

Local and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Luther Holbrook have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter Frances, to Mr. Morris Mead Montgomery, which will take place, Wednesday evening, June 12, at 8:30 o'clock in Saint Chrysostoms church, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Lynn of Lakeside Manor drive, Ravinia are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter on Sunday, May 26th at the Highland Park hospital.

Mrs. Everett L. Easton of S. St. Johns avenue is spending two weeks at Lakeside, Michigan.

The last meeting of the Young Woman's club for this year will be held in the home of the Misses Halverson, 265 Lambert Tree road. All members of the club are urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tullis announce the birth of a daughter on Sunday, May 26th at the Michael Reese hospital, Chicago. Mrs. Tullis turn to Chicago in August.

Dr. and Mrs. Peter C. Wokcott arrived Friday evening from St. Petersburg, Fla., to spend about a month visiting friends in Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Du Blois and family of Ravenswood were the week-end guests of the J. F. Leaming family.

Mrs. O. E. M. Keller and daughter Eleanor have gone east on a ten days motor trip.

The F. P. Boynton family left Monday morning for Wisconsin where they will spend a few days before going to Siasconset, Nantucket Island, Mass., for the summer.

The Press Bridge club will meet Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bartel.

Mrs. Russell Mott left Monday morning for the east where she will visit relatives for a month.

The Young People's Missionary society of the Bethany church will meet at the home of Miss Mary Noerenberg next Monday evening.

Mrs. Hopp Welter of Evanston a sister of Mrs. E. C. Ohrmund of this city died Saturday, May 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin T. Johnson, Jr., of Central avenue entertained at dinner Monday evening for Mrs. James Marsh, who is visiting here from Beverly Hills, New York.

The second of the three Friday morning musicale's will be held Friday morning at the home of Mrs. Marshall Sampson of Lake avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lewis of S. Linden avenue will entertain at dinner at the Exmoor Country club Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. James Marsh who is visiting Mrs. R. B. Swazey from Beverly Hills, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Childs of N. Linden avenue will entertain at dinner Saturday evening at the Exmoor Country club. This is the opening dance of the year.

Mrs. Henry Glidden of Dale avenue entertained at luncheon at the Exmoor Country club Wednesday in honor of Mrs. James Marsh of Beverly Hills, N. Y., a former resident of this city.

Mr. George M. Bard of Maple avenue and Mr. Ralph A. Bard of North St. Johns avenue are tarpon fishing in Usepta Island, Florida. They expect to remain there ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. William Drake and son Billy, Jr., of Laurel avenue motored to Ashton, Illinois over the week-end where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Kieth.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Card of Central avenue have as their guests for six weeks, their daughter, Mrs. Sutherland-Cambell and small daughter Elsbeth of Los Angeles, Calif.

Central avenue.

A number of friends gave a surprise shower for Mrs. Leslie Smith of Sheridan avenue on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hays Rhinesmith and infant daughter, Nancy Ann of Lombard, Illinois were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Rhinesmith of Roslyn lane.

Mrs. Ralph A. Bard of North St. Johns avenue arrived home Friday from Alexandria, Minnesota where she has been visiting her father, Mr. W. H. Spear for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Beatty of Ravine drive left Monday morning for Milbrook, New York to attend the graduation exercises at Bennett school. Their daughter Miss Veronese will be among those graduating.

Mrs. Forrest D. Rose of Highmoor entertained her five hundred club at her home on Tuesday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Alfred S. Burdick of Oakland avenue left Thursday for New York from where they sailed on Saturday for an extensive trip through Europe.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Hollingsworth Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Clark Morrison to Mr. Russell Hamlin Burno, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hamlin Burno, of Blue Island took place Saturday afternoon at the former's home on Ravine drive, the Rev. Dr. P. C. Wolcott officiating. The bride, who wore a gown of ivory satin and carried a sheaf of roses and gardenias was given in marriage by her father. A reception followed the ceremony after which Mr. and Mrs. Burno left on a motor trip north.

Girls Club Officers Voted on Tuesday

Either Mildred Attridge, Marion Weisenberger, or Marion Larson will be president of the Girls' club at Deerfield-Shields high school next year as a result of a balloting held last Tuesday in the girls' sessions.

The other girls nominated for the remaining offices are Virginia Engels, Henrietta Jenkins, and Peggy Crawford for vice-president; Margaret Cox, Rose Panowski, and Rosalis Fosbender for secretary; and Jane Hart, Marjorie Ingram and Marjorie Frey for treasurer.

Harriette Golden, who is this year's president, is also president of the Suburban Girls' club.

WMAQ — 5:45 P. M.

Stories and fun for the children (also an important secret) in the new radio program—"My Bookhouse Storytime—Every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 5:45 p. m., over WMAQ. Adv.

Recent Real Estate Sales Reported Here

McGuire & Orr report the following recent sales of property, made by their Highland Park office:

The sale of Lot 5 on McDaniels avenue, just north of Bob-O-Link club Highland Park, by O. E. Baker to Julius H. Zimmer, was made by Henry Walther of the Highland Park office.

The sale of the residence of Max H. Ehlert, consul for Chile at 331 South Green Bay road, Highland Park, to Edward G. Huber. The purchase by Mr. Huber was a speculative one, and the property was resold by him to Oscar Iverson; both of these transsactions were handled by Henry Walther of the Highland Park office.

The sale of a building site on De-Tamble avenue, Highland Park, east of Green Bay road, for A. J. Schumacher to J. M. Josephsen was also made by Mr. Walther.

The sale of a building site on Harvard avenue, in the Sunset Park subdivision of Highland Park, for Joseph P. Heeney to Louis N. Berube. This sale was made by Henry Walther of the Highland Park office.

Claimed there are too many college graduates, but most of them forget what they learned there in a few years.

Please Telephone Just ONE Order

Just one order by telephone today—now—while you think of it just so that you can test the efficiency of this excellent service. We want you to see how quickly we can deliver goods ordered. Make it a small order or a big order as you please, only give us a chance to prove our claim for prompt service. No extra cost added to the goods for delivery—that's our problem and we'll take care of it if you'll telephone us your order.

EARL W. GSELL & CO

Pharmacists Highland Park, Illinois

WASHABLE FROCKS

Cool, sleeveless styles — prints, voiles, and piques. Trimmed in dainty laces and ties. Exceptionally well-tailored and guaranteed fast colors. $2.98

DAILY'S READY-to-WEAR STORE

523 Central Avenue Phone Highland Park 1072