Seventh Grade Studies Banks and Banking

After finishing the study of banking, the seventh grade of Lincoln school went up to the Highland Park State bank and the North Shore Trust and Savings bank to see how they managed their banks and to get some blanks.

The banks gave each student a savings bank book, a pad of savings and checking account deposits slips, some withdrawal slips, a few checks, and a blank for returned vouchers.

Lincoln School Defeats Ravinia in First Game

Lincoln school's eighth grade boys played the eighth grades of Ravinia in hard ball recently. It was the first game of the season. The score was six to four in favor of Lincoln school.

Offer Prizes to Scouts of Oak Terrace School

Boys of Scout Troop 37 who are the most orderly at meetings and have the best record in the Junior Police patrol are to receive passes to the Highwood theater from the New Highwood Chief of Police.

The boys with the best records have also been promised by Mr. Marsh, the scouts' marching instructor, a trip to the Cubs' park to see a big league game at the end of the school year. If all the boys have good records, Mr. Marsh says that he will take them all.

Oak Terrace Girls Plan Vacation Trip

A week's trip to Hickory Hill, 100 miles from Highwood, is being planned by the Girl Scout Troop 1, of Highwood. They plan to leave July 8.

The girls will live in log cabins. Miss Swan, Girl Scout leader, will accompany the girls.

Elm Place Teacher on Abenstee List

Miss Grenoble, English teacher of Elm Place, has been confined to her home the past ten days on account of illness. Yesterday, Wednesday, she resumed her work at school. Mrs. Charles Mason has been substituting in her place.

Elm Place Teacher Enters Painting in Exhibit

By virtue of a water color painting submitted to judges, Mr. Harold Schultz, drawing teacher of Elm Place, is among the artists whose paintings are in the National Exhibit of Water Colors in the Art Institute in Chicago. This exhibit is now open free to the public and will be there until June. Elm Place considers this quite an honor.

Plan Memorial Clock for Lincoln School

To commemorate the friendship of Mrs. Seyfarth, a clock is to be placed on the south corner of the Lincoln school building. It is to be supported by two rods which are cast into the shape of a line of birds that represent the flight of time. The clock is to have two faces which are to be illuminated.
