

the School

a pageant, by Pearl... Miss Edna... Mother-sacred, your cold, your lacking in touch that humanity. The direction of

Edward Churchill, Ted Johnson, Beatrice Huyz, Kenneth Vetter, Pearl Stanley, Dorothy Savage, Dorothy Foxworthy, Bertha Rezik, Edna Fritsch, Ed Wills Johnson, and Paul Johnson

Business

for many years... candy store... streets, has an Unti of McGiannoni of w proprietors... last Satur- the business, and ice cream, nioni will con- clerk. Later some remodel- Both are ex- line and come and are wel- life of High- nioni will devote property inter- g alley in his letter from Mr. words the feel- s of the Press to the present per, and his let- y the manage- ss ulate you on the e Highland Park or to any city to cation.

Magazine Form

very truly, W. C. Egan.

a Success nco party given the Independent s was a very suc- a goodly number ere awarded and served.

DEERFIELD

News and Personal Items

Send contributions to local correspondent before Tues- day noon. Help her to make this section interesting.

MRS. LORETTA WILLMAN Tel. Deerfield 153-R

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Russo attended a bridge party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Russo of Chicago Sunday evening.

Mrs. E. K. Williams returned to her home in Nashville, Indiana, on Monday after spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. F. W. Russo. Her grandson, Frank Russo, Jr., returned with her to spend a few weeks.

Miss Margaret Ludlow of Chicago is visiting Mrs. Martha Love this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller spent Fri- day in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, with relatives.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Maierle of Ben- sonville were guests of Rev. and Mrs. Piepenbrok and attended the Ladies' Aid meeting of St. Paul's Evangelical church held Thursday afternoon. Rev. Maierle was a former pastor of St. Paul's church and this was Mrs. Maierle's first visit to Deerfield since they left nearly thirty years ago and she was indeed impressed with the many changes and developments.

Miss Agnes Sullivan of Highland Park was a guest of Mrs. B. Divine on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Visoky of Hazel avenue are the proud parents of a daughter born Thursday, May 2.

The Deerfield public library is grateful for the hundred and twenty books of fiction recently received from Mrs. Martin J. Insull of High- land Park.

Florence and Rose Gloden were guests of Miss Marie Maurice of Park Ridge Sunday.

Announcement is made of the mar- riage of Miss Marie Stoeckel, daugh- ter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stoeckel, to Arthur Klanke of Chicago, which took place at St. Paul's parsonage on Saturday, April 27. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok and Miss Mary Dicheiser acted as brides maid and Mr. Arthur Stoeckel, brother of the bride, at- tended as best man. Following a six months' honeymoon in Germany, the young couple will make their home in Chicago.

Mrs. Harry Muhlke was hostess to her Sewing club at her home on Cen- tral avenue Tuesday evening.

La Amitie societie entertained at a farewell party Monday evening at the home of Miss Verda Varner in compliment to Ruth Patterson, who will leave shortly for her future home in Edison Park. As a memento, Miss Patterson was the recipient of a lovely gift.

On Sunday, May 5, Mrs. Catherine Ender celebrated her eighty-fourth birthday anniversary. Seventy-five guests, mostly relatives, attended, in- cluding her granddaughter, Mrs. L. A. Dondanville and small son, Law- rence, of Moline, Illinois.

On Monday, May 13, is the Wilmot P. T. A. day at Olendorf's dry goods store.

The Earl Frost family on Oster- man avenue have been guarantined with measles.

Miss Ida Knaak at her home on Deerfield avenue presented a group of her pupils in a delightful musical on Tuesday evening.

Mother's day will be observed at the regular meeting of the Deerfield R. N. A. camp, which will be held Thursday evening, May 9.

Mr. and Mrs. John Klemp, Jr., an- nounce the birth of a daughter at the Highland Park hospital, Satur- day, May 4th.

On Tuesday evening members of the Mutual club were entertained at the home of Mrs. George Ott on Sec- ond street.

Dorothy Vetter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Vetter is ill with scar- let fever at her home on Waukegan road.

The Pfister and Peters families on Grand avenue, are quarantined with measles, the Cunningham family on Rosemary Terrace and Knigge family on Park avenue, are quarantined with scarlet fever.

Mrs. Alex Willman was hostess to her bridge club at her home on Wau- kegan road on Tuesday.

Mrs. Neil Brown, Sr., is teaching in Kasilof, Alaska, where the Neil family moved from Deerfield about a year ago.

Mrs. Henry Juhrend is writing for the Deerfield Review.

Miss Janet Miller of Milwaukee spent the week-end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Guy Miller of Hazel av- enue.

Friday, May 10, is P.T.A. day at Olendorf's store and members are in- vited to visit the store on that par- ticular day.

A benefit card party and dance will be given for St. Patricks cemetery at West Lake Forest, Friday evening, May 10, to which the public is cor- dially invited to attend.

Mr. Leslie Brand and Mr. A. C. Stadler celebrated their birthday an- niversaries at the home of the lat- ter on Orchard St. Saturday evening.

Misses Mary Belden and Alice Diehl and Mrs. Hunter Clark and Mrs. Bradish of Chicago were the guests of Mrs. J. A. Reichelt, Jr., Sun- day.

Shirley Wing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Wing celebrated her fifth birthday anniversary on Wednes- day afternoon.

Mrs. Minnie Whitcomb is ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Harder on Grand avenue.

The Deerfield American Legion Auxiliary will hold a regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Chas. Steiner on Springfield avenue, Monday evening, May 13 at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Martha Love, Mr. and Mrs. B. Divine and son, returned to their home on Thursday after spending the past two weeks with Mr. Divine's par- ents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Divine at Harrodsburg, Ky., and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Burns at Lexington.

JUNIOR LIVING FLAG COMPLETES ITS QUOTA

Joseph Andrews and Mary Hood Procure Memberships; Deserve Credit

The Junior Living Flag No. 358-J which was formed for the benefit of the United States Flag association, has been completed. Sixty-three boys and girls, all under 18 years of age, form this Flag, with Joseph Andrews acting as flagstaff. Deerfield Unit No. 738, American Legion auxiliary, sponsored this task, in addition to founding the Flag in memory of Louis Schultz, a Deerfield boy who made the supreme sacrifice on the fields of France.

A great deal of credit is due Jo- seph Andrews and Miss Mary Hood for their splendid work in complet- ing the Flag. The memberships are listed:

One Flag staff, Joseph Andrews; one Blue Field, Mark Andrews; Thir- teen Stripes, Kenneth Vetter, Ed- mund Koebelin, Doris Hunter, Mary Jane Galloway, Maurice Cazal, George Ashman, Edward Cazal, Ernest Her- tel, Jean Taylor, Jerome Burise, Helen Galloway, Dorothy Meyers, Donald Clark.

Forty-eight Stars: Arthur Mentzer, Arline Mentzer, Jerry Briggs, Ben- jamin Briggs, Robert Briggs, Leslie Christensen, Virginia Farmer, Lewis Stryker, Katherine Varner, Lorraine Koller, Florence Koller, Helen En- strom, Milton Merner, Jane Warner, Herbert Lidicher, Robert Hunter, Jean Brand, Arlene Gastfield, Kathleen Galloway, Frank Burnell, Katherine Cunningham, Harold Huhn, John Houston, Dorothy Vetter, Edgely Todd, Elsie Samuelson, Jean Pettis, Eleanor Bruggman, Marjorie Frost, Russel Foxworthy, Shirley Blaine, Ruth Andrews, James Olendorf, Wil- liam Olendorf, Harriet Stryker, Eva Lange, Robert Freeman, Rosemary Russo, Frederick Clavey, Patsy Clavey, Pearl Stanley, Robert Stanley, Mary Hood, Russel Mau, Harold Mau, Kress Willman, William Tennerman, Jr.

The medals for founding and form- ing this Flag, and the medal for form- ing the Adult Living Flag which was completed some time ago, will be awarded at the Memorial Day serv- ices.

Ladies' Aid Society Hold Fine Meeting

"Parents Training" was the sub- ject of the delightful talk given by Miss Hilkerbaumer of Bensonville at a special meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of St. Paul's Evangelical church held in the church last Thurs- day afternoon.

Miss Dorothy Reynolds of Chicago also entertained with some very fine readings.

Following the meeting a social hour was enjoyed and the hostesses in- cluded Mmes. F. G. Piepenbrok, F. J. Labahn, A. J. Johnson, Chas. Kap- schull, and Ed. Palmer.

Expresses Appreciation

Ex-mayor James J. Hood and fam- ily take this opportunity to thank their friends in Deerfield for the sterling silver table service presented to them by the people of Deerfield on the night of Mr. Hood's retirement from office.

Deerfield Assigned as Tag Day Location

The Chicago Federation of Aged and Adult Charities has assigned Deerfield as one of its locations this year for Tag-day, May 13. This is the one official Tag-day for all aged and adult charities of Chicago and vicinity, and hundreds of women will be tagging, not only in Chicago, but in all the surrounding towns. Thirty- nine charities participate in this Tag day, all using the same official in- signia and tags, but each one restrict- ed to the locations assigned by the locations committee of the federation, and each one receiving the funds re- ceived in its own boxes.

The women who are tagging in Deerfield will very greatly appreciate the co-operation of the townspeople. Get your tag in Deerfield, and help make Deerfield's box representative of the respect and sympathy we feel for the aged ones who need our help.

"Farm Folks" Proves Fine Entertainment

Rural life was pleasingly depicted in the four-act comedy, "Farm Folks" presented by members of the Tri C. society of St. Paul's church at the school auditorium Friday and Satur- day evenings. The group is to be congratulated upon their splendid act- ing and the delightful manner in which the play was given.

The reading between acts by Miss Dorothy Reynolds and xylophone se- lections by Peter Grimson of High- land Park were greatly enjoyed and appreciated.

Garden Market to Be Held in Deerfield

The Garden club of Deerfield will hold their annual garden market on Saturday, May 18 from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. at Deerfield school.

The following nursery men will ex- hibit: Fritz Bahr, F. D. Clavey & Sons, Franken Bros., Gage & Jordan, Kottrasch Bros., Bruno Nechville. All the latest garden tools will be on display by the J. R. Notz Hardware store.

If you are planning a garden, you will find everything necessary at this garden market.

Plan to visit it and remember the date.

Garden Club to Hold Regular Meeting May 15

The Garden club of Deerfield will hold a regular meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. E. B. Jordan on Waukegan road, Wednesday aft- ernoon, May 15, at 2:30 o'clock.

In view of the fact that the inclem- ent weather had prevented the blos- soming of the lilacs, the trip to Lam- bard, where they are at this time of the year, usually found in profusion, had to be postponed, and plans for a future date will be discussed at this meeting.

Deerfield Baseball Team Wins 17-5

The Deerfield baseball team scored another victory on Sunday at the Jewett park when they defeated a Chicago team 17 to 5. There was an unusually large attendance. Another game is scheduled for Sunday after- noon, May 12. Come out and support the team.