SPECIMENS OF NEW CURRENCY DISPLAYED

Local Banks Have Them; Description of Bills of Various Denominations

Specimens of the new paper currency notes were received a few days ago by local banks and are on display therein.

The new bills are considerably smaller than the present currency being 6 5-15 inches long and 2 11-16 inches wide as contrasted with the 7 1-4 and 3 2-8 dimensions of the present currency. The new little money will be placed in circulation gradually, a general warning being issued that all of the old currency will continue indefinitely at face value.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon has announced that the initial issue of the new currency will be available July 10. The banks of Waukegan are to co-operate in the exchange here.

Supply Coming July 10

The first issue will include all kinds of currency, except national bank notes, and all denominations from $1 to $20. The national bank notes in the new sizes will be issued in order of charter numbers, beginning about July 10, 1929, and the new gold certificates and federal reserve bank notes above $20 at a later date.

New designs on a denominational basis have been adopted for the new currency. The designs have been simplified generally to eliminate existing confusion and will provide a more effective protection against counterfeiting.

Description

The new currency will have the following distinguishing embellishments, according to denomination:

One dollar, portrait of Washington on the face and ornate one on the back; $2, portrait of Jefferson on the face and a picture of Monticello on the back; $5, Lincoln on the face and the Lincoln memorial on the back; $10, Hamilton on the face, and the United States treasury on the back.

Twenty dollar, Jackson on the face, and the White House on the back; $50, Grant on the face and the Capitol on the back; $100, Franklin on the face and Independence hall on the back; $500, McKinley on the face and an ornate 500 on the back; $1,000, Cleveland on the face and an ornate $5,000 on the back; $10,000, Chase on the front and an ornate $10,000 on the back.

Marion Talley Buys Big Farm in Kansas

Marion Talley of Kansas City, former Metropolitan Opera House singer who recently resigned from that company to live on a farm, has found her rural home. The farm, 640 acres, is twelve miles north of Colby, Kan., 240 miles from Denver, Col., and 400 miles from Kansas City.

Miss Talley says she will continue to study, but not for a comeback. She will keep Holstein cows, and is going to go in intensively for horseback riding. Construction of a house on the farm will begin during the summer.

In an exclusive interview with Publishers Autocaster Service some weeks ago, Miss Talley expressed her love of rural life and her desire to buy and operate a farm.
