

The Highland Park Press

Entered as Second Class matter March 1, 1911, at the post office at Highland Park, Illinois, under the Act of March 3, 1879. Published weekly by The Udell Printing Co. at Highland Park, Lake County, Illinois.

ISSUED THURSDAY OF EACH WEEK

by THE UDELL PRINTING COMPANY
540 Central Avenue, Highland Park, Ill.

Telephone Highland Park 557-558-559

Chicago office: 6 N. Michigan Ave. State 6326

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $2.00 PER YEAR

All communications must be accompanied by the name and address of the writer. Articles for publication must reach the editor by Wednesday noon to insure appearance in current issue.

Resolutions of condolence, cards of thanks, obituaries, notices of entertainments or other affairs where an admittance charge is published, will be charged at regular advertising rates.

THURSDAY MAY 9, 1929 NO. 10

Local and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. James Plale of 583 Homewood avenue, entertained six friends Saturday evening, in honor of their first wedding anniversary. At a late hour refreshments were served. Five hundred was the feature of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Thayer of Heyworth, Wis., are spending a few weeks in Highland Park before leaving for an extended trip in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. George Francis were pleasantly surprised on Monday evening, by a number of their friends who came to help them celebrate their birthday anniversaries. Cards were the feature of the evening, the prize winners being: Mrs. R. Winter, Mrs. G. Lawrence, Mrs. C. Ould, Mr. G. Lawrence, Mr. Deisges, and Mr. R. Winter. Delicious refreshments were served following the card game. Mr. and Mrs. Francis were the recipients of many lovely gifts.

Mrs. William Hayward and Miss Jean Robertson gave a very successful card party, last Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. William Hayward on N. Green Bay road, for the benefit of the British Old People's Home at Riverside, Ill. Whist and 500 were played at nine tables. The prize winners for 500 were Mrs. Ohlwein, Mrs. W. J. Oulds, Mr. Robert Gilmour and Mr. Thomas McEwen. Mrs. W. Lowrie and Mr. W. Hayward were the prize winners for whist. Delicious refreshments were served and those attending report a most enjoyable evening.

Harlan Rogers, Jr., had his tonsils and adenoids removed Monday at the Fort Sheridan hospital. He is doing very nicely.

Mrs. Herbert Moran is entertaining her bridge club tomorrow evening (Friday).

Mrs. Paul W. Blanchard has just recently returned to her home on Walker avenue after an extended trip throughout the east. While in New York, Mrs. Blanchard attended the Special Service and Song Recital on the occasion of the visit of the Cadet Chapel choir of the United States Military academy, West Point, New York, which took place Sunday afternoon, April 14th, at Columbia university, St. Pauls' chapel, in the city of New York. Cadet Paul W. Blanchard, Jr., is a member of the Cadet Chapel choir which is under the direction of Mr. F. C. Mayer, organist and choir master. Mrs. Blanchard also spent several days at the Thayer hotel, West Point, New York, visiting her son, Cadet Paul Blanchard, Jr., class of "1930." During her visit in Washington, D.C., she was the guest of Mrs. Bertha Nugent at her home on Euclid street, N. Y. She also called on several Army friends at Fort Myer, Virginia and Chevy Chase, Maryland, also Ramsey, New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Reno Preti of Vernon avenue, Glencoe, announce the birth of a daughter on Monday, May 6th, at the Highland Park hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Konrad Schreier who have been living in Chicago for the past year have returned to their home on Ravine drive.

Mrs. Charles Brace of Bloom street, attended the official visit at the Wilmette Chapter on Monday afternoon, at the Wilmette Masonic temple.

Mr. and Mrs. John Klemp of Ridge road, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter on Saturday, May 4th, at the Highland Park hospital.

The Young Womans' club met on Tuesday evening at the parish house of the Presbyterian church.

Miss Edith Moss, Mrs. S. T. Dexter, Mrs. A. L. Blair, Mrs. F. A. Watkins and Miss Gladys Greenlaw, attended the monthly Presbyterial meeting at the First Presbyterian church, Wilmette on Friday.

Mrs. Ferninand Wiegand of Waverly road, has returned to her home after having spent the winter in Thomasville, Georgia.

Mrs. Norman G. Lenington is expected to return to her home on North Sheridan road the first of next week after having spent ten days in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Norton Dexter of Chicago were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Dexter of South Sheridan road.

Mrs. William Pearce, Mrs. Carl McManus, Miss Jean Barnet and Miss G. Greenlaw attended the opening session of the vacation church school training course in Chicago, Monday evening. These classes will continue every Monday evening from May 6th to May 21st.

Mary Schmidt who was struck by a car last week is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert P. Harmon and family of Laurel avenue after the fifteenth of May, will be located at McCrystle's for six weeks. During their absence the Harmon house will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Gatzert of Chicago.

Mrs. Edward Laing of Park avenue, is confined to her home with illness.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schmidt of Homewood avenue, had as their guests Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cook of Chicago, and on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hornishmaker, also of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton S. Beach of Rice street, are enjoying a months motor trip through the east.

The annual luncheon given by Mr. Louis Eckstein for the members of the Ravinia Opera club was held Wednesday, at the Moraine hotel. This marks the beginning of the campaign for subscriptions for the Ravinia opera for the year nineteen hundred and twenty-nine.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bloomfield and son "Andy" are leaving next Wednesday to attend the Derby at Louisville, Ky.

Mr. Flavel Robertson of Kansas City, spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Winters.

Mrs. Carl G. Bingham and Mrs. Edmund Brigham of Vassar, Mrs. George E. Bliss of Wellesley, Mrs. Arthur Emerson of Smith and Mrs. Pet Wood of Bryn Mawr and their husbands, attended the enthusiastic dinner given by the "Alumni" of the seven colleges in the Red Lacquer room of the Palmer House last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Arnold of S. St. Johns avenue, are the happy parents of a son, born Tuesday, April 30, at the St. Francis hospital, Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. Nielsen of Evanston have taken the W. E. Salyards house on S. St. Johns avenue.

Mrs. A. L. Adams of Winnetka, is entertaining the Worth While circle at dinner this evening (Thursday).

Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Bingham are spending this week at the Weylin, in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammond of Chicago, have taken the K. M. Ligare residence at 810 Forest ave.

Phyllis Delhaye of S. St. Johns avenue, is quarantined at her home with scarlet fever.

Mrs. Frank J. Coghil is spending this week in St. Louis, Mo., visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ingram C. Rasmussen will leave next Wednesday to attend the Derby at Louisville, Ky. They will also stop at French Lick springs.

Mr. and Mrs. John Erickson of Gray avenue, were pleasantly surprised on Tuesday evening, by twelve of their friends. The occasion was in celebration of their seventeenth wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Borkert and daughter, Nancy, of Chicago, are the guests a few days of this week of Mrs. Borkert's mother, Mrs. Fred Fisher, Sr., of S. Green Bay road.

Mr. Lyle Gourley who spent ten days in St. Petersburg, Florida, returned home last week and brought with him his aunt, Mrs. Arthur Gourley, and a cousin, Mrs. W. K. Pattison of Chicago. The party motored home.

The card party given in St. James hall, Highwood, on Monday night, was a huge success.

Mrs. O. Shafer and daughter Phyllis, of Chicago, were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Glader, of Ridgewood drive.

Mrs. Alex Smith and son, Jimmie, of Glencoe, have been the guests for the past week of her mother, Mrs. William Witten.

Whistler's Portrait of His Mother

YOUR MOTHER and MINE

THERE is no word in any language of fuller or finer meaning than "mother." On this day, set aside in honor of all motherhood, we are particularly happy in the thought that this bank in its daily work is delivering service helpful to many mothers in furthering their plans for homes and children.

Education and opportunity for children, home ownership—things dear to the hearts of mothers—such things are becoming realities constantly in our savings department. Things that make the business of banking worth while—things we are glad to work out with you.

North Shore Trust Company
BANK