

Box Score of Cricket Game

The Highland Park Cricket club won two games over the holiday weekend. On Independence Day it defeated the Lincoln Park Argyle C.C. in convincing fashion, the score being 154 for 5 to the visitors total of 69.

On Sunday the local team decisively defeated the strong International Cricket club of Chicago (West Indians), the present league champions. Highland Park again won with five wickets to spare, and for the fourth time passed the 100 mark. No opponents have yet scored 100 runs against Highland Park. The score was 130 against 88.

Then next game will be played on July 21st, when the local club will entertain Moss Rose of Oak Park, which team defeated the Highland Park club in the first game of the year. The local players hope and expect to revenge themselves for this defeat—the only game Moss Rose won in seven starts. Visitors are invited. Games begin at 2:30.

June Marriage License Total Short of Record

The marriage license bureau in the county clerk's office did a rushing business during June, proverbial month of brides, but even at that the 1928 figure was missed by 13 licenses. During June of last year, according to an announcement made by Deputy County Clerk Joseph Stanczak today, 633 marriage licenses were issued, while last month 620 couples were wed.

The young folks are urged to practice etiquette, but the mushy ones say that pettiquet is better.

The fresh young men who rock the boat at the summer resorts, are not showing any ability to rock the cradle properly.

The boy who wouldn't get up in the morning when he was called to breakfast, usually finds it expedient to come to dinner promptly after getting married.
