new members were added and a number of renewals. The good condition of the fairways is due to their being fertilized and the results are apparent.

Entries are coming in for the North Shore Open to be held June 17, 1929.

Under the direction of Supt. E. M. Laing of the East Park district the strip of railroad property along St. Johns avenue on the north side of Central avenue has been greatly improved by altering the locations of the big German gun and a tree or two, sodding of the bare spots and a general rehabilitation. The result is that the place is now an attractive picture of landscaping. It is named Plaza Park, an appropriate signboard marking it as such.

Question raised, what should be done with men who have married two wives? Cynical old bachelors will say they are punished enough already.
