cheese as Glendale!

lightful tasty tang.

Since it is the vogue to be coated regardless of the weather-summer wraps are delightfully sheer and developed in a number of interesting fabrics.

A new note is the coat of matching taffeta worn over georgette or chiffon. And extremely new and chic -and as practical as it is decorative -is the coat of braid illustrated. Here, upon a foundation of sheer white rayon crepe, rows and rows and rows of cire rayon braid are stitched on diagonally-and we have the perfect ensemble coat for the black, white or black-and-white frock, as well as a smart separate coat for wear over any spring or summer costume.

Another novelty of the season is the short cardigan jacket of printed velvet worn over a sleevless frock of plain chiffon. .

Capelet Motif a Favorite Often and in many different forms you will see the becoming little capelet this season, for this youthful theme has stamped itself upon coats and frocks with equal favor.

Coats of silk, of cravenette, of tweed, of satiny broadcloth all welcome the capelet. Likewise frocks of chiffon, flat crepe or cloth. Sometimes the cape is little more than a large circular collar, or it may divide itself into three little circular tiers. Again it comes well down around the shoulders. If slim and youthful you will make the most of the capelet motif.
