New Administration in Deerfield May 6

others are expected to do so before taking up their duties next Monday evening.

Deerfield is looking forward with interest to the beginning of Mayor Geary's administration, and the general belief is that he will give the village a good business-like municipal government, in which all members of the council will co-operate, as all are well known and their ability in public office is unquestioned.

Progress Assured

The co-operation of all citizens of the village has been asked by the new mayor with a view to obtaining general community support and harmony on all questions of public policy, and it is believed that the next two years will be years of progress and prosperity under his executive guidance.
