

BABY WEEK STARTS SUNDAY, APRIL 28

Infant Welfare Assn. Observes It in Chicago Region; Local Center's Campaign

This week the local center of the Infant Welfare association is continuing its drive for funds, and the support of everybody interested is earnestly desired. The center also is looking forward to the observance of annual Baby Week, April 28 to May 4.

May the first is National Child Health Day, so proclaimed by President Hoover, who is also president of the American Child Health association, and the week of April 28th to May 4th in Chicago and suburbs is Baby Week in which the Infant Welfare society of Chicago asks everyone in general and in particular to give his special attention to the benefits that are brought to the babies and under-six year olds through its service.

The intensive work of the society in teaching mothers modern scientific methods of caring for children is done in the most congested and poorest sections of Chicago, where living is most hazardous and where the infant death rate would normally be highest, but the breadth of the influence radiating from the society's work is hardly calculable.

For Nearly 20 Years

For nearly 20 years the Infant Welfare society has been working on this problem of child health from every possible viewpoint, and it has

(Continued on Page 41)

Daylight Saving Time to Start Next Sunday

Daylight Saving time goes into effect in Chicago and the suburban region at 2 o'clock Sunday morning, next, and Highland Park, as usual, will resume this summer schedule. Churches and business houses and all other local activities will be governed by the daylight time until return to standard time next fall. Local residents are warned to turn their clocks and watches ahead Saturday night. Railroads will continue to operate on standard time as in previous summers, with such changes as necessary for the convenience of their suburban traffic.

Local Chamber Sends Children to Circus

The Highland Park Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday of last week co-operated with other organizations which provided a full afternoon at the Sells-Floto Circus for thousands of poor children of Chicago and vicinity. The local organization took care of 39 children from the Dorcas Home, here, sending them to Chicago in a bus specially chartered for the occasion, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Agnew of the home accompanied them, and the youngsters had the time of their lives, they report.

Infant Dead

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Hitchcock, Waverly road, died Monday night, aged three days. The funeral was held Tuesday, and burial was at Lake Forest.

Harry Paul Elected Chairman of Lake Co. Bankers Association

Harry Paul, vice-president of the Highland Park State bank, was elected chairman of the Lake County Bankers association, at the annual meeting and dinner of that group, held Tuesday evening of this week in Libertyville. Other officers elected are: Arthur Franzer, Fox Lake, vice-chairman; Bert Crawford, Lake Forest, secretary; D. R. Manzer, Lake Villa, treasurer. Roy Wright of Libertyville was elected delegate to the annual convention of the Illinois Bankers association.

The annual dinner of the organization was a feature of the affair, and the ladies were guests. Dr. John Scott of Northwestern university was the principal speaker, and a pleasing feature of the program was a recital given by Miss Marta Milanowski of the Lake Forest School of Music and a group of her students.

Representatives of Highland Park banks attending were J. M. Appel, Harry Paul, Charles F. Grant, Raymond Erskine and Martin Hart of the Highland Park State bank and Arthur Vercoe, Mrs. Grundy and William Dooley of the North Shore Trust company.

Col. Smith to Address Highwood Chamber of Commerce on April 30

The next regular meeting of the Highwood chamber of commerce will be held on Tuesday evening, April 30, 8:30 p. m., at its offices in the Santi building, Highwood.

The meeting is open to the general public and all who are interested are cordially invited to attend. Col. A. V. Smith, states attorney of Lake county will be the main speaker and judging by the number of people who have expressed a desire to hear Mr. Smith, there will undoubtedly be a large attendance. As the colonel is a fine speaker those who attend are assured an interesting and profitable session.

In a list of the new officers of the chamber, published recently, the name of the treasurer, John F. Leonard, was accidentally omitted.

John Hart and Street Gang Repairing Roads

Here is one sign of spring. Street Superintendent John Hart and his merry men are busy repairing the city streets, which suffered more than usual this winter because of the severe weather. The street force are on the job, filling holes and smoothing the way generally for traffic, and the streets soon will be in their usual good condition.

Catholic Daughters Give Card Party April 26

Catholic Daughters of America will have a card party, Friday evening, April 26 in St. James hall, Highwood.

Bridge, five hundred, euchre and bunco will be played.

Beautiful prizes have been selected and refreshments will be served.

Plans For Home And Garden Show at "Y" Are Well Under Way

The plans for the Home and Garden show, May 2-4, at the local Y.W.C.A. are well under way, as was indicated by the reports from the various committee chairmen at their last meeting.

Highland Park florists and landscape gardeners are responding to the call for exhibits and are promising loveliness and uniqueness in their displays. Mrs. D. M. Blasier and Mrs. W. H. Alger, Jr., are assigning to these exhibitors, and to the Garden club entries, assembled by Mrs. W. Ross Marvin, spaces in the large room below the Y.W.C.A. assembly hall.

Mrs. William B. Wrenn will show a collection of antique hooked rugs and Mrs. Emily Beers will have an exhibit of bookbinding and engraving.

Mrs. H. Funch-Rasmussen is in charge of tickets and is enlisting women to act as hostesses throughout the show.

Good Boxing Card at Deerfield on Monday Evening, Next Week

Following is the boxing card to be presented by the Deerfield American Legion Post next Monday evening:

112 lbs.—Oscar O'Hannion, Waukegan A. C. vs. William Green, Chicago.

124 lbs.—Young Mullens, Highland Park, vs. Jeff White, Chicago.

128 lbs.—Lewis Voltze, Glencoe, vs. Tom Shellingberg, Grays Lake.

130 lbs.—Charles Zahnle, Highland Park, vs. Ben Alex, Delle Plaine A.C.

158 lbs.—Whoopie Campbell, Grays Lake vs. Dick Moore, Delle Plaine A. C., return match.

122 lbs.—Bobby Juhrend, Deerfield A. C. vs. Eddie Peddle, Lake Forest A. C., return match.

155 lbs.—Fritzie Behrens, Lake Forest A. C. vs. Freddie Anderson, Irving Park Maroon A.C., return match.

135 lbs.—Bobbie Eckhardt, Winnetka, vs. Ernest Ramy, Ft. Sheridan.

Vesper Service to Dedicate Organ April 28

Sunday afternoon at four-thirty o'clock at the Rethany Evangelical church, a dedicatory service, for the purpose of dedicating the new organ in the church will be held.

An excellent program has been prepared which will be of interest to all. Following is the program:

- Dedicatory Improvisation Bergmann
- Service of Dedication
- Prelude in E. Flat Smith
- Holy, Holy, Holy (standing)
- Invocation
- Orchestral and Organ Hymn (No. 52)
- Hymn No. 279 "I Will Sing"
- Organ Musicale
 - Pastorale Scheve
 - Prayer Steane
 - Air Massenet
- Scripture Reading
- Anthem "Seek Ye the Lord" Roberts
- Tenor Solo—Mr. Ralph Sommer
- Prayer (standing)
- Organ Response
- Offertory—"Evening Prayer" Nelson
- Anthem—"More Love to Thee" Nordman
- Address—"What Do Christians Want?"
- Rev. Rolland W. Schloerby
- Organ Meditation "Impromptu" Schubert
- Benediction
- Organ Dismissal
- Postlude in D
- Tenor Solo "If With All Your Heart" Mendelssohn
- Mr. T. O. Thompson

Ossoli Club Elects New Officers Tuesday

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Ossoli club was held on Tuesday afternoon. The meeting was preceded by a luncheon in the ballroom of the Highland Park club. Tables were decorated with hugh silver bowls of spring flowers.

At the business meeting which followed reports of committees were received with enthusiastic response especially those of the Philanthropy and Scholarship committees, which reported a gift of $1500 to the hospital and a two years scholarship of $700.

Mrs. Henry Mason expressed the appreciation of the club to Mrs. Clark for all that she as president had accomplished.

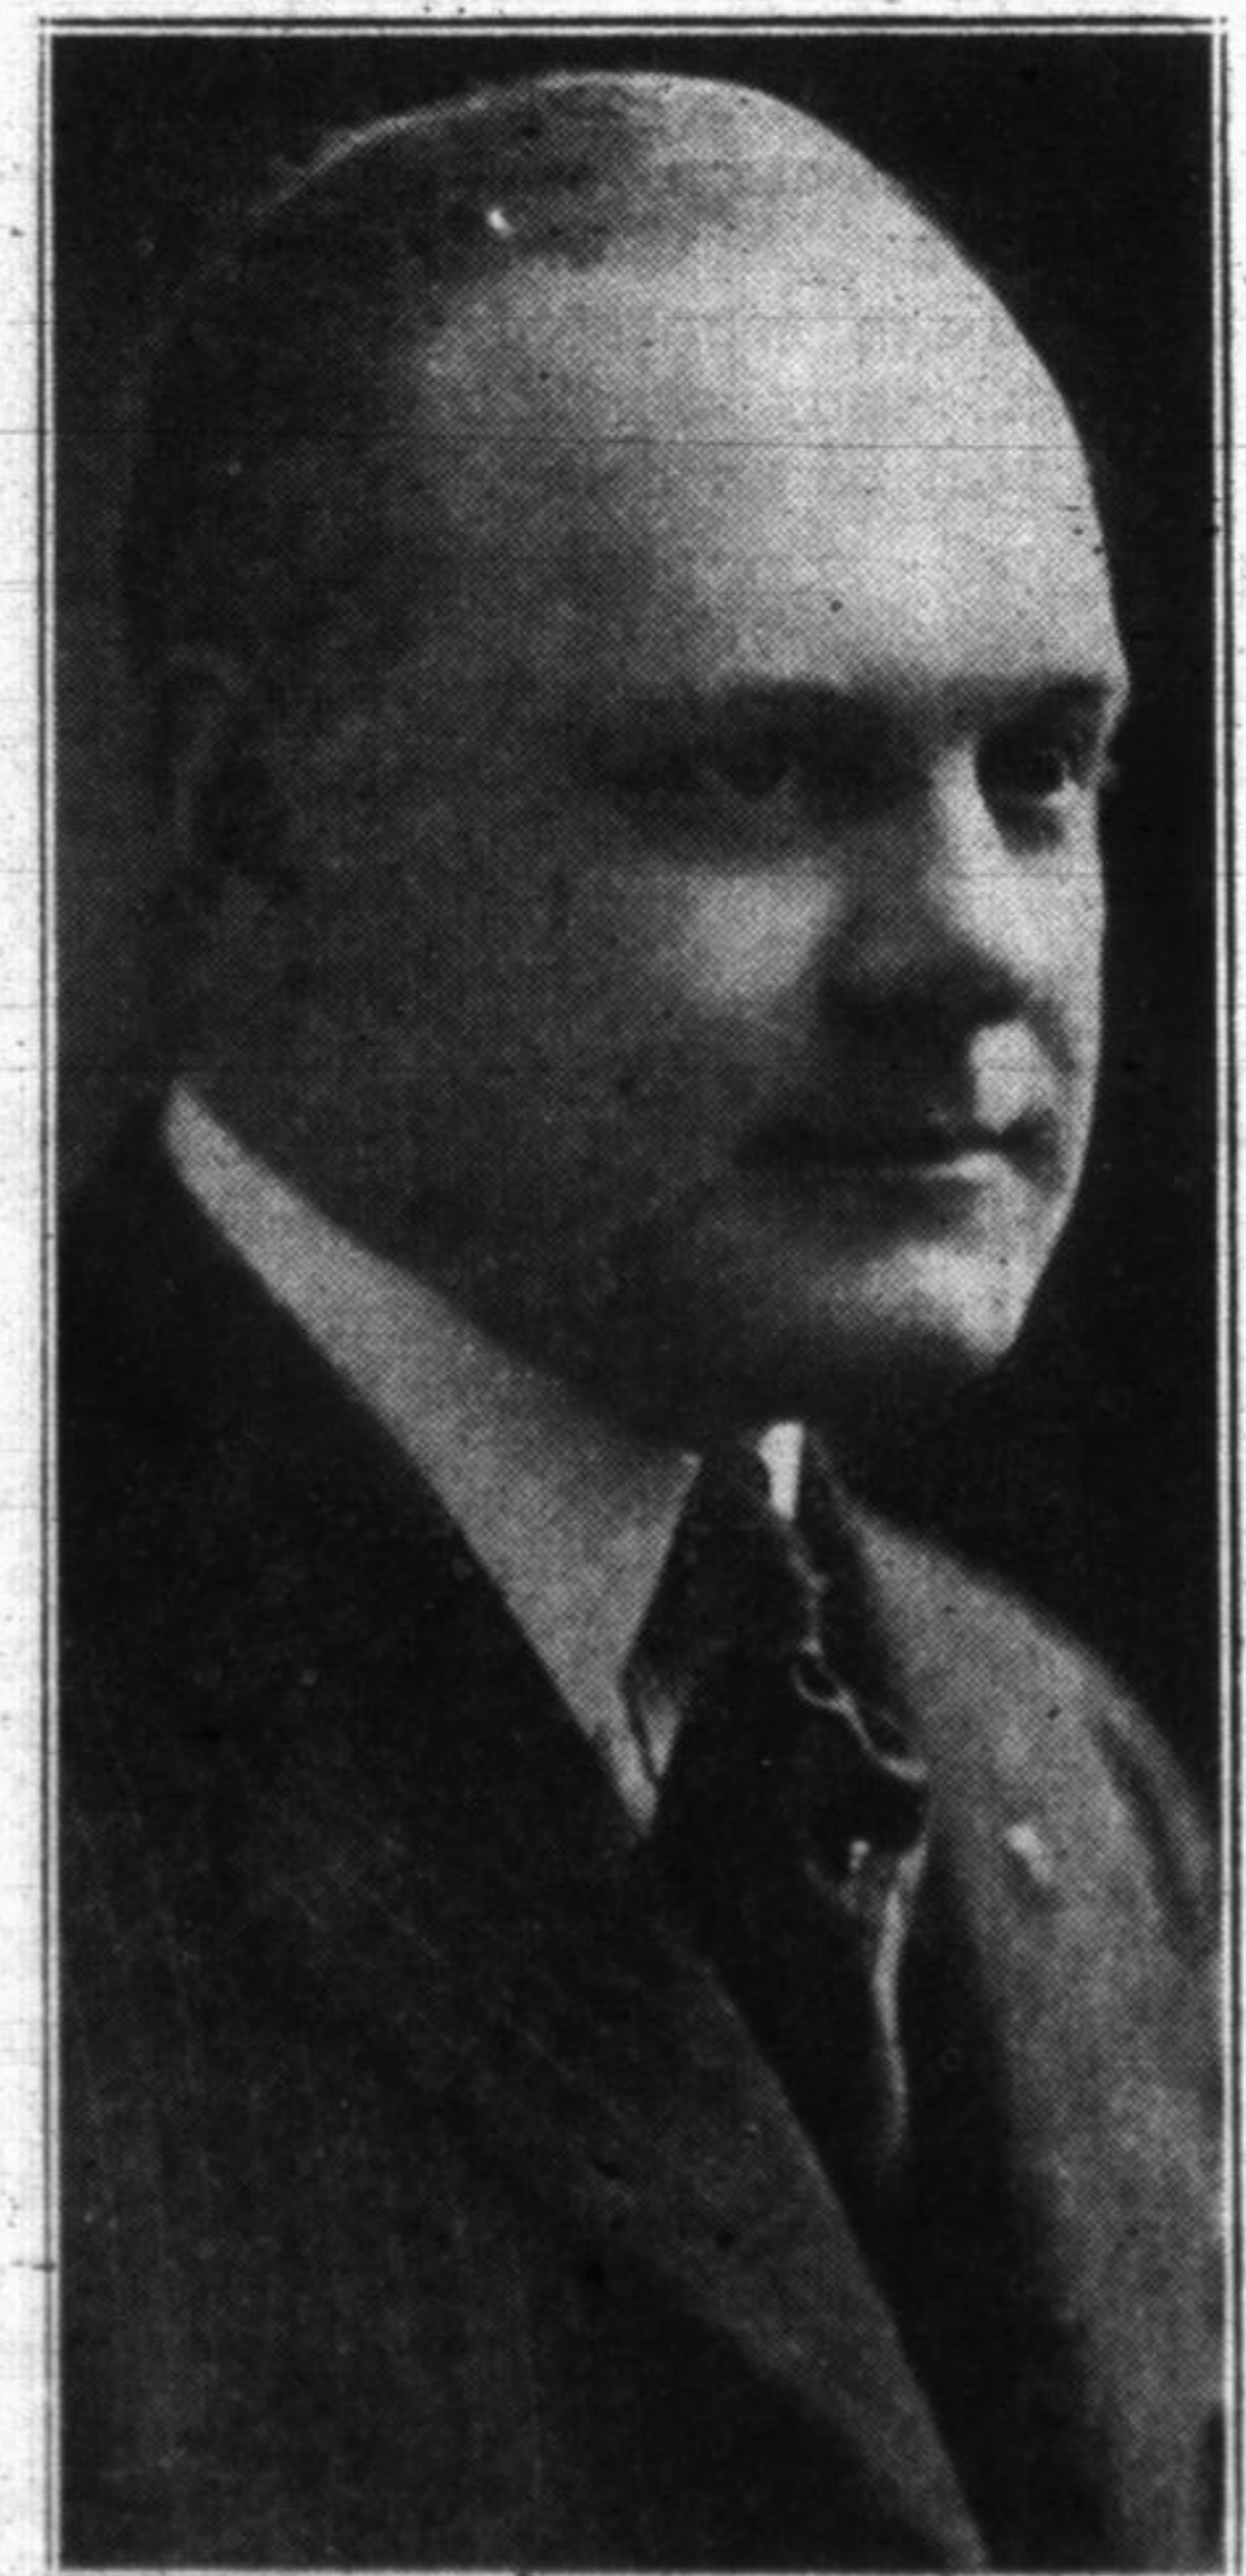

The following were unanimously elected:

Mrs. Everett L. Easton, president; Mrs. H. L. Kennicott, vice-president; Mrs. John S. Van Bergen, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Cleary, Mrs. Norman Lenington, and Mrs. William MacDonald, members of the board.

Mrs. Edmund Brigham, recording secretary; Mrs. John Dingle, treasurer; and Mrs. Robert Herbst, Mrs. Karl Meyer, and Mrs. Robert Walker, board members, continue in office.

Infant Welfare Will Meet Next Wednesday

The Highland Park Ravinia center of the Infant Welfare society will meet on the afternoon of Wednesday, May 1st at two-thirty o'clock at the home of Mrs. Edwin Johnson, 168 Central avenue. Next week is designated as Baby week in Chicago and vicinity. The Highland Park Ravinia center is holding its annual spring drive at this time and any subscription will be gratefully received.

Albert P. Snite, Scout Commissioner