

Heirs of Deerfield Man File Appeal in Court to Break Will

Heirs of the late Carsen Nickelson, well-known Deerfield resident, took the first legal step in their attempt to break the deceased's will when they filed an appeal bond in the court of Circuit Judge Claire C. Edwards last Friday. The declaration setting up grounds on which the document is to be contested, will be filed next week, it is expected, according to the Waukegan News, which continues:

Those seeking to have the will set aside are Henry and Arthur Nickelson, sons of the deceased, and Katrina Nickelson, wife of Henry.

Estate Is $65,000

Under the terms of the will Arthur Nickelson receives $1,000 cash and one-half of the balance of the estate. The other son, Henry, is to receive $5 cash from the other half of the estate, which is valued at $65,000, and his wife is to receive $1,000 cash. The balance remaining goes to the Union Bank of Chicago as trustees for the use and benefit of the five children of Henry Nickelson.

It is provided that money be held in trust until the youngest daughter of Henry becomes 20 years of age and the youngest son becomes legal age, and that during the pendency of the trust fund the bank re-invest the income.

The Minor Children

The children for whom the trust was established are Alice, Sophia, Arthur, Gilbert and Robert Nickelson.

Attorney Minard E. Hulse has been appointed guardian for the children until litigation of the will is disposed of.

Deerfield P. T. A. to Meet Friday Afternoon

A regular meeting of the Deerfield P. T. A. will be held in the school on Friday afternoon, May 10, at 2:30 p. m.

Reports of the activities of the association of the past year will be given, as well as the report of the annual state conference by the delegate, Mrs. Hopkins.

Friday is also P. T. A. day at Olen-dorf's dry goods store and members are urged to make an effort to visit the store that day.

The party for pupils of the dancing class held Thursday afternoon proved a lovely affair, as well as a real treat.

Headstones for Graves of Civil War Soldiers

Through the Grand Army of the Republic camp and Waukegan chapter of the Woman's Relief Corps, three Government head stones for the graves of soldiers who served in the Civil War and who are buried in the Deerfield cemetery have been secured. They are for James M. Galloway, Silas H. Sherman and Theodore L.

Knaak. One for the grave of Benjamin Webster has also been ordered.

DEERFIELD GOLFERS BEAT LA GRANGE TEAM 11-4

The Deerfield-Shields gold team won its third straight victory of the season 11-4 over the La Grange team.

W. J. Chambers' long drives again netted him victory over the La Grange men 6-4. Chambers looks like a real star and should be heard from later.

Capt. W. W. Geary won his match over the La Grange boy, who is the Chicago District Caddy champion, 6-4. Geary played very nice golf.

Rena Nelson, Girls Western Junior champion, played on the team in the absence of one of the other regulars. She won her match 7-6. She played the same brand of golf that made her champion.

Give Musical Program

The Deerfield O. E. S. is rehearsing for a musical, "The Singing Skewl," which they will present in the school auditorium Saturday evening, May 25.

Wins Boxing Honors

Bobby Juhrend won honors at the bouts held in Chicago Monday evening when he defeated Benny Goldblatt. Goldblatt was introduced as lightweight champion A. A. and Bobby as lightweight champion of Lake county.

Chas. Zahnle, another Lake county boy, was also victorious over his opponent.

Somehow we can't visualize a war between England and the United States over the booze ship "I'm Alone." The stuff hasn't got scarce enough yet to fight over.
