

VARIED COSTUMES FOR RAVINIA OPERA

Experts in This Department Busy in Preparation for Season's Opening

Although the staff of scenic artists of Ravinia Opera have been busy for sometime building the new scenery which will be used during the season of 1929 which is to open June 22, and refurnishing that which forms the background for the operas which have been given before, another Ravinia activities and will be occupied from now until the first Monday night of September. This is the department of costumes and properties, the results of whose work mean much to the proper presentation of opera.

Every Detail Arranged

The expert workers comprising this department are never seen by the public, but it would soon be apparent during the season if these workers should cease their laborers for a day and an attempt were made to give a performance of opera without having every costume correct and in perfect condition or without having every piece of "property," as the various accessories used throughout the action are called, in its place when needed. However, it is almost impossible even to suppose such a

John C. Huehl Dies in Chicago Hospital; Deerfield Resident

John C. Huehl, well known resident of Deerfield for many years, died at 7 o'clock Sunday evening in the Washington boulevard hospital, Chicago, from the effects of injuries received May 12, when his automobile was struck by a limited train on a grade crossing at Bensonville, as Huehl was returning to the Mohawk Country club, near there, where he was an official.

Mr. Huehl is survived by his wife, whose maiden name was Louisa B. Herrmann, and three children, Mrs. George Sampson, Chicago; Mrs. Elmer Schmidt and Miss Barbara Huehl, Deerfield. There are two grandchildren, Betty Lou Sampson and Robert Schmidt. Two of Mr. Huehl's children, John and Alvin, are dead. The wife and the three living children were at his bedside when the end came.

One sister and three brothers of the decedent survive. They are Mrs. Linnie Whitcomb and Henry Herman and August Huehl.

Mr. Huehl had many warm friends in Deerfield and vicinity who learned of his death with sincere sorrow, and the relatives have the deep sympathy of all at this time.

The funeral service was held at the home in Deerfield at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and burial was in the Union cemetery, on Dundee road.

Gardens Are Visited

The gardens of Mrs. Walter S. Brewster, Mrs. James H. Douglas, Mrs. George D. McLaughlin and Mrs. J. Andrews King in Lake Forest were opened to the public, last Saturday.

Park Board Moves To Secure Thompson Lot On St. Johns Avenue

Proof that the Highland Park East Park Board will aid the city and library board and co-operate with them in acquiring the property fronting on St. Johns avenue between Laurel avenue and Hazel avenue, was given at a meeting of the park board Monday afternoon at the park board offices when a local improvement was initiated with a view to purchasing, by condemnation and special assessment, the tract of land at the corner of St. Johns and Hazel avenues, owned by his estate.

The City of Highland Park has acquired the piece known as the Coale tract at the corner of Hazel avenue and St. Johns avenue. The library board is raising funds for the erection of a new building and contemplates the erection of the building upon the property now owned by it upon which the present library is situated.

The proposed purchase by the park board, according to Mr. Everett L. Millard, president, was initiated at this time with a view to getting the matter started, so that the city, the library board and the park board would have control of the entire block. Park officials stated after the meeting that public hearings and meetings would be held during the summer at which the proposed park would be discussed and the wishes of the citizens of Highland Park would be ascertained.

Highwood Chamber and Legion Plan Carnival

At a meeting of the Highwood Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening it was decided to sponsor a carnival some time in July in co-operation with Stupey post of the American Legion, the Highwood post. A committee was appointed to work with the Legion committee on preliminary plans for the carnival, which it is planned to make one of the best ever held in Highwood.

The chamber also voted to obtain estimates on welcome signs, etc., to be placed at the entrances to the city wherever practicable.

Because of the oppressive heat the meeting was a short one.

Clarence Eidam To Play at Woodland Fete Here June 18

At the "Woodland Fete" to be given the evening of June 18 in the ravine amphitheatre of the studio home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peyraud in Ravinia, under the auspices of the North Shore MacDowell association, Mr. Clarence Eidam, well known pianist, will be heard in solo numbers and also will be at the piano, with Mr. Hans Hess, cellist, in the Grieg concerto for piano and cello.

Mr. Eidam is a musical scholar of high standing and his au-

when he plays. Mr. Eidam has toured the country extensively and the foremost critics are profuse in their praise of his artistry in such words as "interpretive force", "virtuosity of a notably forceful kind" "distinct personality" and "a singing tone." Mr. Eidam is a very busy artist and the opportunity to have him on the north shore is indeed a rare one.

This delightful occasion is one of the many program activities given by the MacDowell association towards the support of the MacDowell Colony at Peterborough, New Hampshire and with Mr. Eidam on the program will appear Mr. Hans Hess, cellist and Estrid Buck, mezzo-contralto. The tickets will be limited in number and Mrs. Dwight Orcutt (telephone Glencoe 238) is the general north shore ticket chairman.

Daily Bible School at Bethany Church

The annual Daily Vacation Bible school of the Bethany Evangelical church will begin June 17 and continue to July 3. Classes for all ages including those old enough to come to Sunday school, through 16, will be formed.

A very competent force of teachers have been selected, all of whom have had experience in this line of work, and many of whom have been trained in the dealing with children in vacation schools.

The following individuals will work on the departments indicated:

Beginners: Mrs. C. R. McClure, Miss Mary Guyot, Miss Mary Noenberg. Primary: Mrs. Milton Tilman, Mrs. Walter Meierhoff, Miss Salome Brand. Juniors: Mrs. Wm. Guyot, with assistants.

Intermediates: Rev. H. F. Siemsen, with assistants. Mrs. Roy Zimmer and Mrs. Geo. Titman will have charge of the hand work for the girls and Rev. Siemsen will supervise the hand work for boys.

A very interesting daily program is being worked out, one that will help the boys and girls to get a great deal of Bible knowledge, and at the same time give them other things that will maintain their interest. All children regardless of faith or creed, if they are not attending elsewhere, are welcome. A free will offering will be received twice a week to help defray the expenses of the school.

Opening Dinner Dance

The opening dinner dance of the Lake Shore Country club was held last evening. The attendance was unusually large and numerous dinner parties were given by the members.

FRIENDS HERE MOURN FOR MRS. ROSENWALD

Sorrow at Death of Beloved Resident Last Week in Chicago; Funeral Sunday

News of the death of Mrs. Julius Rosenwald, which occurred last Thursday afternoon, at her town residence, 4901 Ellis avenue, was received with deep sorrow by the many friends of the family, whose suburban estate has been for many years in this city. The funeral service was private and held in the home of Mrs. Rosenwald at Rosehill. Mrs. Rosenwald was well known and greatly beloved in Highland Park. For many years she was president of the North Shore Garden club and always deeply interested in all movements for the welfare of the community.

Husband at Bedside

At her bedside when she passed away were her husband, to whom she was married in Chicago in 1890, and three of her five children, William R. Rosenwald of Philadelphia, Mrs. David M. Levy of New York, and Mrs. Alfred K. Stern of Ravinia. Two other children, Mrs. Edgar B. Stern of New Orleans and Lessing Rosenwald of Philadelphia, hurried to Chicago.

Lessing Rosenwald, vice president of Sears, Roebuck & Co., arrived in Los Angeles, Cal., Thursday to visit his company's stores on the west coast. Two hours later, having received a telegram telling him of his mother's danger, he was returning to Chicago.

Brief History

Mrs. Rosenwald was born in Plattsburg, N. Y. She was married to Mr. Rosenwald five years after he arrived in Chicago and started a mercantile business. Her life during the last thirty-nine years had been largely a
