

New Trier Students Win Literary Prizes

New Trier High school students have won prizes totaling $75 in poetry and short story contests conducted throughout the United States by The Scholastic, a Pittsburgh, Pa., publication, this spring.

Marjorie Braymer, of Evanston, New Trier senior, won a second prize of $50 dollars in the Witley Bynner Poetry award. In the same contest Janet Marshall, of Hubbard Woods, another New Trier senior, received a prize of $10 and honorable mention for her poetry.

In the short story contest conducted by the same magazine Kingsley Karnopp, of Winnetka, New Trier junior, received $10 and honorable mention for his story.

All of these contests were of national scope.

Glencoe D. A. R. Meets on Monday, May 13th

The annual meeting of the Glencoe chapter of the D. A. R. will be held on Monday, May 13, at 10 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Robert P. Walker, 101 Park avenue, Glencoe.

Reports for the year, of officers and chairmen of committees, will occupy the forenoon. Luncheon will be served. In the afternoon, reports of the Thirty-third annual conference of the Illinois Daughters of the Revolution, will be presented by the regent, Mrs. George W. Mieth, and the first vice-regent, Mrs. Harry B. Boardman. A musical program will be given by the very charming singer, Mrs. Hazel Belle Risk, of Winnetka. It is especially asked that members report to the hostess if they cannot be present.

"Boom, Boom" Enters Third Week of Run

"Boom Boom," the latest, brightest, snappiest musical comedy which the Messrs. Shubert's have ever presented, will start the second week of its limited engagement at the Appollo theatre Sunday night. It has one of the most expensive casts ever gathered for a musical comedy and features Frank McIntyre, Jeanette MacDonald, the famous Cortez and Peggy, and Jack Donahue-John Boyle Lightning girls. "Boom Boom" is a thing of speed, of many spry girls, of fast fun, of a dance for every song, and of dancing that is always out of the common.
