Two Men Escape Jail But Soon Recaptured

With the aid of fellow prisoners two alleged burglars, who have been in the county jail for the last six weeks, last week were secreted in garbage cans and carried outside where they made their escape only to be rounded up within an hour by county highway police.

Possibility of warrants being issued, charging two and possibly four men with conspiracy, was hinted by Sheriff Lawrence Doolittle.

James Nicholson, 19, of Libertyville, who was arrested on a charge of burglarizing a grocery store there, and Robert Morris, 18, of 212 North Clark street, Chicago, who was arrested March 28 on a charge of burglarizing a Consumers store at 121 North Genesee street, Waukegan, were the youths who almost tasted freedom.
