Play Monday Closes Successful Season

"Lilies of the Field," a comedy in three acts was the fourth and last offering of the North Shore Theatre Guild for their eighth season. This play given at the Highland Park Woman's club Monday evening was well received and afforded real entertainment.

The plot centers around the courtship and marriage of twin daughters of the Country Vicar, the double life, the one daughter leads, "all because of ten yards of crepe de chine." The situation, the wit, and the satire throughout the performance and the excellent directing and acting made this closing production one all will remember and only enhances the interest for the coming ninth season.
