H. P. Indoor Baseball League Starts Auspicious Season

The ninth game of the '29 season of the Highland Park Business Men's Indoor Baseball League is scheduled to take place today at Sunset Park when the Public Service aggregation will take on the Anspach Realtors for nine innings.

Since the opening of the season there has been a steadily increasing rivalry evinced by the six teams entered in the League. Friendly rivalry, of course, but rivalry with serious intent. For each one of the six teams listed is counting on carrying off the honors of the series. We hope they all do.

Tillie Martin took the mound in the second inning of the Tuesday fracas between Rasmussen Brothers and the Highland Park Press. He pitched a commendable game, holding the husky Press swatters to few hits. However, the few hits counted, materializing into nine runs for the Press against five for Rasmussen when the final tally was recorded.

The Monday evening contest, played between the Hunter's Sport Shop nine and the Larson Stationers, was not without its thrills. Dick Hammond, redoubtable pitcher for the Stationers, was unable to be on hand for the game and his post on the mound was admirably filled by Jack Zengeler.

Weiss, star twirler on the Hunter's nine, was in good form, holding his opponents to three hits, only one of which counted a run. The final score stood in favor of the Hunter's with a five to one margin. See you down to the Park.

Deerfield Wins Two More Games

On Memorial Day the Deerfield A. C. nine defeated the North Shore A. C. team of Waukegan 4-2, in a snappy game. While on Sunday, they overcame the Tenth Street Business Men of Waukegan 3-2. Deerfield is playing an excellent and consistent game of ball. Follow them to Lake Forest next Sunday afternoon. They play there at 3 p. m.
