MR. & MRS. V. O. APPEL RETURN FROM TRIP

Enjoy Extended Cruise and Tour of South America and Africa

Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Appel of 404 Linden avenue have just returned from an extended cruise and tour of South America and South Africa. The trip was made on the celebrated steamer, the "Duchess of Atholl" one of the finest boats afloat.

Several days ago the daily papers carried an exaggerated account of illness and death upon the boat caused by a dangerous type of malaria induced by the bites of a mosquito. Mr. Appel informs us that while this caused a depressing effect upon the tourists, the situation was not as serious as reported.

The cruise was sponsored by the Canadian Pacific and Mr. Appel speaks in the highest praise of the treatment, service, food, etc.—these being all contributory factors to a successful and enjoyable voyage.

During the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Appel, their two children were in the care of their grandmother in Streator. Mrs. Appel is in Streator today with the intention of bringing the children home.

Garden Club Meets

The regular monthly meeting of the Ravinia Garden club, including the Hepatica and Trillium chapters is being held tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock with Mrs. Eldon Gleason, 257 Cedar avenue. Mrs. W. L. Vance, Mrs. R. Bryant, Mrs. K. Romig and Mrs. H. G. Maus will assist the hostesses. Mr. Jens Jensen is to speak on "Some Phases of Landscape Gardening."

DELIGHTFUL MEETING, N. S. MCDOWELL ASS'N

Will Present Benefit Concert at Ravinia in June. Professionals Secured

The North Shore McDowell association held a most delightful meeting Monday evening at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo C. Dilkes, Kenilworth. Tennessee Anderson, the sculptor spoke of life at Petersboro, the colony which Mrs. Edward McDowell organized in New Hampshire for the benefit of Creative Artists, and in memory of her great husband, the composer.

Eunice Tietjens read some of her most charming poems and Pauline Manchester played brilliantly a group of piano solos. This association numbers among its members a great many lovers of the arts living in the North Shore suburbs including Highland Park and Ravinia. Each program is given in a different suburb. In June the association is to give a benefit concert out of doors and has chosen Ravinia as a setting. The artists who will play are of the very finest professional musicians and it will be a privilege to attend this coming musical event. More will be written in the next issues of the North Shore papers as well as due notice in the Chicago Musical journals.

Dreiske Flower Shop Is Delightful Place

One of the delightful places of Highland Park is the Dreiske Flower shop at 55 South St. Johns avenue, conducted by Erwin F. Dreiske, who has developed an ever increasing clientele since its foundation here five years ago, until the business has become one of the largest and most successful of the kind on the north shore. Cut flowers, fancy orchids, roses, tulips and a variety of special flower features as well as all of the usual types and all sorts of blooming plants are handled and offered at the lowest possible prices. Stocks are always fresh and of the very best obtainable.

The Dreiske Flower Shop has patrons all along the shore and in Chicago, and deliveries are made promptly; flowers to be sent by telegraph also are taken care of with dispatch. Recently Mr. Dreiske has increased his staff by the addition of the best floral artists obtainable in or about Chicago. Just now the shop is offering extensive and beautiful selection of cut flowers and flowering plants for Mothers Day.

D. A. R. Meets Today

On Thursday afternoon, May 9, Mrs. William C. Egan, assisted by Mrs. Truax, Mrs. Jared Johnson and Miss Chandler, will entertain the North Shore chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution at her home on Egandale road. Election of officers and reports of chairmen and delegates to conference will be given.

Meets With Accident

Mrs. William Rose of Park avenue, broke her ankle Monday afternoon, when the stool on which she was standing while washing windows tipped, causing her to fall. Both bones in the ankle were broken.
