to these concerts and reserved seats are free for everyone.

"Martha" July 11

Romance, fun and melody will be the features on Thursday night, July 11, for "Martha" has been selected as the operatic offering for this time. This work by Von Flotow, which may be considered as international in character, is perhaps the most universally loved of all light operas.

This was fully demonstrated at Ravinia last season when it was necessary to present it on five different occasions. The Ravinia cast of this opera reaches the highest standards, Florence Macbeth appearing in the title role with Mario Chamlee as Lionel, Gladys Swarthout as Nancy, Virgilio Lazzari as Plunkett, Vittorio Trevisan as Sir Tristan, and Louis D'Angelo as the sheriff. Tunes of gaiety and romance crowd closely upon one another throughout this work and the action reaches a happy ending. Louis Hasselmans will conduct.

"La Juive," Halevy's great dramatic opera, will be brought to performance for the first time this season on Friday night, July 12, with exactly the same cast that has made it so popular with Ravinia patrons in seasons past. Mme Rethberg will be heard as Rachel, a role she added to her repertoire at Ravinia some seasons ago and for which one is perfectly endowed by reason of the dramatic power and the lyric quality of her voice. Giovanni Martinelli will be Eliazar, one of the most exacting of his dramatic roles and Leon Rothier will be cast as the Cardinal. Miss Macbeth will sing the role of the Princess and Jose Mojica will be Leopold. Others in the cast are Mr. Cehanovsky, Mr. Ananian and Mr. Coscia. There will be ballet in which Miss Page and Mr. Strawbridge will be featured. Mr. Hasselmans will conduct.

The week will close on Saturday night, July 13, with another performance of "Fra Diavolo," that gay opera conique by Auber, for which Ravinia boasts an inimitable cast. Mario Chamlee, one of the best of the lyric comedians, will have the title role and Florence Macbeth will be heard as the fun-loving and romantic Zerlina. Jose Mojica will appear as Lorenzo. Mme. Bourskaya and Mr. Trevisan will be cast as Lord and Lady Rockburg, while Virgilio Lazzari and Giordano Paltrinieri will cast all dignity to the winds as a pair of tramp bandits. Louis D'Angelo will have the role of the Inn Keeper. Genaro Papi will conduct.

Wood, Tribune Flyer, Is Well Known Here

in Lake Forest college. During his last two years in college Robert was north shore staff correspondent of the Tribune, succeeding his brother in that position, and later he joined the editorial staff in the Tribune office. Last year when the Tribune established an Aviation department he was placed at its head. He has flown on numerous trips in the Tribune plane with Pilot Bob Gast, to New York several times, to points in the southern states and elsewhere in the country, and has made many trips in other planes. He has known Parker "Shorty" Cramer, who is the third member of the trio to fly on the European trip, since last year when he saw Cramer and Hassell start from Rockford on a similar flight which ended when they came down in Greenland. Wood has every confidence in the ability of both Gast and Cramer as pilots and navigators. Wood is 25 years old; he was born in 1904, in Canton, Ill., where his father was for years managing editor of a daily newspaper. Both Bob and his brother grew up in a newspaper atmosphere, beginning their experiences as reporters while in high school.
