St. James School at Highwood Graduation Exercises on Sunday

God, begging His blessings on the new and fuller life unfolding before them. Never did the voices of the children's choir sound more sweetly. Seldom have the people of St. James' been more deeply impressed, than when the services ended, the organ, played by Miss Ann Muzik, again pealed forth the recessional march and the blue and gold line filed out of the church to the parish hall, there to be the guests of the fifth, sixth and seventh grades at breakfast. Under the kindly, efficient direction of Mrs. Nolan a delicious meal was served to the graduates, their flower-bearers and their parents.

Following this, the happy band assembled on the rectory lawn for the class picture. As if eager to contribute to the day's pleasure the sun beamed down just in time, scattering the dismal rain clouds which had marred the morning. We hope these young people will find life all sunshine, with only a sprinkling of rain. Their proud parents are to be congratulated, as are the numerous relatives and friends who shared with the graduates in the joy of achievement.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark G. Wright and children are leaving this week for a motor trip through Colorado, and upon their return will spend the remainder of the summer in La Grange. During the summer Anna Bourskaya will occupy their residence.
