

ROUSE TAKES NORTH SHORE OPEN TITLE

(Continued)

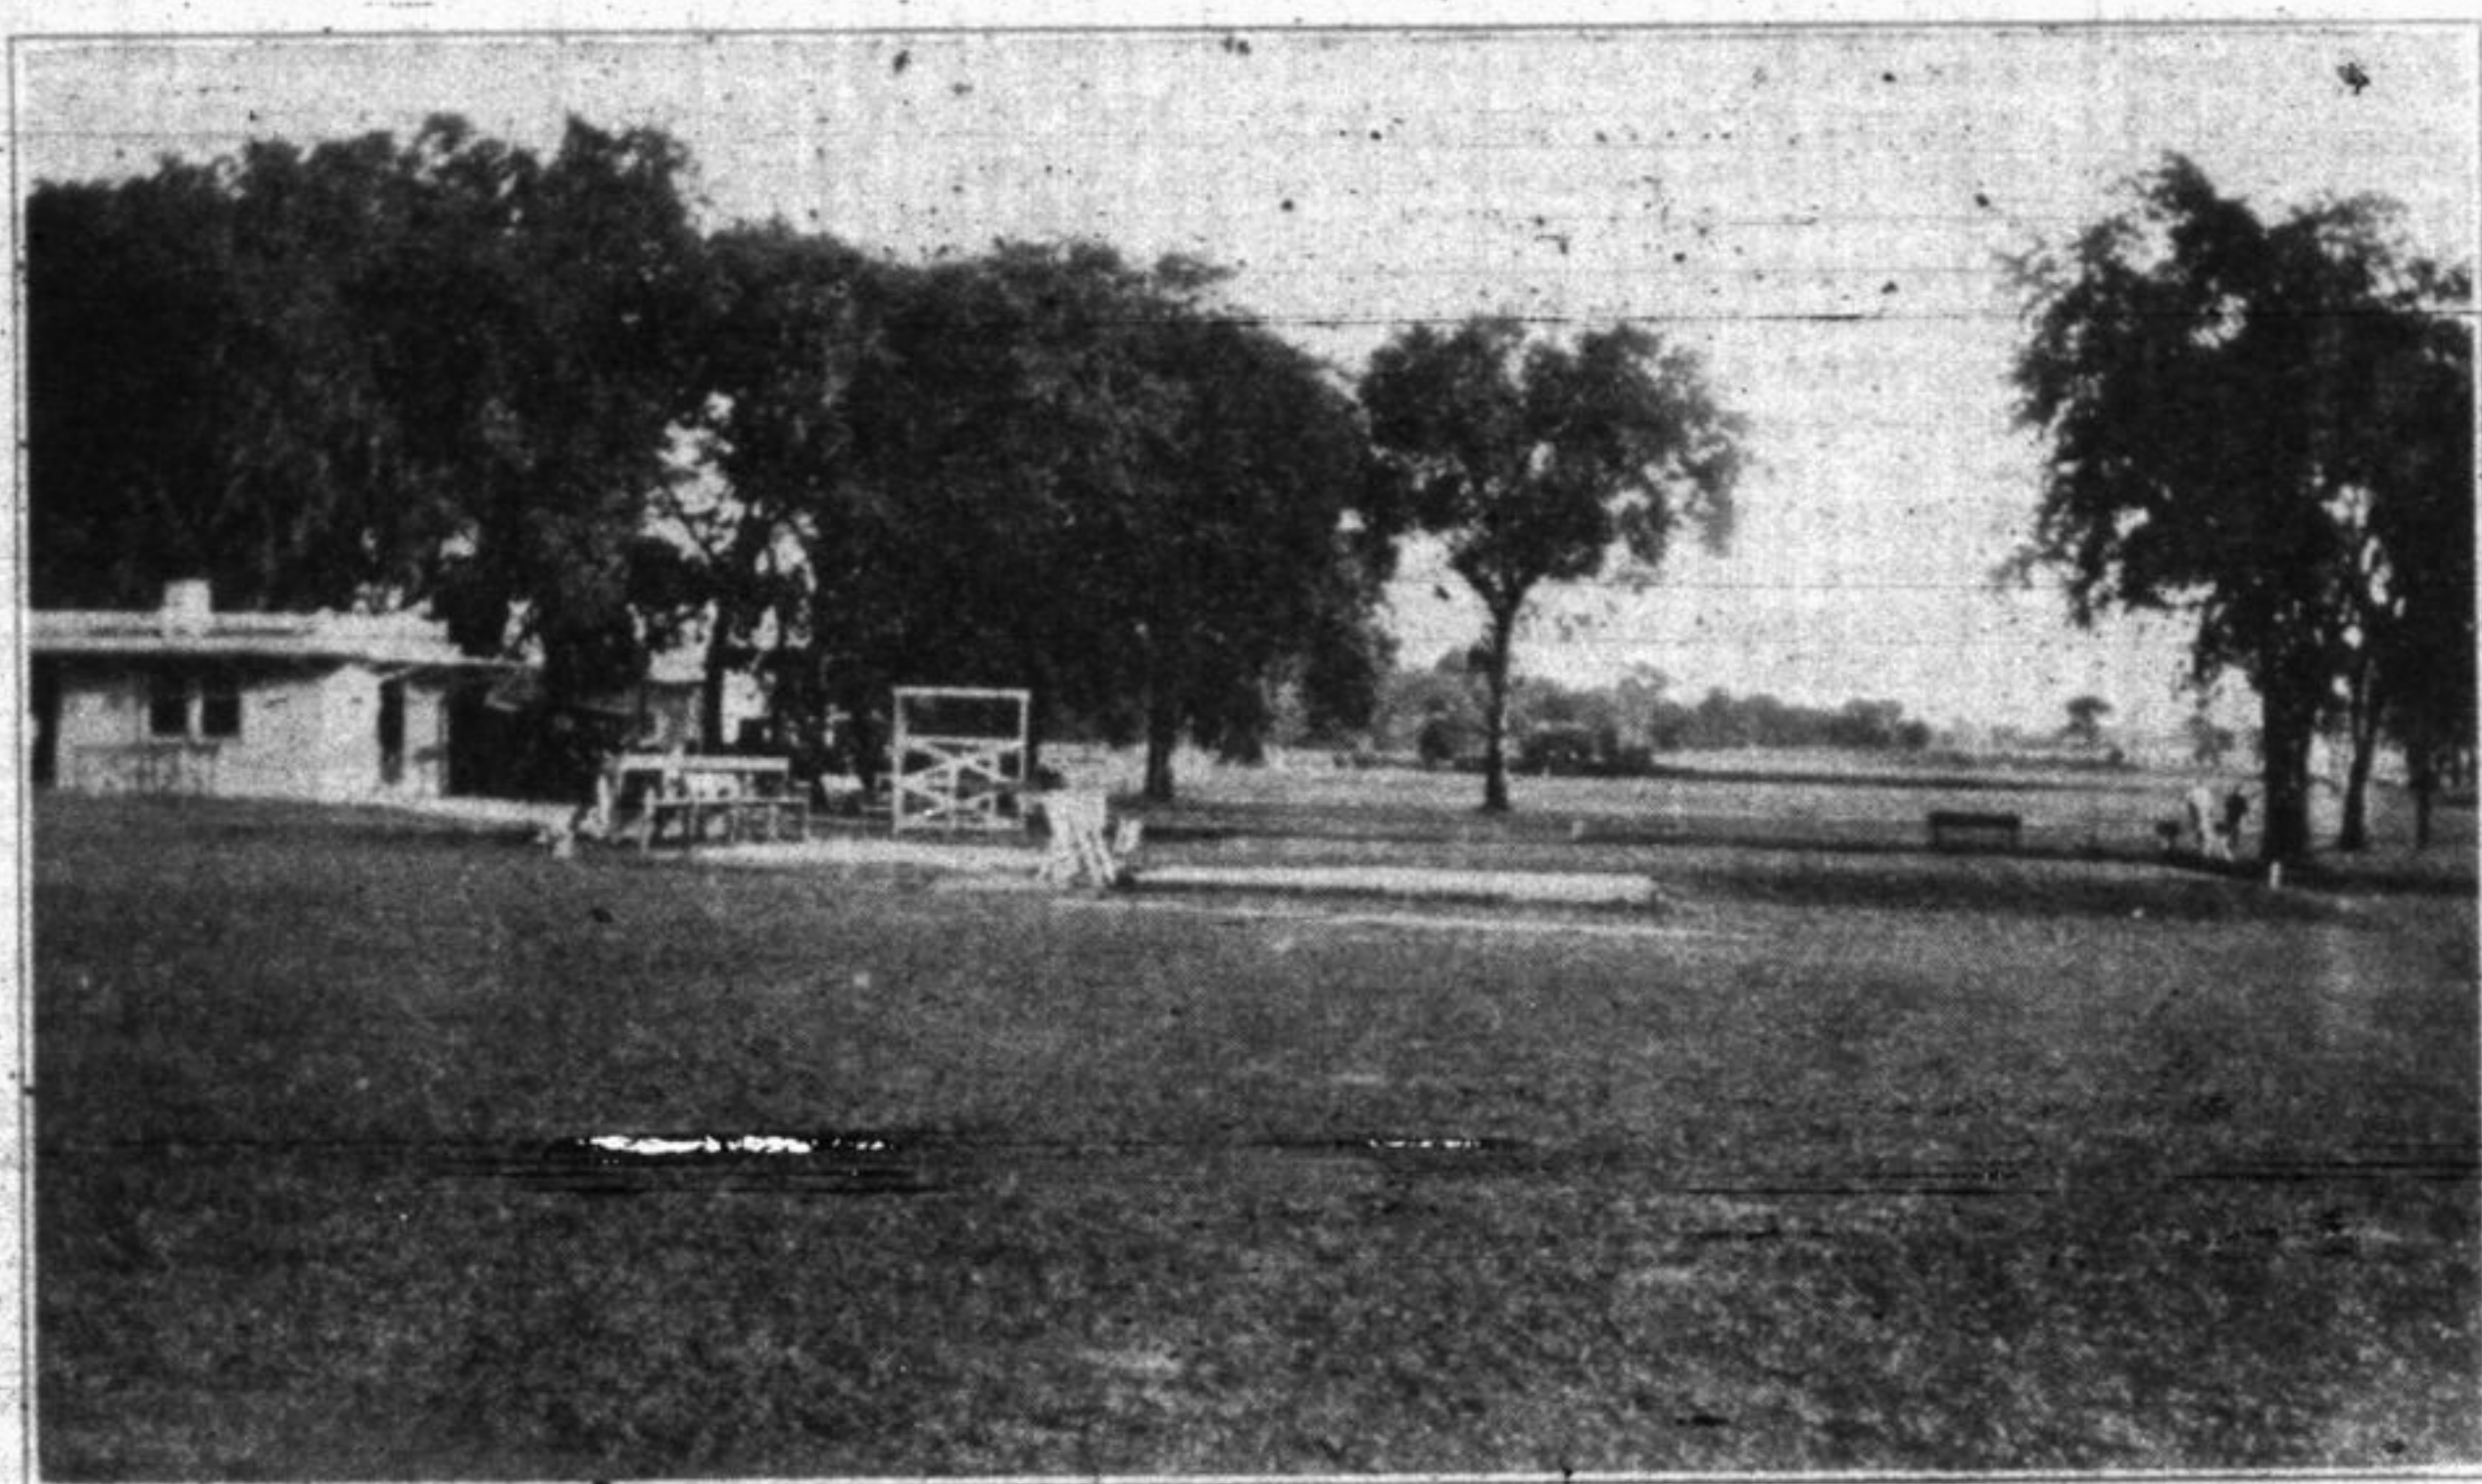

In the amateur class Richard Martin, known to his friends as "Dick", was victor, with a score of 147, beating Chick Evans, who was second.

The other foremost amateur scores are as follows:

Rial Rolfe	153
Gus Fetz	153
Art Sweet	156
Bob Cary	157
Don Hamilton	158
Al Quigley	159
Sterling Dawson	160

Prizes for Amateurs

"Dick" Martin received a silver trophy together with a beautiful golf bag. The second prize, also an elegant golf bag, was awarded to Chick Evans.

First Tee Sunset Valley

There were more than 20 prizes awarded and some are still being held for distribution.

The entries were far beyond all expectations as it was hoped that 100 entries would be secured, but by the diligent work of Mr. Tom Kelly, the professional, the entries continued to come in up to the last day.

There were threatening clouds in the morning, but before noon the weather became ideal.

It was most gratifying and pleasing to witness the enthusiastic spirit of co-operation among the contestants.

A large gallery followed Chick Evans, Abe Espinosa, Ed Gayer and Bob MacDonald, also Jock Hutchison, Jim Carberry and Willie Hunter.

Many Spectators

In the play off between Rouse and Hutchison the whole field followed to the fourth hole, it being necessary to string a rope across the entire fairways to keep the spectators in control.

It is estimated that at least 1,000 in contestants and spectators were on the course that day. It will be a memorial day for Sunset valley.

Much credit is due Fred Proctor, Harland Rohm, Art Sweet and Jack Hoag of the staffs of the Chicago daily papers who assisted not only in the promotion but also in getting the results before the public of the Chicago district. An operator was stationed at the Western Union office for the purpose of wiring the results.

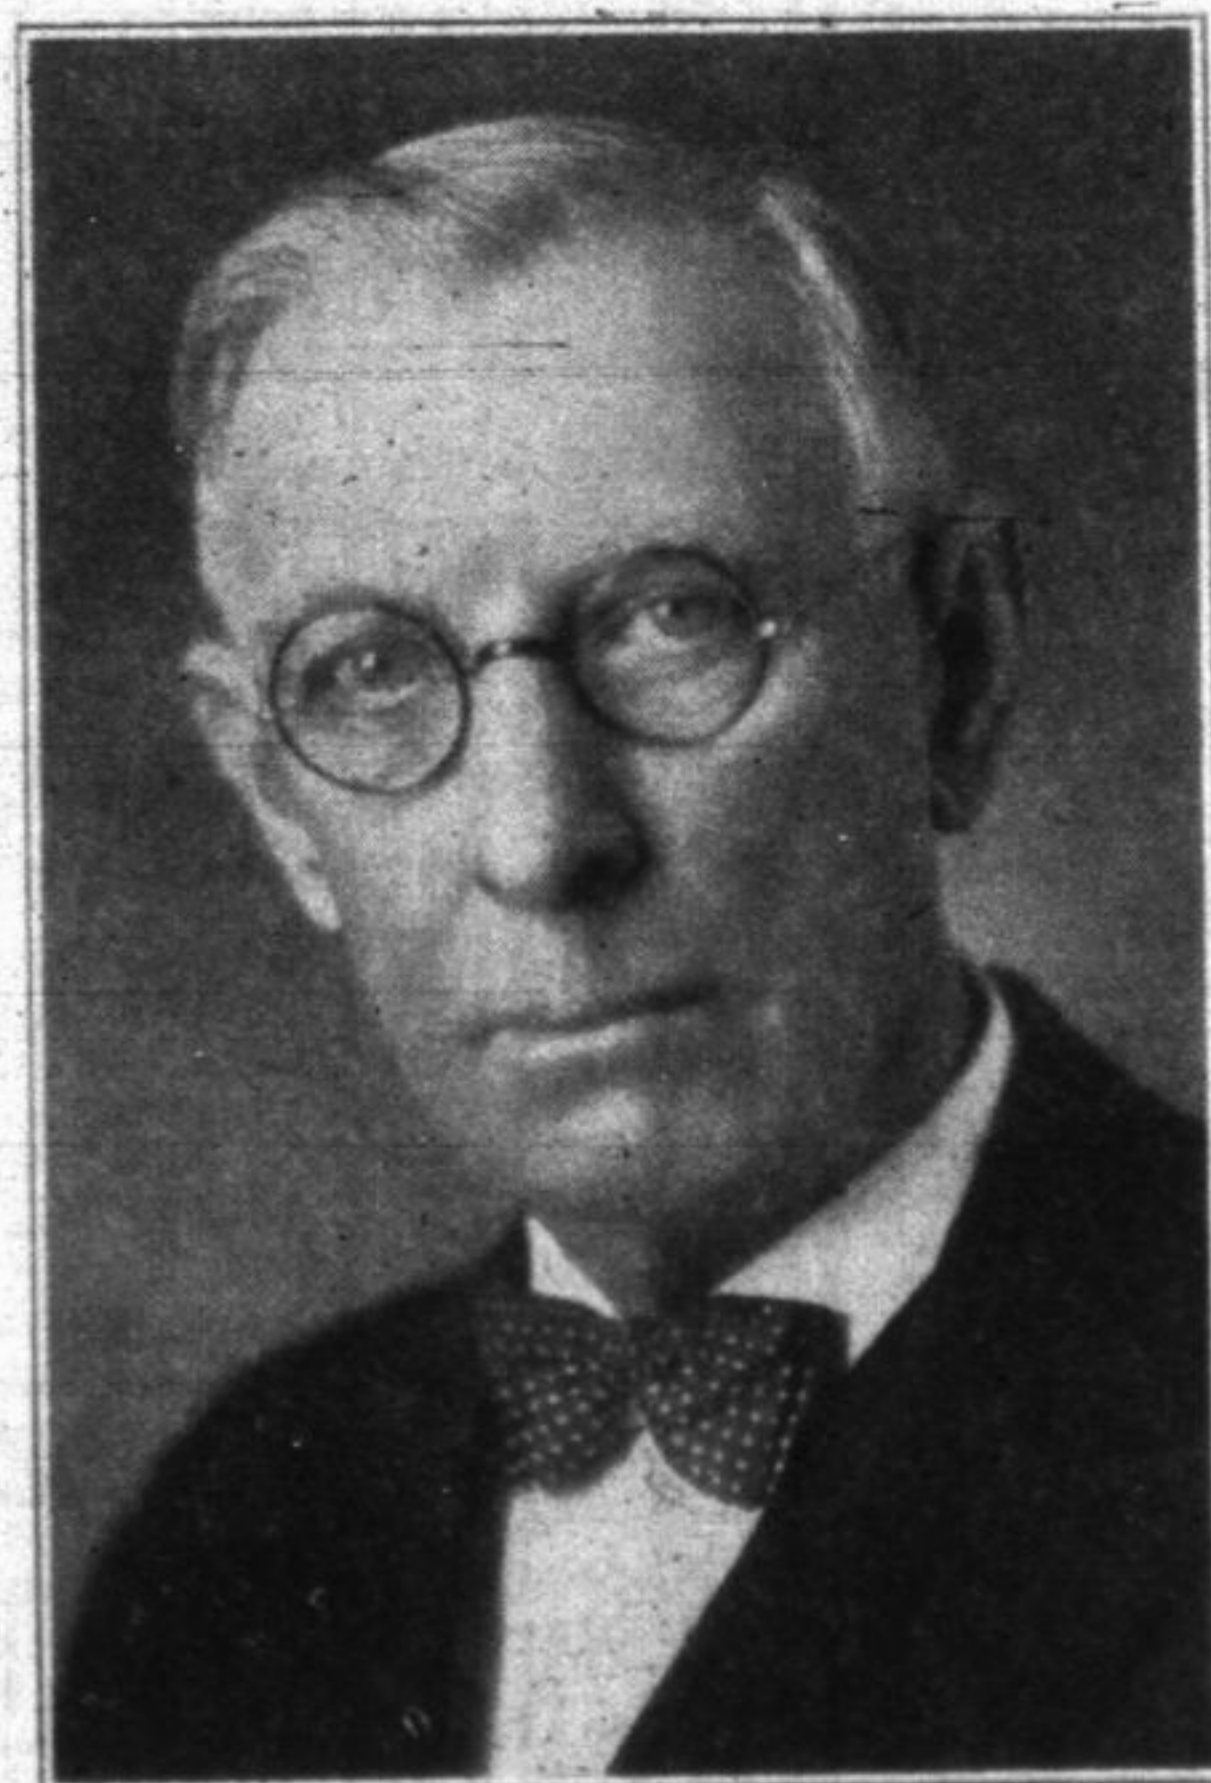

Financial Success

Unlike other tournaments of this kind it was a complete financial success. All cash prizes were paid at the tee. Some assistance was received from the following business houses of the city: John Gourley & Co., Brand Bros., North Shore Buick Co., Meierhoff Hardware Co., Highland Park State bank, Highland Park Beverage Co., Highland Park Fuel Co., Highland Park Press, Art Olson Co., The Highland Park News, Tillman Service Station, Steffen Auto Supply, W. H. McKillip, Pennsylvania Oil Co.

Mr. Hunter of the Hunter Sport Shop, together with Mr. Zahn, were on hand with their movie camera and spared no effort in securing a lot of fine pictures which it is hoped will be exhibited later.

More than four hundred feet of film were taken and the officials greatly appreciate Mr. Hunter's gift in this work.

Edward M. Laing

Who has done so much to make Sunset Valley Golf Club one of the finest municipal clubs in the country

High praise was given President E. M. Laing on the way in which the tournament was arranged and conducted and also upon the splendid condition of the course. The Chicago Post says that Mr. Laing has built up one of the finest municipal golf courses in this part of the country, and other golf experts present congratulated him upon the splendid course.

Everyone connected with the tournament seemed to be imbued with the spirit of co-operation, which is responsible for the success of the undertaking.

Professional Tom Kelly

Who is greatly responsible for the success of the tournament

"Hap" Martin

Who came in third in the professional class

Mrs. Daisy Rothschild Dies in Winnetka, Ill.

Mrs. Daisy A. Rothschild, widow of David Rothschild and sister of Joseph K. Arnold, 430 Essex road, Winnetka, passed away at her brother's home last week. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold returned from a trip to California some weeks ago and found Mrs. Rothschild very ill on their return. Medical aid failed to restore her. Funeral services were held at Rosehill cemetery Thursday, June 13.

Open Gardens June 22

The following list of gardens, all in Lake Forest, will be opened Saturday, June 22:

- Mrs. William P. Martin.
- Mrs. Alfred H. Granger.
- Mrs. DeForest Hulburd.
- Mrs. William McCormick Blair.

Poor Bills of County Total Large Sum; List of Amounts Is Given

In Amateur Class

The poor in Waukegan, Shields and Deerfield townships cost Lake county taxpayers $14,735.64 during the last quarter, according to the report submitted to the county board by Chas. Crapo, chairman of the poor committee for these three townships.

In Waukegan township $9,494.63 was doled out to the poor; $2,416.23 was spent in Shields and $2,824.78 in Deerfield township. The audit report was approved and ordered placed on file.

Money paid to state institution for the care of delinquent and dependent children during the last three months amounted to $3,104.24 according to the report of the state charities committee of which Supervisor Charles Wilcox, of Libertyville, is chairman.

Maintenance of county roads, engineering costs, operating expenses of the highway department, etc., cost Lake county $25,372.98 during the months of March, April and May, according to the quarterly audit report of the road and bridge committee. Of this amount $17,161.74 was expended in repairing and maintaining county highways, the report shows.

The sum of $9,303.21 was expended for operation and care of inmates at the Lake county poor farm, the audit report of Supervisor B. C. Thompson, chairman of the poor farm committee, shows. The report was approved by the board.

The balance of the poor claims for the county, excluding Waukegan, Deerfield and Shields townships, reached $3,294, the county board of supervisors were advised. The township bills were as follows: Antioch, $256; Avon $307; Benton $1,168; Cuba $33; Ela $25; Grant $53; Lake Villa $174; Libertyville $747; Newport $142; Wauconda $33; Warren $204; and West Deerfield $146.

Evanston Third in Building Per Capita

Evanston ranks third among all the cities of the United States in its per capita expenditure for buildings. It leads all the cities in the nation outside of the New York district. This rating is made of the basis of the 1928 building totals and is contained in the bulletin on housing just issued by the department of labor.

Evanston attained this rank in spite of the fact that its 1928 building total was the lowest in four years. Last year Evanstonians expended $13,178,225 for new buildings.

At the top of the list of cities as compiled by the department of labor comes White Plains, N.Y., with a per capita expenditure of $440.15. Yonkers, N.Y., is second with a total of $293.64; Evanston's figure is $276. Then come Mt. Vernon, N.Y., with $260; New Rochelle, N.Y., with $239.

The bulletin points out that all these first five cities are suburban communities, four being in the New York area and one in the Chicago area.

"The library is your bank, the librarian is your teller, the card is your passbook, the book is your investment, the knowledge is your interest."—The Millicent Library Bulletin.