

DEERFIELD SHIELDS HIGH SCHOOL

Deerfield Girls' Club Holds Banquet April 26

With an attendance of over 200 mothers and daughters, the Girls' club Mother-Daughter banquet at Deerfield-Shields was held Friday evening, April 26, in the lunchroom.

Those in charge of the banquet were Gladys Perrow, social chairman and toastmistress; Gertrude Williams, song leader and cheer leader; Virginia Engels, program; Dorothy Becker, decorations; Jane Wenban, tickets and advertising; and Catherine Pieston, dinner hostess, helping Mrs. Wright.

Dispersed between courses were some clog dances, songs by Mrs. Herbert Smith, next year's president of the P.T.A., a pianologue, and several stunts.

Harriette Golden, club president, gave a welcome address, while Miss Brooks, a club adviser, gave a toast to the Girls' club, and Catherine Preston, vice-president, the aims and history.

Miss Wilson, dean of girls, was also an adviser to the girls while planning the banquet.

Annual Spring Concert at H. S. Tomorrow Night

The Annual Spring Concert will be held tomorrow night in the high school auditorium.

The program will consist of several numbers by the orchestra, an Indian scene by the Girls Glee club, a comic operetta by the Boys' Glee club, and three numbers by the band.

North Shore limited trains will stop at Vine avenue at 7:30 and 8 p. m., south bound trains at 10:30 and 11 p. m. There will also be special bus service from Deerfield.

Evanston Wins First League Ball Game

Errors on the part of nearly every player on the team caused Deerfield-Shields high school to lose their first league game to Evanston on their home field Friday, April 26.

Deerfield started out in their half of the first inning with two runs, but Evanston came back with four runs in the next two innings on the errors of Deerfield players.

Magnani of Deerfield pitched a good game, but many of Deerfield's players were experiencing their off day.

Deerfield Student Places in Oratorical Contest

Louise Smith, winner of the Deerfield-Shields high school oratorical contest, placed third in the sectional contest held at Evanston on Thursday, April 25.

Thomas Byrnes of Loyola won first place and Bruce Simpson of Evanston second. Thomas will compete the state championship for the trip to South America.

Miss Comer said that Louise's speech was excellent, well prepared, and well given.

High School Golf Team Beats Arlington Heights

With only two lettermen back from last year's state championship golf team, Deerfield overwhelmed Arlington Heights high school last week by the score of 15 to 0.

The two veterans back from last year are T. R. Saielli and Warren Geary. They shot respective scores of 81 and 82.

W. J. Chambers defeated his man after a hard fought contest. It was Chamber's long dives netted him victory. Oswaldo Sailli, brother of Turido Saielli, defeated his man 8-7.

Jack Williams, our chief councilor, defeated the wonder of the Northwest league 7-6, while Jack Thomas, who played heavyweight basketball, won his match by his putting ability with a score of 7-6.

Warren Geary played the coach of Arlington Heights team, beating him 7-6, due to some wonderful iron shots and putts.

The team has three matches scheduled for next week, and the members of the team are hoping the weather will permit them to play.

Deerfield-Shields Seniors Enter Scholarship Contest

Nine seniors of the Deerfield-Shields high school are entering in a scholarship contest, which is to be held at the University of Chicago on Friday, May 24.

French, mathematics, physics, Spanish, and chemistry are the examinations which will be given.

Clover Benson and Barbara Shipnes will take the French exam, John Bosselli and Chester Siver, mathematics; Helen Leur, chemistry; George Hutchinson and Arthur Maganani, physics; and Anne Yohannan and Thomas Lester, Spanish.

Last year three out of the eight students who entered these exams won recognition. They were Hilliker Burchard in physics, and Genevieve Wolf and Robert Umbach in Spanish.

'29 Class of Deerfield Numbers 176 Seniors

One hundred seventy-six seniors, the largest class in the history of Deerfield-Shields, will be graduated the night of June 13.

Included in the list are names of 14 students who will complete the course in summer school, nine who finished in February, and two who are working with Mr. Sandwick's permission, and will all receive their diplomas in June.

Students Plan to Give Copperhead in Chicago

Because "Londonderry Air," the play which was to be given by the Garrick club of the Deerfield-Shields high school at the Goodman theatre, will not be ready, the last act of "The Copperhead" will be given in its place. Tickets for the play which will be presented on May 31, may be secured from Miss Comer.

Mrs. Clara Bocquin Is New French Teacher

Mrs. Clara Bocquin will take over Miss Dolese's French classes next September. Miss Dolese is to teach in the Chicago schools next year.

Mrs. Bocquin graduated from Columbia Teacher's college, New York City, at the age of 18, and obtained her master's degree at the age of 19. Her master's thesis was of such significance that it was published by MacMillan and company. She has had experience in Okmulgee, Oklahoma, and in two other teachers colleges besides the one at Columbia, which she attended recently.

Miss Dolese took the place of Miss Brooks when she went to France, and has been at Deerfield since that time.

Announce Prizes for Model Airplane Contest

Prizes have been received from Hunters Sport Shop for the airplane contest which is to take place about May 15.

The first prize is a free airplane ride in a big Pal-Waukee monoplane at their flying field. The second prize is a silver medal, on which is engraved a picture of an airplane, "Hunters Sport Shop," "commercial contest." This is mounted on a red ribbon. The third prize is a bronze medal, the same design as the silver medal, mounted on a white ribbon.

These prizes are on display in the show case of the east building where the rest of the airplanes are.

Vitro Lenzi Wins First in Baritone Contest

Vitro Lenzi won first place in the solo contest for baritones held last Thursday evening at the University of Illinois. He is now champion baritone soloist of the state and will compete for national honors at Denver, Colorado, the latter part of next month.

The solo Vitro played was "All Those Endearing Young Charms," by Mantia. He played this solo in assembly a few weeks ago.

Vitro has been a mainstay of the band during his three and a half years here and this year was elected student manager of the board.

Sheridan's Orchestra Plays at Prom Saturday

Wally Sheridan's orchestra will play at the Junior prom to be held at Deerfield-Shields high school this Saturday, according to Bud Snite, chairman of the music committee.

Mr. Sheridan's orchestra is very well known all along the north shore. Mr. Schwartz, the pianist, was formerly with Benny Krueger.

According to Dorothy Campbell, who is the chairman for the decoration committee, the decorations will be very unusual and interesting.

There will be special entertainment and refreshments. The dance is strictly informal.

Sara McClernan Stars In Frosh Swimming Meet

In the freshman swimming meet held last Friday, April 26, at the Deerfield-Shields high school, Miss Dolese's session took first place with 20 points.

The breast stroke was won by Sara McClernan of Miss Dolese's session who displayed good form. Sara also took first place in the crawl, side stroke, and diving.

Vera Mullin's of Mrs. Roth's session came in second for the side stroke. Fredricka Brown of Miss Chester's second in the crawl for speed, and Dorothy Plant of Miss Baker's session first in the back stroke.

In the medley relay, Mrs. Martin's session came in first, and Miss Morgan's second.

Show Animal Picture in Deerfield Assembly

For the assembly program at Deerfield-Shields last Friday, April 26, the movie "Simba" was shown. This is the famous picture made by Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson, on their trip through Africa seeking "Simba," the lion or king of beasts.

Several views showed close-ups of groups of lions stalking about unaware of the near-by cameras.

Students from the grammar schools were guests of Deerfield during the program.

Nutrition Class Graduates Twenty-two Underweights

Twenty-two Deerfield-Shields girls who started in the nutrition class for underweights last fall have gained enough weight so that they may leave.

The class will be continued for those who are still more than ten per cent underweight.
