Noted Art L... Passes M... from

The death of Lionel Roberts, a noted artist, was announced today. He was born in England and came to this country in 1885. He was a member of the Art Institute of Chicago and the National Academy of Design. He was a prominent figure in the art world and his work was highly regarded.

His life as an artist has made Mr. Roberts a well-known figure. He was an interior decorator and his work was great as was his work in the industries of the city of friends and community life.

At his home in the city, his art collections were always a delight to the eye. These gatherings in the village were always a pleasure.

Mr. Roberts was a member of the Cornell University and was a member of the city. Later he came to the Beaux Arts and was a member of the city.

He came to the city where he was a member of the city. Later he became a member of the city and was a member of the city.

During the summer months at Ravinia, he wrote a book called "The Ravinia Story" which has since been published. So warm was the weather that he invited them all to the city and an inspiration.

Mr. Roberts was a member of the city and was a member of the city. He was a member of the city and was a member of the city.

At the time of his death, he was a member of the city and was a member of the city. He was a member of the city and was a member of the city.

Mr. Roberts was a member of the city and was a member of the city. He was a member of the city and was a member of the city.

The loss of Mr. Roberts was a great loss to the city. He was a member of the city and was a member of the city.

RAVINIA ARTISTS LIVING IN SUBURBS

Several of Those Well Known Residing During Summer on North Shore

Shortly before the opening of the Ravinia opera season, Chicago's north shore district from Winnetka to Lake Forest, will again become the largest artists colony to be found anywhere in the world during the summer months. Virtually all the leading artists engaged by Mr. Eckstein for Ravinia opera will occupy private homes leased for the summer, and for several weeks past, they have been closing contracts for these places either in person or through their agents.

Although every Ravinia season means something more than ten weeks of strenuous work for all those whose names appear on the roster, at the same time this period is regarded by them as the happiest time of the year, for it takes them away from the big cities where they must pass the winter and gives them the advantage of a home life they cannot enjoy even in the finest hotels and apartments.

Enjoy Domestic Life It is proverbial that no one enjoys domestic life more than those who must devote part of their time to artistic pursuits and who, during the major portion of the year are away from their permanent homes. The real homes of the Ravinia coterie are well scattered over the world—in Spain and Germany, Italy, France, Poland, Canada, Belgium, Holland, Armenia and Mexico. Some live in the United States and most of these see their American homes for only a few weeks each year.

"During the summer months at Ravinia," says Mr. Eckstein, "the artists enjoy the opportunity of living in the beautiful residential district of the North Shore. Many of the regular residents of this section (Continued on page 10)

Annual Plant Sale to Be Saturday in Park at Ravinia

By special permission of the Park Board the Ravinia Garden club will hold their annual plant sale Saturday, May 25, in the park directly across from the station at the corner of Roger Williams and St. Johns, avenues. In case of rain, sale will be held in vacant store on Roger Williams avenue.

Mrs. Frank Wicks is in charge and has on her committee a group of very able assistants including Mrs. Ross Marvin, Mrs. C. C. Brackett, Mrs. R. Bryant, Mrs. E. H. Harrington, Mrs. E. Gleason and Mrs. Lee Frank.

Those desiring special orders or wishing to make sure of securing certain plants, will please call Mrs. F. Wicks for perennials and Mrs. R. Bryant for annuals.

Have you a garden problem? It is the aim of the club to promote better gardening and in its year and a half existence some study has naturally been made. So we may be able to aid you in your plans and care of plants.

Everything is being done by the club to make this sale a real achievement in that it will literally bring life, beauty and cheer to your door for a nominal summer. Make out your list and get your garden and Decoration Day supply.

All members are asked to bring five plants and we feel sure each will feel their responsibility.

There will be novelties, pottery and garden supplies. The great open air doors will swing wide at ten o'clock and will not close until the supply is exhausted. Come early if you can but do not hesitate about coming later as each will get real value, whether they be first or last.

Lake Forester Is L. B. Official Paper

The Lake Forester, a newspaper published in magazine form at Lake Forest by the Udell Printing Co., publishers of the Highland Park Press, was made the official newspaper for the publication of the municipal affairs of the Village of Lake Bluff, by action of the new village board of that place at its initial meeting Tuesday evening. The new president of the village board, O. J. McComb, also appointed an advisory committee to the village council composed of six residents, three women and three men and of which committee Robert E. Wood, editor of the Udell Printing company's two newspapers, was named a member.

Lake Forest Ice Man Drops Dead in Store

William C. Fleming, a Lake Forest Ice Co. employe dropped dead Monday morning in the Trading Post, a Lake Forest store, from angina pectoris, a form of acute heart trouble. He was 41 years of age and leaves a wife and four children, whose home is at Lake Geneva, Wis. An inquest was held Monday evening. The funeral took place Wednesday at Lake Geneva.

New Secretary

E. A. Belmont

E. A. Belmont, the new secretary of the Highland Park Chamber of Commerce assumed his new duties Tuesday. He is also in charge of the Highland Park Credit Bureau.

Mr. Belmont comes to Highland Park from Winnetka, where he has been manager of the Winnetka Credit Men's association since its organization and under his direction the systematic arrangement for rendering the prompt and efficient service which that bureau affords was largely developed. He therefore comes highly recommended, and it is believed that in securing him the local chamber has taken a forward step.

Mr. Belmont takes the position made vacant by the untimely death of Raymond Gould, who served the chamber so efficiently for several years. Mr. Belmont's successor in Winnetka is Joseph P. Colligan.
