

CITY CLEAN-UP WEEK STARTS NEXT MONDAY

requested to have their rubbish ready in containers so that there may be no delay occasioned in the collection.

All citizens are urged to co-operate with the city officials in a general spring cleaning of their premises. May 4, has been designated as screen and clean-up day in Illinois and Highland Park, like many other cities in the state, is devoting an entire week to this process, and citizens are asked to help.

Must Be in Receptacles

It is to the advantage of property owners and householders to do this, as the city has made arrangements to have certain kinds of rubbish hauled away without cost to the property owners or tenants. No ashes will be hauled by the city trucks or teams, and the city workmen will not go into basements or yards to collect the materials, all of which must be in boxes, barrels, or other receptacles and placed on the park ways.

Is Health Protection

It is a positive fact that in communities where there is enough civic pride to keep the houses, lawns, backyards, alleys and streets in good and clean condition, there is much less opportunity for disease to find lodging. Cleanliness is the basis of all public health measures.

In addition to being more healthy, a clean city is more attractive to visitors.

N. S. THEATRE GUILD TO LOSE WOELLHAF

Evanston studio, where all construction work and scenic painting is done, and in this workshop the technical director is lord of all he surveys.

With his sets completed and his properties assembled, the lighting charts must then be arranged so as to give the desired effects. Modern stagecraft depends more and more upon artistic lighting for force and appeal. And finally the crew of stage-hands must be assembled and acquainted with the play and the sets. Few guild members realize the work involved in moving a guild production into town for an evening, setting the stage for the performance, striking after the play is over and the audience once more at home, and packing in readiness to move to the next town. It is a job for a real show-man—almost a circus-man—and the guild calls him the technical director.

Next Guild Play

"Lilies of the Field," the next guild play, is an English comedy in three acts. Two complete settings have been constructed for it. The first act is placed in the drawing-room of a homey vicarage in rural England. The story calls for no distinct color scheme or period. The remaining acts are placed in an ante-room to the boudoir of a popular young Londoner. The room is "done" in the early Victorian style—perhaps even "overdone"—and it has rather the air of a room lent on loan to an exhibition. The furniture for both rooms has been furnished by William Hoops and company of Chicago. All this, plus lighting equipment, hand properties and luggage of the actors, will be carried from town to town for the eight performances of the play.

The Highland Park performance of "Lilies of the Field" will be on the stage of the Woman's club on Tuesday, May 7. On Wednesday, May 8, the play will be presented in Duran Art Institute, college campus, Lake Forest. Each performance will be the last of the guild's season in its particular town.
