Decker's Little Plumber

A LEAK in a drain or any other fixture in your home is a menace to health. Of course, some old rags wrapped around the pipe will, in a makeshift way, stop the leak temporarily. But send a hurry call to us as soon as you discover the leak. You will thereby save a lot of your property.

101 Ranch Shows at Waukegan on Monday July 15; Features

The only big show left which features a street parade in the forenoon of the day of exhibition, Miller Brothers' 101 Ranch Real Wild West is coming, under the personal direction of Colonel Zack Miller, to Waukegan Monday, July 15, at the Grand avenue show grounds, for two performances, at 2 and 8 p. m. In heading this way, the show has only a short railroad jump, and the management promises that nothing will be in the way of the parade which is always one of the great local attractions, when this big show exhibits in this part of the country.

The new 101 Ranch street parade, positively the largest in the world, with all its color, its picturesque horsemen, its tableaux wagons and floats, its bands, elephants, camels, buffalo, longhorns, covered wagons, Indians, cowboys and cowgirls, calliope and mounted soldiery of all nations will leave the lot in our neighbor city at 10:30 a. m. on exhibition day and will without doubt attract thousands from the countryside.

Many famous fighting Indian chiefs and braves will ride in the dazzling "march past," the hundreds of cowboys and cowgirls will be decked out in their best, the 1,100 people with the show will present themselves to the populace, a glorious spectacle of the wild west in the eighties in its two-mile long splendor, will be one of the events in outdoor entertainments of the year.

And in the big arena with its opera chair grandstand, seating 12,500 people, will be presented not only the biggest and wildest wild west show ever seen, but also a regular circus performance, which will thrill the circus fans with its feats of daring and glamour.

Lake Co. Farmers Are in Favor of Test Measure

Farmers of Lake county are much interested in the fact that the compulsory bovine tuberculin testing bill will become effective July 1 by virtue of the fact that the measure was signed recently by Governor Emerson. For the most part the local farmers appear to approve of the measure, says the Waukegan Sun. They point to the fact that a large majority of the cattle in Lake county already have been tested and they feel that the condition might just as well become 100 per cent.

Free Guide Lecture Tours at Field Museum

"Skeletons" and "Drama in the Orient," at 11 a. m. and 3 p. m., respectively, on Monday, July 15, are the subjects of the first of next week's free guide-lecture tours at Field Museum of Natural History. On Wednesday at the same hours subjects will be "Peoples of the Pacific Islands" and "South America"; and on Friday, "Unusual Plants" and "Ancient Burial Customs." On Tuesday and Thursday the tours will be general over the various departments of the museum. Parties for these tours assemble inside the main entrance, where they are met by staff lecturers.
