Case in Court Four Years Is Now Settled

After four years of dragging through the courts it was indicated last week that Mrs. Len Glass Hebner's claim in the estate of Lucinda Brown would be settled for $450.

Originally Mrs. Brown, who resided for years in Grayslake, left her entire estate to Mrs. Hebner, who was then Lena Glass. She had been the housekeeper.

Relatives instituted proceedings to break the will and the will was broken by Attorney Albert Hall but only after it had gone through the supreme court. The estate was estimated at $20,000.

Then Mrs. Hebner filed a claim for $800 in probate court for services rendered during the illness of Mrs. Brown. This was allowed but Probate Judge Decker ruled that an accounting should be made by her for $380.

When the case came up today before Circuit Judge Claire C. Edwards he indicated that a settlement, virtually the same as the probate court ruling, should be reached.

Convict: "999."

Social Worker: "Oh, but that's not your real name."

Convict: "Naw, that's only my pen name."
