Local and Personal

A very beautiful wedding was that of Miss Cleona Maisie Udell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Latham Udell, and Mr. James Jay Gathercoal, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Gathercoal of Wilmette, which took place Saturday evening at eight thirty o'clock at the home of bride's parents at 147 Lakeview terrace. The ceremony was read by the Rev. Walter C. Bihler, rector of Christ Church, River Forest, before an improvised altar at the back of the garden formed by an arch of white roses, banked with palms and ferns and two large baskets of gladioli on either side of the arch. Japanese lanterns were hung around the yard, adding to the attractive directions. An aisle was formed of tulle ribbon stretched the length of the yard by Duane Cope and Nathan Udell. The bride was very pretty in her white satin gown with tulle veil and lace cap, carrying a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Elizabeth Phelps, as maid of honor, wore a bouffant frock of pale green satin and moline with orchid trimming and shoes of orchid crepe de chine. The bridesmaids, Elaine Dietrich and Gladys Udell, were attired in dresses of orchid and yellow satin and moline of the same style as the maid of honor's dress with shoes to match their dresses. All three attendants carried bouquets of sweetheart roses, blue and yellow larkspur. Donna Jean Udell and Mary Lu Sanborn as flower girls wore frocks of peach colored crepe de chene and carried baskets of spring flowers. Mr. Gathercoal was attended by Walter Cope, Jr., as best man and William Kleitz Wanner and Mr. Fred Calkins as ushers. A reception followed the ceremony in the garden, after which the young couple left for Chicago, where they remained until the next day, when they left for a motor trip to Canada. Upon their return they will reside in Wilmette. They will be at home to their friends after August 15 at 124 Lockerbie road, Wilmette.

On Saturday afternoon at four o'clock a very lovely wedding took place at the Highland Park Presbyterian church when Miss Ruth Bixby Sinclair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Brockway Sinclair, was married to Mr. John Fred Bell of Carrolton, Ohio, the Rev. Frank Fitt officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charming in a dress of shell pink chiffon and lace with shoes and horsehair hat to match and carrying a large bouquet of pink roses and larkspur. Her sister, Mrs. Donald Tector of Hagerstown, Indiana, who served as matron of honor, wore a chiffon dress of larkspur blue trimmed with lace, with shoes and hat to match and carried a bouquet of blue larkspur and pink roses. Mr. Harold Bell, brother of the groom acted as best man, while Mr. Gordon Cook of Ravinia, Mr. Leland Sage of Greencastle, Indiana, Mr. Foster Smith of Orient, Illinois, and Mr. Joseph Ramser of Urbana, Illinois, served as ushers. Miss Ruth Tegtmeyer, a Wellesly classmate of the bride, was at the organ and Mr. Theodore Du Moulin played the cello. A very lovely musical program, given by the two artists, preceded the ceremony. An informal reception was held in the narthex of the church immediately afterwards, while later a private reception was held for seventy-five at the Sinclair home on Dale avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Bell left Wednesday for Montreal, from where they will sail for a two months' trip through Europe. On their return they will reside in Cleveland, Ohio, where Mr. Bell is connected with Western Reserve university. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bacon and family of Henderson, Kentucky; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bell and family, Mrs. G. E. Bell and family and Mr. and Mrs. William Saltsman of Carrolton, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cook and Mrs. O. T. Waite and family of Oshkosh, Wisconsin, and Mrs. Andrew Hallum of Dayton, Ohio, and others.

Miss Anne Mills and Miss Mary Mavor left Friday for Burntside, Michigan, where they will join Miss Mills' parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Mills. They will spend the summer there.

Mrs. G. E. Bliss and son, George, and two daughters, the Misses Mae and Madeline, of North Linden avenue are expected home Friday from the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Meyers of Park avenue, Glencoe, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter on Monday, June 24, at the Highland Park hospital.

Allan Porter spent the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Porter of North Linden avenue. He returned Wednesday to Madison, Wisconsin.

Dr. and Mrs. Donald Rossiter of Lyman court announce the birth of a daughter on Thursday, June 20, at the Highland Park hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Porter of Cary avenue are enjoying a trip in the east. They are expected home the middle of next month.

Mrs. James Cady Ewell and family of Cary avenue returned Saturday from Newcastle, Indiana, where they spent the week. Mrs. Ewell's mother, Mrs. Joseph Crow of Omaha, Nebraska, returned with her to be her guest for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gherardine of Cloverdale avenue are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son on Friday, June 22, at the Highland Park hospital.

Mrs. G. H. Rogers of 1317 S. St. Johns avenue has returned from New York, where she has been visiting for three months.

Mrs. Harry A. Parkin of Laurel avenue is in Europe, where she will remain for two months.

The Philathea class of the First United Evangelical church met Tuesday evening with Mrs. Arthur Tillman of Park avenue.

Inside Stuff

ON days like THIS we sometimes WISH our job was OUTSIDE, say down BY the lake and THEN when we think OF THE cold weather WE had last winter WE'RE glad that we HAVE an inside job, WHICH just proves THAT lots of people NEVER are satisfied, BUT at that we know THAT if you are thirsty AND visit our fountain AND try one of our SPECIAL drinks or TAKE home a brick of ICE CREAM to the FAMILY you'll enjoy as NEAR complete satisfaction AS it is possible to OBTAIN, and my, how PLEASSED your family WILL be too.

MORAL: Even in hot weather our lives are as we think and make them.
