

Local and Personal

Mr. Harry Sellery of Bronson avenue is leaving Saturday for La Jolla, California, where he will be the guest of his aunt, Miss White.

Mrs. Orson B. Brand and daughter, Salome, are spending this week at Random Lake, Wis. Mr. Brand spent the week-end there with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sanborn and daughter, Mary Lu, will leave Friday for a two weeks motor trip around Lake Michigan.

James I. Loeb, Jr., a member of the class of 1929, just graduated from Dartmouth college, was elected to Phi Beta Kappa on June 17. Mr. Loeb graduated from Deerfield-Shields in June, 1925.

Mrs. S. M. Gooder has been seriously ill with pluryis and bronchitis at her home on West Deerfield road for the past three weeks.

Messrs. Albert and Clarence Malmquist are planning to leave Malm on a two weeks' fishing trip near Iron River, Mich., where they have a cabin.

Mrs. John Gallagher was pleasantly surprised Tuesday afternoon by eight of her friends who came to extend congratulations and best wishes for a happy birthday.

Mr. Henry Fisher of S. Green Bay road who suffered a broken knee last week in a fall is getting along as well as can be expected.

Mrs. Ed Nevins will entertain eight ladies at bridge at her home on Central avenue tomorrow evening, Friday.

Mrs. Joseph Stipe will entertain her afternoon bridge club at her home on S. Green Bay road tomorrow afternoon. There will be three tables.

Sergeant and Mrs. Annon of Fort Sheridan entertained a number of guests at a dinner party Tuesday evening at her home in the Post.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schultz of Pleasant street had as their week-end guests Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schultz of Mankato, Wis.

Mrs. Gregory Burns returned to her home in Minneapolis Sunday after spending the past ten days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Sullivan of East Park avenue.

Mr. Albert Nafe who suffered a stroke last month is still in the Highland Park hospital where his condition remains about the same.

Marguerite Axt, who was struck by an automobile some time ago is recovering slowly at her home on High street.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kirby of North avenue, Highwood, are the proud parents of a daughter born on Saturday, June 22, at the Highland Park hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Breakwell of Sheridan avenue were given a housewarming Monday evening by a number of their friends. The Breakwells have just recently moved here from Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Schuette of 1001 North Sheridan road were at home informally Monday evening for their tenth wedding anniversary.

Miss Martha Hempel and Mr. Harold Duffy are enjoying a two weeks' vacation in Poy Sippi, Wis.

A buffet supper and bridge party will be held this evening at Briergate Golf club. Supper will be from 6:30 to 8 p. m. and bridge promptly at eight o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gerhardt, Sr., who are enroute from California to Europe spent Tuesday with Mr. Ger-hardt's son and family, the Paul Gerhardt's of 22 S. Green Bay road.

Among the Highland Parkers taking the College Board Entrance examinations at Northwestern university last week were: Barbara Shipnes, Carlton Bingham, Clover Benson, Page Beers, and Caroline Bullard.

Mrs. Arthur F. Oppenheimer of 327 N. Sheridan road will entertain forty on Saturday at a luncheon party in honor of the board of managers of the Chicago Woman's Aid of which she is president and also in honor of the past president.

The board members of the Woman's Missionary society of the Bethany Evangelical church met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. William Guyot.

Rose Alma Roth has returned from Sheboygan, Wis., where she spent the past week as the guest of Miss Marie Wolter.

Mrs. Jesse Sobey will serve as chaplain Friday evening at Milburn chapter, at the official visit of the worthy grand matron. Mrs. Vivian Scott will preside in the East.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Olson will entertain the Press bridge club, Saturday evening.

Last Tuesday evening Mrs. Anna Roth was guest of honor at Deputy's night held at Francesco temple, Chicago.

Dr. and Mrs. Ingalls and daughter, Helen, will return from Los Angeles where Miss Helen has been attending school about July 4th, driving via El Paso, Ft. Worth, Lincoln, Neb., and Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Bingham of Prospect avenue and their two sons, Carlton and John Norris, are sailing June 26 on the Berengaria for Southampton. They are taking their car with them and will motor in England, France, and Switzerland.

Mrs. Hazel Chapman and Mrs. Gertrude Gooseman entertained forty-six guests on Monday evening in honor of the thirty-fifth wedding anniversary of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney B. Swift of Crofton avenue with son Rodney and daughter Genevieve left for a ten weeks' tour of Europe. Miss Georgia Donnersberger of S. Green Bay road accompanied them.

Mrs. R. P. Page Wainwright, 441 St. Johns place, has returned from Seattle, Wash. She has been with her daughter, Mrs. Frederick Mears, during the long illness and death of her granddaughter, Helen Rogers Mears.

Dorothy Klemp of McGovern street celebrated her sixth birthday on Wednesday. She entertained ten of her little friends and they all had the most fun.

Doctor: "Is that a patient in the waiting-room?"

Servant: "No, sir; he comes once a month to read the magazines."

uesday Mrs. Porges
ain sixteen guests at each.
lland of East Park
ng the water works
held in Toronto,
k.
committee of the
th Shore Congrega-
t with Mrs. Harry home on Kincaid
L. Lindenthal of n, Wednesday. The various north shore
Morrison of Evan-
eister of Wilmette,
of Winnetka, Mrs.
nce and Mrs. Wal-
of Highland Park.
ened at ten o'clock,
delightful luncheon
means committee of Congregational Is-
his afternoon at the amuel Goodman of
hairman.
onnell will be hosening (Friday) to
r bridge club at her ood drive. There
Connell entertained
om Northbrook at
sday at the Green
luncheon bridge was ome on Ridgewood
arry Pertz and son
on Monday, after
week with relatives
iana.
Peter Kenyon of guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon is er, who has been
business trip to Mus-
returned home on Hastings and her
Moore, entertained
ridge, yesterday at lton Hardacre have eks trip to New left Saturday for
with relatives in d family attended
reunion at Lake
tz of North Green
ined the members
club Tuesday eve-
ian and Winifred
g this week from
ope.
s visiting his aunt,
in Flossmore for a
has left for Estes
she will spend the maine is in the ital suffering from
eye. She is get-m out of town who
ng of Miss Cleona
ames Gathercoal,
Mr. and Mrs. T.
and Mr. and Mrs.
f Grand Rapids,
of St. Louis, Mo., William H. Cope of members of the al church gave a party on the Rev.

*The Thrill of Day-Long Comfort
in these smart shoes*

because of the patented Selby Arch Preserver arch bridge, flat inner sole, and metatarsal support so skilfully concealed in each chic model.

Fell Bros
SHOES

509 Central Avenue
Phone Highland Park 456

GREATEST SUBMARINE PICTURE EVER PRODUCED
SHIPS
The

There is a lure to Early American Furniture that fascinates us all

You will be surprised to learn that in these days of glowing Modernism this Early American design—not only holds its own—but exceeds all others in favor. No wonder! Its simplicity of lines fits in harmoniously with the most modern surroundings. The effects are surprising.

The Beds $27.50. Springs $9.95. Mattress $12.50

3 FLOORS DEVOTED TO QUALITY FURNITURE

BROWN FURNITURE CO.

1460 Sherman Ave. Evanston, Ill.