

Hints for Motorists

The fuel pump with which many of the newer cars are equipped is a good thing, but if you let your gas get too low, the sediment which collects in the bottom of the tank may be pumped into the mechanism and damage it seriously.

Westerns Go to Their Michigan Summer Home

Mr. and Mrs. John Western of North Shore cemetery left for the Bay Lake Fruit Farms and Was-Wah-Go-Ning, their summer home on Torch Lake, Michigan, yesterday. On Wednesday, next, Mr. and Mrs. Western will join other members of the American Rose society in a Rose Pilgrimage to "Fair Lane" the estate of Henry Ford. After spending two hours on the estate they will be guests of Mr. Ford at a luncheon at the country club.

The American people are told that they should keep their heads, but some of them seen on the roads of Illinois seem to have left theirs at home.

The musicians announce musical treats, but retreats are often necessary on the part of the audience.

Old-Fashioned Parent: "No, I will never recognize an actress as my daughter-in-law."

Lovesick Son: "But she isn't an actress; she only thinks she's one."

Student: "I have just bought an encyclopaedia and there is everything in it you want to know."

Landlady: "Then just look and find out when I am to receive the money-for your rent."

The European nations could settle that reparations conference in fifteen minutes if Uncle Sam would only agree to settle all the remaining war bills.

Some of Lloyd George's glowing British political promises sound to us like they had been made out of material furnished by some of our own professional farm relievers.

One of those Jonahs who spoils the future of many towns, is Mr. Al. Ways Knocking.

Too many people trying to get in the limelight of society, and not enough trying to get in the sunlight of the cornfields.

The only rod with which the modern boy is acquainted is the fishrod.

Some people remark that new money in the form of bills sticks together too much, but most of us find it too slippery.

Some of the time the boys put in holding hands, should be devoted to holding the handles of hoes.
