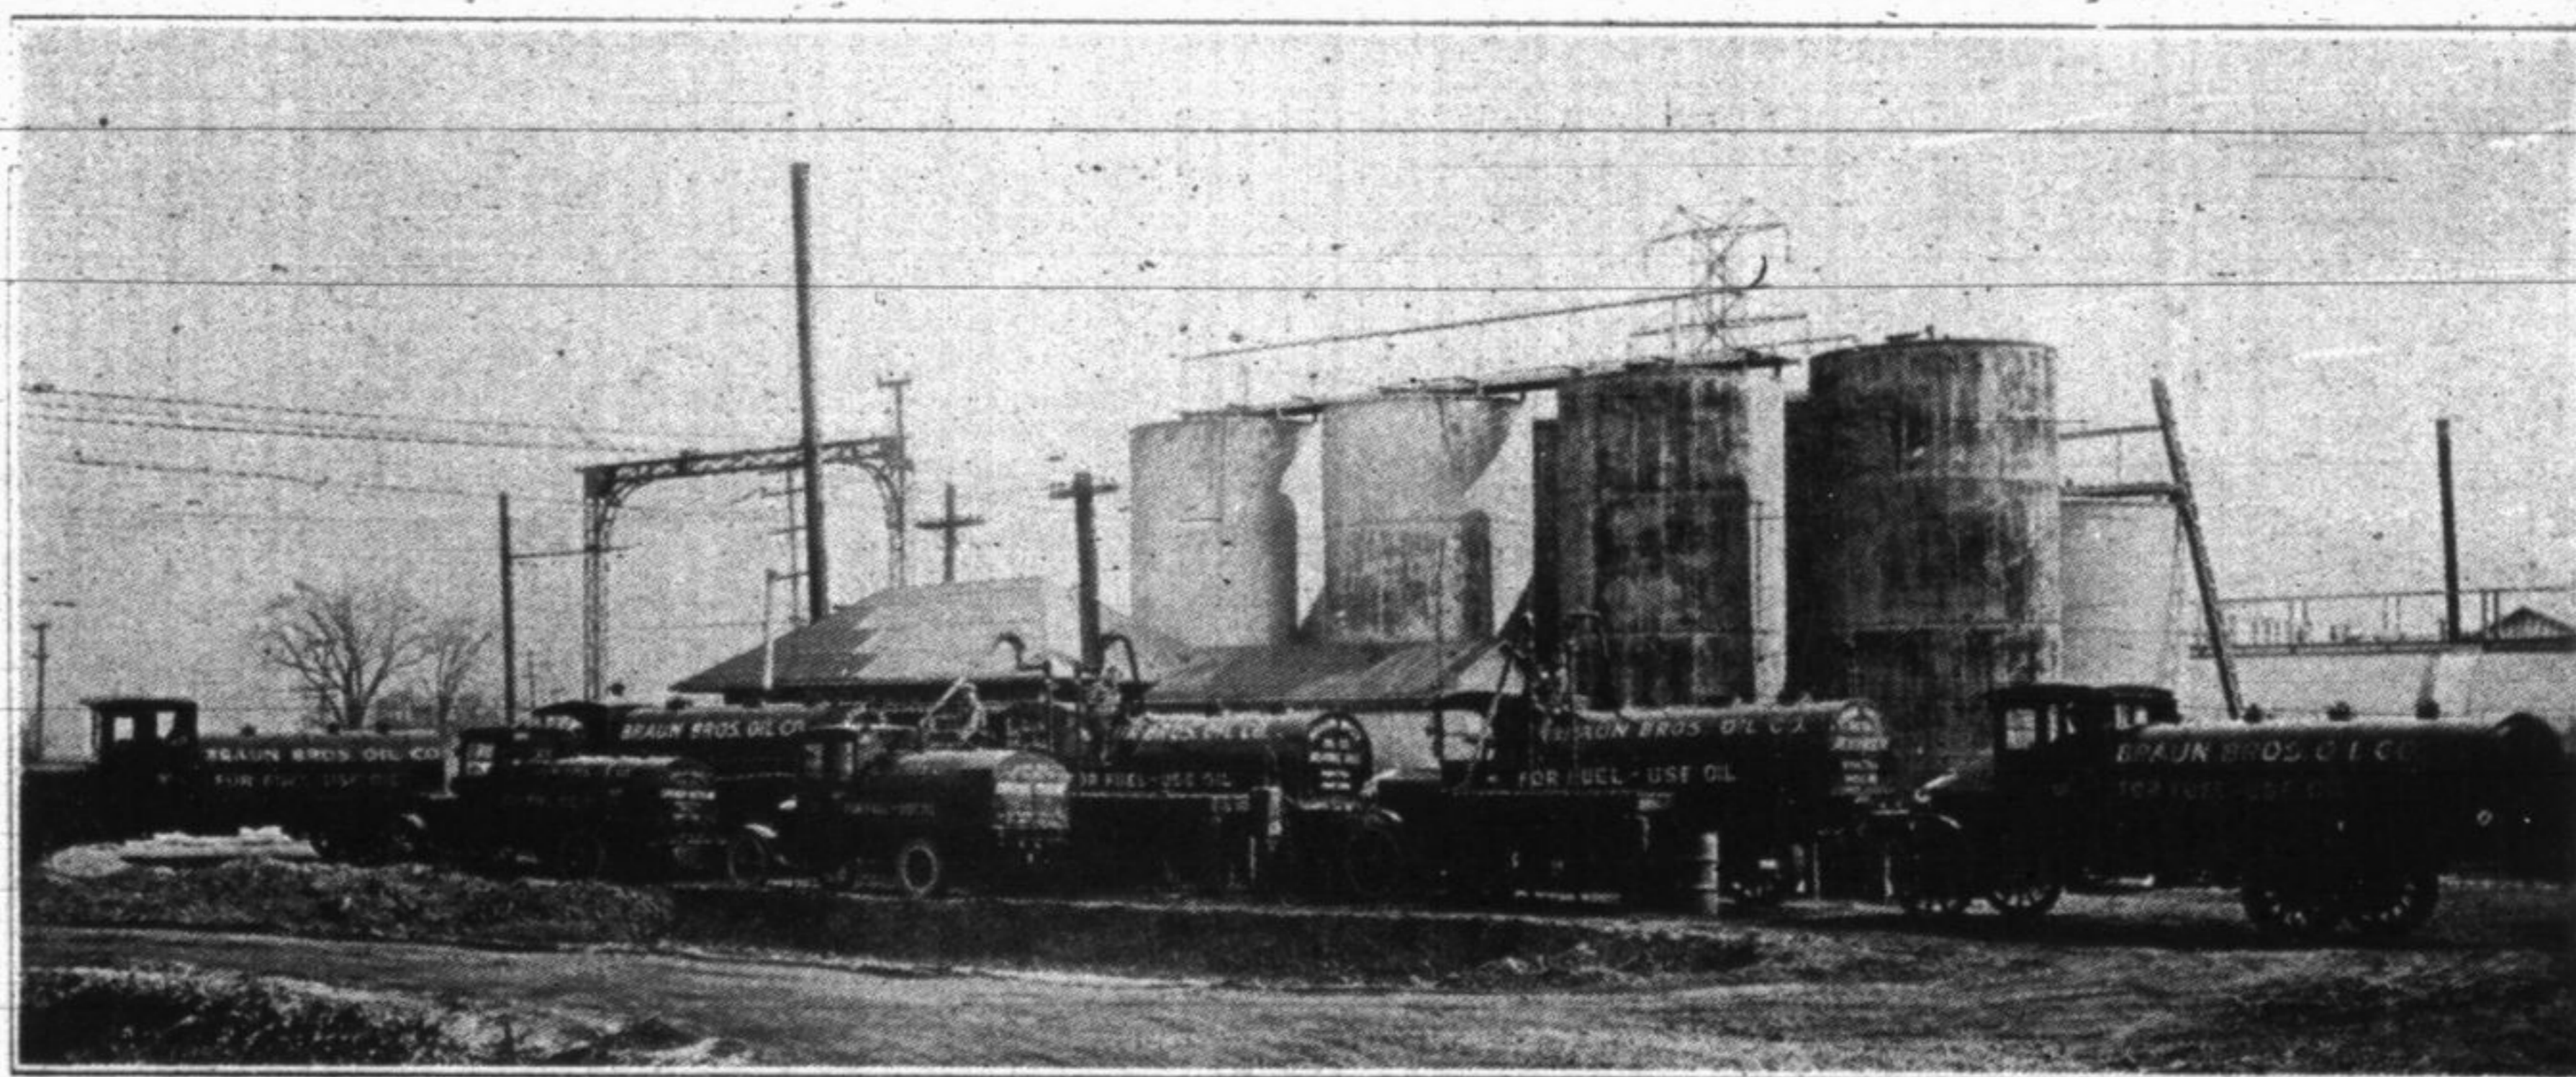

EVERY corporation, as well as merchant, furnishes its bank with a financial statement, so the bank may know its financial condition and can arrange for loans when needed.

Every man and woman, too, should make out one of these financial statements and have it on file at our bank, so that should they require money in a hurry the bank will be in a position to handle the transaction without any delay. Come in and get a blank form to fill out.
