Last Sunday evening our people had the rare privilege of hearing Mr. Robert La Mar, a nationally known singer and lecturer, one of the outstanding artists of America. Having studied under the teacher of Caruso, Mr. La Mar knows and can sing all kinds of music, but he loves to sing only the best. He has been referred to as "The Caruso of Gospel Singers." Mr. La Mar was accompanied at the piano by Miss Mabel Woodward, who was pianist at the Adams street church, Chicago, during Rev. Johnson's pastorate. We regret that arrangements for this service were made too late to advertise it, but we have the promise that Mr. La Mar will come again this fall, so that the people of Deerfield will have an opportunity of hearing him. It is hoped that this service can be held in the school auditorium.

This church will offer another rare treat in music this fall when a concert will be given by the Metropolitan church choir of Chicago. This choir is composed of one hundred colored singers. Their concert of Negro spirituals will be worth hearing. Watch for announcement of date and place.

The pastor has been granted by the official board of the church a month's vacation. This time will be spent at the Winona School of Theology, Winona lake, Indiana, where Rev. Johnson is taking work for his master's degree.

The W. M. S. will hold a food and bakery sale Saturday, July 13, at Hoffman's store, corner of Deerfield avenue and Waukegan road.
